IN FORTIETH ANNUAL SESSION.

Complete Arrangements for Their Entertainment in Salem.

The present week will be an important one to Oregon Odd Fellowship, and to Salem. That old and highly honored and honorable civic order is to hold the fortieth annual session of its grand lodge in the capital city, and hundreds of delegates will be in attendance, many being already here. The committees of local lodges are sparing no pains to make the event pleasant as well as profitable to the several hundred visitors.

COMMITTEES.
The local committees in charge of all matters pertaining to the sessions of the grand lodge are given below, and Salem, as well as the visitors, can be assured that all will be well attended to.

General committee of arrangements—A. O. Condit, chairman; W. G. Westcott, secretary; Webster Holmes, J. H. McNary, J. G. Wright, Isaac Miller, T. O. Baker, Geo. H. Burnett, J. H. McNary.
Program and entertainment—Dr. W. T. Williamson, Geo. H. Burnett, J. H. McNary.
Reception—A. Dilley, Dr. F. T. Griffith, Webster Holmes, T. O. Barker, W. J. Culver.

EXCURSION.
An excursion by steamer has been arranged from Corvallis for Thursday, taking in Albany, Buena Vista, Independence and Monmouth. After taking in the parade festivities the boat will return in the evening.

GRAND LODGE FLAG.
The colors of the state organization were this morning raised over Odd Fellows hall, bearing the words "I. O. O. F. of Oregon." New parade badges for Olive lodge have just arrived, and will be used Thursday afternoon.

DELEGATES ARRIVING.
Seven carloads of the delegates and their families arrived on the overland trains. Of this class it is estimated that there will be 500 in the city before the week is over and it is safe to say that with all the guests there will probably be from 1200 to 2000 visitors.
