ng for letters please say "advertised," One hundred and twelve of Marion county's teachers assembled at the East school at 9 o'clock Monday to attend the annual county institute. After the usual opening exercises the e unty superintendent formed the assemblage into three divisions, namely. A, B and C, and classes in mental and written arithmetic, grammar and reading were conducted by Profs. G. A. Peebles, E. H. Anderson, D. W. Yoder and Miss Frink, during the forenoon.

The afternoon session convened at 1:30 o'clock, with singing led by Prof. Anderson. This was followed by class work in geography by all the classes for 45 minutes.

A joint session was held and the teachers were highly entertained by A. J. Garland, principal of the North school, with a lecture on history. This subject was then discussed with much Steamer Altona will be up from Portanimation by the members of the land this evening, bound for Inde- institute.
