A MUSICAL FRAS.

Salem musical people were indebted recently to some gentlemen of the Wesleyan Brotherhood of the First M. Church for a concert of much more than ordinary merit. It was got up on short notice and with very little preparation, and had but a small attendance, as it was only a little advertised and had not a good date.

The first chorus showed capacity on the part of the performers but of course to be of any value the training had been very thorough. Professor Wernickel was appointed for by Mr. Heritage, as being just over an attack of the lagrippe, but he consented to come up and sing one number, which he did to the great delight of his friends and of the entire audience, who gave him a hearty encore. His singing as well as that of Heritage were up-to-date performances, such as one only heard in the larger cities, and would be well supported and better patronized in smaller places if the people once understood and appreciated the work.

Professor Heritage, late of Grace M. E. church Chicago, met with especial favor. He is a pupil of the renowned Professor Wm. Tomlins of Chicago, and other great masters. In the second number, "The Messiah," he pleased the entire audience very much. His "Worshipful stand When He Appeared," was new in fine expression. As an encore he sang a lighter selection but of great dramatic power.

Mrs. William played in a masterly manner as usual. In her Salem has a really wonderful performer at the piano. Her self-reliance, perfect musical technique and brilliant execution was a combination of talents not often seen. Miss Hughes showed herself to be a sympathetic accompanist, although the scores were not familiar and difficult.

Prof. Brown gave the portion scene from "Romeo and Juliet," in full justice to the Shakespearean muse, sending forth a flood of horror and pity alternating down her laurels, spinal columns, fairly making them quiver. She responded with "We didn't have much at Christmas at our house," a production the extreme opposite, in musical nature.

THE RIELY BENEFIT.
Such a complete notice of the principal features of Mrs. Chas. S. Rely's benefit program was given in the JOURNAL Friday last is left to say, except that all the parts were filled to the letter. The star of the evening was given a grand reception in every number. Every part pleased the audience immensely. The music of the orchestra and stage setting was brilliant in the extreme, and seldom has a Salem stage witnessed a better program.

Y. P. S. C. ENDEAVOR.
The state Endeavor convention at Salem, May 9 to May 12, is to be composed of about 500 delegates and so far the committee on entertainment has been able to secure accommodations for only about two hundred. The entertainment committee met last night and found that unless a more generous spirit was shown by the Christian people the management of the committee would be much embarrassed.

O. A. R. SOCIAL.
A supper and musical social were the program at the O. A. R. hall, Monday evening. There was a large attendance and a very enjoyable time such as only the veterans and W. R. C. ladies can have. The McElroy children showed themselves to be musical prodigies.

SOCIAL NOTES.
President Hawley, of the Willamette university, was serenaded Wednesday evening by the "University Band."
—The Salem "Saturday Night" has an original sketch with an illustration from her pen by Miss Lena M. Knight.

—The week has been a very quiet one socially speaking, and practically nothing of note doing. But there are good promises of events of interest in the near future.

—The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Independent Evangelical church gave their usual social Wednesday evening in their new church on Cottage street. They were complimented with a very good supper, a number standing during the evening. A short musical and literary program was rendered beginning shortly after 8 o'clock, after which refreshments were served. The occasion by James Holt was warmly applauded in next six sessions other sessions. A banquet, formed with several other papers, was placed over the table in the shape of an arch. The banquet and other were also appropriately decorated. The entertainment was given by the purchase of purchasing a number of pieces of furniture for the church. The proceeds were then all the program and a handsome sum was placed in the treasury.

A non-traditional anniversary.
A birthday anniversary party was given at the home of Mrs. M. G. H. on the occasion of Mr. DeLong's anniversary, to Miss Ida M. DeLong on the occasion of her birthday. Those present indulged in whist and refreshments were served. Those present were: Miss Ida M. DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. N. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Menow Nye, Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Derby, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Burggraf, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeLong, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. DeLong, Messrs. N. T. Davis, Bert Adams, Ed DeLong, Arthur Derby, Misses Minnie C. DeLong, Nellie Derby, Uiva Derby, Mabel DeLong, Lola DeLong.

BURLEY—GILBERT.
The nuptials of Miss Ella Burley, of Salem, to Mr. T. G. Gilbert, of Portland, were performed at the residence of Mrs. Jos. Kelley, of Portland, Wednesday, May 1, Rev. Wallace, of the First Congregational church, officiating. Miss Dagmar Kelley was maid of honor, Roy Gilbert first man. The house was beautifully decorated, the ceremony being performed under a bell of pansies, the bride dressing in a cream silk and lace, carrying a few La France roses. Miss Burley is well known in Salem as one of the Capital city's very sweet girls. Miss Ida Burley and Miss Mollie Bernard of Salem were present among the score of guests who graced the occasion.

BIRTHDAY SOCIAL.
That is the name of the social so nicely planned and so successfully carried out by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church Wednesday evening. An excellent musical and literary program was delivered in the early evening, each number being heartily applauded. The recitations by Misses Jennie Booth and Josephine Culver were loudly applauded and the ladies' quartette received a hearty encore. At the conclusion of the program the guests repaired to the church parlors where light refreshments were served. The entertainment was very successful, both socially and financially.

NORTH HOWELL PRAIRIE.
Talent from this place with Parkersville and Gervais are uniting in an effort to put on a drama "The Last Leaf," at Lake Smith's hop house, on the evening of May 11. The proceeds are to be devoted to the Baptist church and a large crowd is expected. Considerable time and pains have been denoted by those who are represented in the cast and if the people wish to help the church in this way, as well as to enjoy an evening's entertainment let them come out to hear the music, see the acting and laugh and grow fat.
