SOUND REPUBLICANISM

Protection and Bimetallism the Principles.

CHAIRMAN CARTER'S PREDICTION.

He Forecasts the Platform for Next Year.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Thomas H. Carter, chairman Republican national committee, in public statement, says:

In 1896 the Republican party will stand for protection and the restoration to bimetallism on a substantial and enduring basis. There may be differences of opinion on the schedules, but not upon the principles of protection. There will be differences of opinion as to the best course to pursue to secure the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at a fixed ratio, but there will be no difference of opinion as to the desirability of bringing about that result. Upon one question there will be neither difference of opinion as to the general principle involved, nor the means to be employed—that is with reference to the restoration of a vigorous foreign policy.

"MISSOURI BILL" KILLED.

Row Between Two Sheepmen in Arizona.

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz., May 31.—Gus Muderbach shot and killed William F. Klostermeyer, at Belmont, a small sheep-shearing station 12 miles west of here. Klostermeyer had some of Muderbach's sheep, and when a writ of replevin was served upon him he threatened Muderbach with bodily injury. Muderbach thereupon pulled his revolver and fired three shots, each taking effect. Klostermeyer fell dead in his tracks. Muderbach thereupon was arrested and charged with murder. Klostermeyer, who was known as "Missouri Bill" had had frequent trouble on the range. He was tried and acquitted of murder 10 years ago. Muderbach was a witness against him then, when he narrowly escaped lynching.

BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT

A Large Class of Law Students Up for Examination.

The supreme court room in the state capital is the scene of great activity today. A large class of young law students from Portland and all parts of the state is being examined for admission to practice.

Chief Justice R. S. Bean was called away to Corvallis on business, and in his absence Circuit Judge Geo. H. Burnett, is assisting Justices Moore and Wolverton. The entire afternoon will be occupied in the final examination, which is conducted with great thoroughness, and when an applicant gets his sheep-skin from this body he has something to be proud of.

Below is given a list of those who are taking the examination:

- Application for admission to the bar examination, March term, 1895.
Gustave Anderson, Geo. R. Bagley, J. J. Bell, W. H. Boyer, J. W. Callison, A. W. Cannon, John L. Cady, Geo. H. Collins, W. B. Dumas, Stephen D. Dennis, Lewis Denham, W. B. D. D. D. H. W. Galt, Elmer Hardisty, G. H. Hart, John A. Howe, Elmer E. Hill, Carroll E. Hughes, J. C. Johnson, Geo. J. Kramer, John Lyons, Joel E. Lade, Chas. W. Lawrence, Norman E. Mackley, C. H. Meussdorfer, Jr., W. H. Mason, C. H. McLaughlin, Chas. Moor, B. B. Morrill, Elmer E. Mallory, James L. Mair, F. K. Masters, H. A. Marquand and Frank Motter.
John B. Oatman, Almond C. Palmer, H. S. Paddock, W. E. Pulliam, M. D. L. Rhodes, John H. Root, E. B. Seabrook, J. F. Simons, H. J. Schuiderman, W. P. Simons, Arthur C. Spenser, Dudley W. Stevens, Thomas Edwin Wilson, John M. Wall, Walter A. Wolf.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE EVENING.
Arrangements have been made with Landon Wagner of the Willamette for a Delmonico dinner for about fifty, including the invited guests of the young attorneys. It will, of course, be a magnificent spread served in Col. Wagner's best style.

SEVERAL BURGLARIES.

Attempted Postoffice Robbery at Jefferson.

JEFFERSON, May 31.—An attempt to rob the postoffice at this place was made Tuesday night. The burglars had supplied themselves with drills, cold chisels and sledge hammers from the adjacent blacksmith shop. They gained entrance to the building by prying out a window on the side. After opening the outside door from the inside, it is presumed the burglars went to work to knock of the knob on the combination and drilling a hole through the door, by which they intended to blow the safe open. Mr. Rowland, the postmaster, has been working on the safe all morning, but up to noon had not succeeded in getting the door open, so it is not known yet, whether the robbers succeeded in getting it open or not. It is supposed they were scared away before they had accomplished their aims, by the barking of a dog belonging to Dr. Hawk, who lives next door to the postoffice. There being nothing else about the store or office disturbed, it looks as though the robbers made a hasty exit, leaving their tools behind and their work only half done.

