FOR A GREAT BIG FOURTH.

Parade, Exercises, Bicycle Races, Fireworks and Fun.

A meeting, for the further consideration of a Fourth of July celebration at Salem was held at the council chamber with a very creditable attendance of Salem business men. In the absence of President Willis, Secretary Westacott called the meeting to order and assumed the chair, Ed. N. Edes, secretary.

Mr. Edes, chairman of the committee on bands, military companies, Goddess of Liberty, etc., made a report to the effect that several bands had been heard from that were willing to play for stated sums; that some of the military companies and the exempt firemen were willing to take part under certain conditions.

The finance committee reported subscriptions on hand, $1050, with more in prospect.

On motion it was ordered that the committee on bands be authorized to employ the following bands: Independence, Turner, Silverton, the H. A. C. band and the Second Regiment band of Salem, at specified amounts, aggregating $350.

On motion, ordered that $250 be set aside for fireworks; $200 for bicycles and minor sports; $50 for decoration; $25 for expenses of speaker; $40 for committee of ladies to furnish music and tableau.

Ordered that the following committees, consisting of three members each, be appointed by the chair: On bands, fireworks, bicycles and minor sports, speaker and reader, decorations, prade, transportation, ladies' committee, publicity and promotion; and that the finance committee be made the executive committee for the payment of accounts.

Moved that $75 be appropriated to the committee on publicity. Carried.

Ordered that the chairman of the several committees be considered a committee on program.

E. H. Flagg, chairman of the committee on speaker and reader, reported that Hon. Thos. H. Tongue of Hillsboro, had been secured as orator of the day; also that W. J. D'Arcy of Salem, had been secured to read the Declaration of Independence. A letter from Mr. Tongue was read accepting the post of orator of the day.

Chairman Westacott announced the following committees, the remainder to be appointed later.

Transportation—F. R. Anson, Phil. Metschan, John G. Wright.

Bands—Ed. N. Edes, E. Hofer, J. H. Fletcher.

Bicycles and Minor sports—E. P. McCornack, Hal D. Patton, I. L. Patterson.

THE PROGRAM

is to include an industrial parade with military and fire departments, from four to six bands, and formal Independence day exercises at Marion square.

Dinner.

At 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. firemen's contests, and Fourth of July sports in the city.

Bicycle races from 5 to 7 p. m. at the state fair grounds under the auspices of the Capital City Cycling Club.

The evening to conclude with fireworks in the city. This program is not yet adopted and may be changed. It is reported that private parties are working up a balloon ascension and races at the fair grounds on that date also.

ADDITIONAL COMMITTEES.

Fireworks—E. C. Cross, Ed. Giltner, H. G. Sonnemann.

Ladies' Committee—Mrs. Olive England, with power to appoint assistants.

Decorations—W. L. Wade, Frank Dearborn, A. D. Smith.

Speaker and Literary—E. H. Flagg, F. R. Anson, E. P. McCormack.

Parade—W. J. Culver, A. O. Condit, D. C. Sherman.

Publicity and Promotion.—Henry Downing, N. J. Judah, J. W. Thomas.

Program—Mrs. Olive England, P. C. Cross, W. L. Wade, Ed. N. Edes, E. P. McCormack, E. H. Flagg, W. J. Culver, Henry Downing, F. R. Anson.

RIGHT ON TIME.

A mixed car-load of furniture reached Portland yesterday and we are receiving our portion. We invite you to call and see the new things in book cases, sideboards and chiffoniers.

WORK MATERIALIZE.—The co-operative cannery to have been built by the Garden road fruit growers has been declared off, and will not be built this year. The fact that the Wallace cannery will run for the season and propose to pay fair prices for fruit had not little to do with this action.

OUR MISTAKE.—Had our rooms been five times as large Sunday it would have been difficult to serve the vast multitude of visitors that thronged our lunch counters throughout the day. Our 15 cent meals take the cake. Rosebottom & Barnett.

A NEW HOUSE.—Mr. A. E. Thatcher has let the contract for a new three room cottage at the site of the old Masonic house. Shipp and McMillan have the job.
