THE CANNERY WORKING.

An Interesting Chat With Manager Wallace on Fruits and Canning.

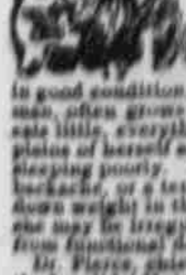
A short interview with J. M. Wallace, who has charge of the large Wallace estate, and is consequently managing the Salem cannery as well as the mammoth Wallace pear orchards, convinces the writer that all the flattering prophecies concerning the fruit crop are about to be materialized. He reports the pear trees so heavily loaded with fruit that it has become necessary to tie up the limbs of the trees with cord to prevent the growing fruit from breaking them down. The force of men has been engaged at this work for about a week.

During the past year Mr. Wallace has been trying some experiments in the pear orchards which will prove a great benefit to the estate as well as other growers. He conceived the idea that with more thorough fertilization larger crops could be raised, and to this end has placed many stands of bees among the trees. This he believes to have been very beneficial in carrying pollen from tree to tree and will increase the number of bees another season. He has also had about 4,000 grafts of the Fox and Barry pears put onto the Bartlett trees. These varieties all bloom about the same season, and the results of the experiment are looked forward to with great interest. The trees were thoroughly sprayed, and are today as clean of pests, insects, and fungi as any trees can possibly be. They are making a thrifty growth, as usual, and this year the orchard has been treated to a crop of clover, which it is believed will have a good effect on the trees as well as the land. Mr. Wallace hopes this year to ship about ten car loads of the best pears that ever went into an eastern market. The large apple and cherry orchards are also doing well this year.

At the big cannery everything is in a flourishing condition. The gooseberry crop has been completed. Strawberries are about being wound up, and the cherry crop is now coming in full blast. Mr. Wallace says he will this year put up the finest Royal Ann cherries ever canned anywhere. Although they could be bought for less money, he is paying four cents per pound for them, in order to get only the very best. All that do not come up to his high standard will be rejected. He is applying the same process to all other articles canned this year, and says he proposed to raise the standard of Oregon canned fruits to the highest in the land. We have the finest fruit that can be grown, and why not make a name for the best in the world? Oregon will in the near future be a heavy exporter of canned fruits as well as dried, and she should have the benefit of excellence to which she is justly entitled by the superior quality of her produce. Next week work will begin on peas, of which a large crop is growing, planted expressly for the cannery. They look fine, and will make an extra choice canned vegetable.

OATS A SPECIALTY.—Aside from a mammoth stock of all kinds of feed we have oats in great plenty, and everything with us goes at lowest known prices. Brewster & White.

The Plaindealer, of Roseburg, accuses Senator B. F. Alley, of Florence, of being a Populist, principally because he voted against J. N. Dolph. As a matter of fact the Plaindealer's arguments on the subject are small and mossbackish and will no doubt be resented by all o' the famous thirty who did well in defeating Dolph.—Albany Democrat.



Fair and beautiful—the woman who keeps at a distance the complexion beautifiers, paints and powders, which soon ruin the face. A healthy glow to the skin, a face without wrinkles, and sparkling eyes, will be yours if you keep the system and the special internal organs in good condition. The young girl, or woman, often grows pale, wrinkled and thin, eats little, everything wearies her, she complains of herself as aching and sore and as sleeping poorly. Often she is troubled with backache, or a tender spine, with a bearing-down weight in the abdomen, or at periods she may be irregular, or suffer extreme pain from functional derangements.

Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., in his long and active experience, met many cases of this kind, for which he used a prescription which was found to cure such difficulties permanently in ninety-eight per cent. of all cases. Having proven so successful, Dr. Pierce put his "Favorite Prescription" on the market, and it is to-day sold more largely than any other medicine for the ills of women.

For all functional derangements, displacements, ulceration, inflammation, and the catarrhal drain from the lining membranes of the special internal organs of women, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription reaches the origin of the trouble, and corrects it.