Burglary at Barlow.

BARLOW, Or., May 31.—Burglars entered the office of J. L. Hendricks last night and secured $1345 from the till of Wells Fargo & Co. Mr. Hendricks being agent for that Co. says he is the loser. The robber or robbers made their entrance by removing a pane of glass. They were evidently in haste as they left about $3 in the bottom part of the till. The money taken includes about $1 in copper cent pieces. No clue was left behind. From marks left on a pile of shingles outside indicated that the thief had removed his shoes as prints of socks were plainly visible. He evidently was not very particular about washing them.

A Damage Case.

E. G. Lansing, who has been prominent before the last circuit court in this county, as defendant in mechanical lien cases, has begun action in the amount of $2875. The contracting firm of Plummer & Ault built a house for Mr. Lansing with H. Holden surety on their bond, and now Mr. Lansing's claim is based upon some irregularities in connection with that contract. The case will come up at the next term of the circuit court, which convenes June 10th. Shaw, Hunt, and McCullough and G. G. Bingham are Mr. and Mrs. Lansing's attorneys.

The Independence Races.

The bicycle tournament at Independence tomorrow promises well, many crack riders will be present, Judge Ed. N. Edes of this city will be the referee, "Ed" Bronson one of the judges and W. A. Denton clerk of the course. The steamer Altona will make two trips tomorrow, leaving Salem at 10:30 and 1:30. Round trip only 50 cents.

CANNERY STARTS.—A force of employees at the Salem cannery commenced work on gooseberries Thursday afternoon to continue so long as the management deems it profitable. Gooseberries are coming in by the ton from all points about Salem indicating an immense yield. Work will commence on strawberries when they have nearly ripened, and only the choicest will be preserved by the company.

A SHARP UP.—Yesterday while Jas. Watt and his little son were driving on Chesapeake street near Gov. Moody's barn, they narrowly escaped a serious accident. A horse that was being led at the side, became scared at the electric car and got his foot into the wheel. The buggy was capsize and pretty generally smashed up. Mr. Watt and his little son were thrown out, and experienced a very narrow escape.

REMOVED.—S. J. Damon of the grocery firm of Damon Bros., has removed from State street near Winter into the handsome and commodious residence at the intersection of State and Fourteenth streets opposite that of City Recorder Edes.

Burlington May Solid.

Omaha, Neb., May 31.—It is talked of in local railroad circles that the alliance of the Northern Pacific with the Great Northern is liable to bring about changes in the traffic contracts with the Burlington, and it may be necessary for the Burlington and Missouri River railway to protect its western interests by consolidating the Northern Pacific tracks west of Billings.

ORIENT WAR RESUMED

Japs Attack the Young Chinese Republic.

FORMOSA THE SEAT OF WAR.

The Chinese Demand Reforms From the Emperor.

LONDON, May 31.—A dispatch to the Times from Hong Kong today confirms the news contained in the Associated Press dispatches last night from Hong Kong that hostilities between the Japanese and Chinese Republicans on the island of Formosa have commenced. According to the Times dispatch Japanese forces landed at Kee Lung in the extreme north of the island yesterday, and fighting between them and the Chinese has commenced.

LONDON, May 31.—The Times publishes a dispatch from Hong Kong giving the details of the trouble on the island of Formosa. They show that the action which resulted in the island declaring itself a republic was promoted by the Chang Chih Tong party, which is opposed to the Li family.

General Toheng has been appointed foreign minister at Kuei Sing Kuei. She originator of the movement has been superseded by Tang. Dissensions have already occurred and the common people it is stated, regard the declaration of a republic as an official edge.

