Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patton leave Tuesday morning for New York on a business and pleasure trip to be absent about two months. They will visit Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington before returning. Cooke will lay in a holiday supply of goods while absent.

About "Alabama."
The beautiful play "Alabama," which will be produced at the Reed tonight is a pretty Southern piece and will appeal to the hearts of all who enjoy a pure good play. Messrs. Hirsch and Patton who have the company in charge ought to be encouraged for getting such a high class company. It is not often that a company of so high a standing comes to Salem. A Salem party who saw the play at Portland says it is without a weak spot and the cast is not a poor player and will be presented by the entire company at Salem. Reserved seats at Patton's book store.

Police Court.
John Janzen, aged 15 years, was brought before Recorder Edes this morning charged with assault with a dangerous weapon upon the person of his older brother on Sunday morning cutting him badly on the hand besides cutting his coat. The boy was bound over to the grand jury which meets in June. John is an incorrigible youth and his father, a hard working man, has endeavored to have him sent to the Reform school before but met with no success. The grand jury will no doubt provide him a place at that institution.

Willis Jordan was released from the penitentiary Sunday after serving a six months sentence for assault with a dangerous weapon on the person of Judge Hayden near Eola last winter. But Willis is not a free man yet. He was met at the gate by Chief Dilley, armed with a warrant charging him with the larceny of a horse and cart and harness from C. F. Lansing, committed in November. He was brought before Recorder Edes this morning and was given until Tuesday to enter a plea. He desires to employ an Albany attorney to conduct his case.

MABEL HUTTON WINS.
She is the Popular Choice for Rose Queen.

MORE THAN 3000 VOTES CAST.

The Date of the Rose Fair Postponed to Next Week.

The Rose Show committees have been working hard all day arranging a new date for the show on account of hard rains.

DATE CHANGED.
The roses that are out are ruined by the rain. The muddy streets are unfavorable to a parade. The ladies on the general committee met this morning and decided to postpone the fair to one week from next Wednesday or Thursday and Friday, June 6 and 7.

The question of extending the time for voting for Rose Queen was considered, but it was concluded to close the vote at noon to-day, with the results as given below. The contest became very spirited and for a time it was a neck and neck race between Miss Hutton and Miss Steiner. If Miss Steiner had entered the race sooner she would have polled a larger vote, but she made a remarkable run as it was.

THE TOTAL VOTE.

STRAWBERRY SHOW.
The ladies have decided to offer premiums for strawberries and a committee has been appointed to arrange the same, consisting of C. B. Moore, E. Hofer and J. M. Kyle. The committee will meet this afternoon to arrange a premium list that will be made public tomorrow.

THE WINNING LADY.
Miss Mabel Hutton, and that the choice was properly awarded no one will deny. It could go to but one and in this case there was only the generous rivalry and the best of spirits prevailed. Salem has no ladies whom the people would more delight to honor than the five ladies who so generously permitted their names to be used on this occasion to stimulate interest in a popular event the success of which is of great importance to our entire city. Salem as the rose city of the northwest can well afford to honor her Rose Queen with her fair maids of honor.

J. C. C. Lewis returned today from Butteville, where he as state organizer last Friday night organized a tent of the Knights of the Maocobees. Seventeen Sir Knights from Woodburn assisted in the work.

NEVER SATISFIED—Jack: My wife is never satisfied with our laundry work. TOM: Where is it done? Jack: Oh, at a China wash house. TOM: No wonder. Our laundry work is done at the Salem steam laundry. Give it a trial and notice the difference in the work.

TRAY PARADE—Just notice the bicycle parade Thursday in connection with the G. A. B. and at the same time notice the large number of bicycle suits that were purchased at our store. We are leaders in everything. G. W. Johnson & Son.

MARRIED—A rather hastily consummated marriage was arranged Saturday at Gervais. L. W. Horrell and Miss Katy Uphalove were married by W. S. Taylor, recorder of the city of Gervais. District Attorney Coult lost a case.

CITY FINANCES—City Treasurer Swafford has a new announcement calling in warrants. He says the city treasury is in a much improved condition and that money is coming in much easier. This is evidence of good administration and better times.

INCORPORATED—The Harrisburg Mercantile company filed articles of incorporation today. Capital stock $5000. Incorporators, J. W. Stanchell, Harrisburg; H. B. Norton, Eugene; Geo. Henderson, Harrisburg.

CONCRETE WITHDRAWN—Owing to circumstances the concert of Long Ago to have been given by the Y. F. S. C. W. of the Congregational church May 21, has been postponed indefinitely.

AT THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.
Decoration Day Will Be Properly Observed as Usual.

Wednesday morning the pupils of East, North, Park and Lincoln schools will assemble in their respective halls and will be addressed by members from the G. A. R. City Superintendent Atchison has been busy engaged for some time preparing the final examination questions which are now ready and are a thorough review of the term's work. The examination of the graduating class will commence Monday, June 3, while that of the other classes will begin a week later. The graduating exercises of a class of over forty, will take place in Reed's Opera house, Friday evening, June 14, the program for which has not yet been completed. Attorney H. J. Bigger is to address the class. An admission of 10 cents will be charged those not holding tickets.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.—Sedgwick Post and Relief Corps assembled Sunday morning at G. A. R. hall and marched to the First M. E. church, which was decorated with flags and draped pictures of Lincoln and Garfield, Washington and Grant. Rev. Grannis preached a patriotic sermon from a text in Job. "No Man is Sure of Life." The church was crowded and all were highly pleased with the exercises.

OFFICERS ELECTED—At the semi-annual election of officers for Olive Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., Saturday night, the following were elected: F. T. Wrightman, N. G.; F. A. Erickson, V. E.; C. A. Hamilton, Rec. Sec.; C. H. Simpson, Treasurer.

NEW NOTARIES.—Joseph Franklin, Lakeview; W. H. Pullen, Paradise; W. H. McDonald, Portland; were commissioned notaries today.

We have noticed with some amusement certain notices of "cuts" being made on groceries, as a rule prices quoted being above our regular retail price. P. T. Barnum said that the American people liked to be humbugged, but we think that in Salem it won't work, but that Salemites appreciate our efforts to sell the best goods at a very small margin. As we buy and sell for cash we can undersell all stores doing business on the credit system, and can and will meet all prices made by our competitors. As a flyer for today we quote:

Patriotic Services.

"When it is announced in the papers that the Men's League, of the First Presbyterian church, will conduct the evening services on the following Sunday, the auditorium on that evening will be filled to its utmost capacity. Last evening this society conducted the services and although the rain fell throughout the evening, the church was well filled. The rostrum was decorated with red, white and blue bunting while one large flag adorned the pulpit and a larger one hung from the railing which enclosed the choir. A choir consisting of a dozen members of the league furnished excellent music. Miss Weller presided at the organ in her usual pleasing style. The quart consisting of Messrs. Bozorth, Barker, Raymond and Hutebison sang a beautiful selection. The solo "Aids in Me," by J. O. Bzorth was highly appreciated. The league is a patriotic as well as an entertaining order."