H. H. Morse, commissioner of customs at Tamsui, Formosa, has refused to recognize the republican flag. The German consul at Tamsui, addressing Tang as governor of the island, protested against closing the port of Tamsui with torpedoes in time of peace. Five Japanese warships arrived at Tamsui on May 28, and took soundings in the harbor without being molested by the garrison of the Chinese fort. The old portions of the soldiers support the republic. It is stated that a French cruiser visited Tamsui. Two of her officers had a secret interview with Tang. No importance, however, is attached to this fact.

A petition has been forwarded to Peking from South China praying the emperor to introduce constitutional reform, to remove incapable officials, to abolish the queue (pigtail) and foot-binding, and to allow freedom of speech and of the press.

AN INSANE BURGLAR.

Escaped From the Asylum at Stockton.

STOCKTON, Cal., May 31.—Another convicted felon escaped from the state insane asylum at this place. The man is Phillip Crowley, a persistent burglar, who was sent to Folsom from Mendocino county in 1893. Prior convictions being urged against Crowley, he was sentenced to serve 20 years and last February was declared insane and sent to the local asylum. During the early hours this morning the crazy felon broke one of the iron bars from his window and reached the big yard below by means of a rope made of strips that he tore his sheets into. He scaled the wall by placing a ladder against it. No trace of the man has been found.

OUR MEMORIAL DAY

Was Fittingly Observed in Spite of the Rain.

A splendid procession of nearly a half mile in length, composed of the Grand Army, led by an escort of the National Guard, and followed by divisions on foot of the Woman's Relief Corps, Sons of Veterans, Woodmen of the World, Odd Fellows and citizens, made an imposing parade, on Thursday. The procession started at 1:30 p. m. and proceeded on foot to Rural and City View Cemetery, in the following order:

Second Regiment Band.
Battalion of Second Regiment, O. N. G., under command of Major D. C. Sherman.
Sedgwick Post No. 10, G. A. R., and all visiting comrades, ex-soldiers and sailors.
Sons of Veterans.

Salem Camp No. 3, ladies' circle to the Woodmen order.
Salem Camp No. 118, Woodmen of the World and visiting neighbors.
Chemeketa Lodge, No. 1, I. O. O. F. Citizens on foot and in carriages.

Marshal Crossan was supported by F. B. Southwick, A. O. Condit and H. A. Thomas as aides and Major Sherman and Lieutenant Chas. E. Robien led the O. N. G. division.

Each comrade was supplied with a beautiful hand bouquet of roses, and the graves of the soldiers and even of private citizens were literally buried in "flowers, lovely flowers," before the exercises were over. The Woodmen were 156 strong and the Odd Fellows nearly 100, in the ranks of both these orders, as well as in the Grand Army, marched our most prominent citizens.

Commander Davis, assisted by two comrades of Sedgwick Post, conducted the ritual service of the order in an impressive manner, when all the veterans and other members of the patriotic orders filed through the Memorial lot and deposited their flowers on the mound in the name of some loved one who was either a dead or living member of the Grand Army. After the customary salute, of three rounds by a detail under Capt. Willis, the service at the grounds was over.

THE WOODMEN UNVEILING.

Immediately after the closing of the ceremony at the G. A. R. plot, the column formed and marched to the grave of the late R. Grant Brown. An enclosure representing a wedge had been made around the grave and the fraternities formed outside of the ropes.

Woodmen's Circle and the Relief Corps formed the inside circle surrounded by the members of the Woodmen Camp, the G. A. R. and other visitors.

The ritualistic work and ceremony by Prof. Hawley, Rev. Bollinger and Mr. Davies on behalf of the Woodmen were gone through with the customary ease and impressiveness of those gentlemen, and left nothing to be desired by the most critical. After the ceremony of unveiling was concluded at the grave of R. G. Brown the procession formed and proceeded to the grave of the late Harry G. Kay where a similar program was gone through. Head Consul F. A. Falkenberg made a five minute address appropriate to the occasion, teeming with fraternal love and heartfelt sympathy with the bereaved family.

The floral decorations at the two graves, where the unveiling of the monuments took place, were made by the ladies of the Woodmen Circle. They were made to represent the ex-wedge, beetle and dove. Olive branches were heaped upon the graves and at the foot of each one a stump was erected covered with flowers. The ladies showed great skill in the decoration and deserve great credit for the work of love-accomplished under great difficulties. In addition to the above mentioned decorations the grave of R. G. Brown the three links, the crown and stars and other emblematic floral tributes laid around the grave.

The monuments unveiled and dedicated were erected by the Woodmen of the World, as a part of the insurance contract that every member holds with the fraternity: "We command you to provide maintenance for the widow and orphan, to reverence the memory of a deceased neighbor, to remember his good qualities and keep his short comings, and mark his last resting place, for further generations to find. He speaks though he be silent."

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

In the evening there was an elaborate and appropriate program well rendered and a surprise to all. Post Commander Davis was master of ceremonies and Miss Copeland recited "We Old Boys," and Rev. Farmer offered prayer.

The girls' drill was very perfect. It was part of a cantata and tableaux, "Memorial of the States," presented by the North Salem schools. The Goddess of Liberty was represented by Miss Crossan on the part of the Corps. The states and territories were represented and the District of Columbia was taken by Emma Byrne. Nellie Spang officiated as captain of the drill and Edith St. Helen. A ladies quartette, consisting of Misses White, Huslar, Gile and Burton sang "Fighting on the Old Camp Ground" in such an acceptable manner that they were again brought out by a persistent encore and again they sang delightfully.

Major Jackson, U. S. A., closed the program with an eloquent and patriotic address which was frequently applauded. Head advisor C. V. Cooper acted as master of ceremonies yesterday. All are welcome tonight, except persons under 16 years of age, who may attend only when accompanied by their parents.

FATHER PARRISH DEAD.

The Last Pioneer Missionary Passes Away.

Father J. L. Parrish, who is beloved throughout Oregon and known to the entire Pacific coast, died this morning shortly after midnight, at his home in Salem, in his ninetieth year. His last illness was of short duration and he suffered little pain in his last hours.

Father Parrish was outside the house for the last time on Thursday, May 23, when he was in his usual good health, although feeble in his old age. Monday of this week he was taken with a chill or congestion, and the family became somewhat alarmed. His son, S. B. Parrish, was sent for and although he rallied somewhat on Tuesday and Wednesday, he kept sinking gradually until the final hour. Up to Thursday afternoon he was conscious and knew all about him. At 1:30 o'clock, this morning he passed peacefully away, dying without a struggle. Those present at the time of death aside from Mrs. Parrish, and son, were S. B. Parrish and wife Elder Parsons, F. R. Smith, Gen. W. H. Odell, Jos. Carter, G. P. Litchfield and Dr. Reynolds.

Two daughters, Mrs. E. C. Pierce and Miss Josie Parrish are in Binghamton, N. Y. The latter is to graduate in her studies tomorrow in New York City. C. W. Parrish, of Canyon City, has been notified of his father's death, but it will hardly reach him before Monday. The funeral will be held from the chapel of Willamette university on Sunday at 2 p. m. Several of the older clergymen of the M. E. church will officiate, and the remains will be interred in Low Mission cemetery. A sketch of Father Parrish, of his great work and life is being prepared and will be published later.

WALK TO THE GALLOW.

Two Murderers Hung—One Offers Good Advice.

MURKINSON, Ill., May 31.—Douglas Henderson and Frank Jeffery were hanged here this morning for the murder of James Towle at Chatsworth last winter. Henderson walked to the gallows smoking a cigar. He said: "Gentlemen, I am here to tell you good-bye. I hope I will meet you in heaven. I want to warn you all to keep out of bad company." Jeffery showed signs of nervousness. He protested his innocence.

Six Years Old.—This morning three arrived from New York state, by way of Cape Hen, a cargo of pure apple vinegar. It bears the stamp and signature of the district inspector certifying that it is six years old and of pure apple juice. Beware. Warrant has it on the list and if you want the pure stuff now is your opportunity.
