HOKE SMITH WEAKENS.

Goes Back On His Free Silver Record.

TEXAS IS BECOMING VIRTUOUS.

The Corbett-Fitzsimmons Fight Officially Opposed.

WASHINGTON, July 16.—Secretary Hoke Smith's attention was called to an article published recently charging that he had been at one time an advocate of silver free coinage and the sub-treasury plank of the farmers' alliance. It was said that five years ago he published a letter advocating these views. Speaking on the subject he said: "My attention has just been called to the publication of a letter written in September, 1890, to the Hon. W. L. Peck, and published at that time in the Atlanta Journal. The Journal was then openly opposing the sub-treasury scheme, and my personal opposition to it was well understood. The letter clearly excluded the idea of committing me to all of the seven propositions which it presented, although it was well known that I did favor the free coinage of silver. I was giving most of my attention to professional work at the time, and supposed, without thorough investigation, that the free coinage of silver would carry the value of silver bullion coined into a dollar to par, and also keep silver and gold dollars upon a parity, with equal purchasing power. Since that I have given to the subject much more study, and being thoroughly satisfied that the free, unlimited and independent coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 would result in silver monometallism, I have for several years openly opposed it."

Opposing the Fight.

AUSTIN, Tex., July 16.—The impression in state official circles here today unmistakably indicate that under no circumstances will the letter and spirit of Attorney General Crane's opinion adverse to the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight be departed from. It is certain that the pugilists will not be permitted to fight in Texas. The authorities are strongly backed by the moral sentiment of the state.

Saloon Shooting.

SEATTLE, July 16.—There came very nearly being a repetition of the celebrated Thomas Blanck episode down at Mike Hoop's saloon on Railroad avenue. At 12 o'clock last night an unknown man went into the resort, which is a great place for water front loungers generally, and ordered free beer, but when it was not forthcoming drew a gun and in an instant there was shooting going on, which did not cease till twelve shots had been fired and the room pretty well punctured with lead. An unknown man is thought to have been wounded twice, but he has not been located. No other person was hit. The bar fixtures were rattled.

Next Friday the Berlin students will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the declaration of war by France against Prussia with a patriotic celebration. Delegates from academic societies of the university will participate on August 15.

JOSEPH COOK SPOKE.

Created a Sensation at a Honolulu Celebration.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 16.—The steamship Mlowers arrived from Australia and Hawaii Monday noon, bringing latest advices from the islands. Literary exercises at Honolulu, on July 4, were the scene of a remarkable incident. Joseph Cook, of Boston, was invited to speak, and entered upon a personal criticism of President Cleveland, charging him with misrepresenting Hawaii and Hawaiian affairs. He was interrupted by Minister Willis who presided, and, after a sharp cross-fire of charge and retort, Cook left the hall amid silence. His action is looked upon as indiscreet. Independence Park pavilion was more than crowded for the literary exercises, scheduled for 11 o'clock, with Mr. Willis, the American minister, presiding. He was presented by George W. Smith, chairman of the general committee. This was at 11:30. There was a wait for President Dole. When he entered with Mrs. Dole the audience rose to its feet, and there were cheers. The steamship Menowal, by courtesy of William Irvine & Company, was held to allow Joseph Cook to address the meeting. In opening the meeting Mr. Willis gracefully gave utterance to patriotic sentiments, and was applauded. An invocation was offered in an impressive manner by Rev. D. H. Brodie. All joined in singing "America," the choir leading. In quite complimentary terms, Mr. Willis presented Joseph Cook, who was on the programme for an address.

Mr. Cook had chosen for his subject "The Republic's Trophies." He said nothing of the Fourth of July. He repeated that when the crown fell, it was pulverized. He congratulated all there was no color line or slavery on the islands. The speaker then went into a dissertation on the "Southern Republics," as upheld by "what they call Northern principles." Coming quickly to Hawaii, Mr. Cook entered upon almost a direct criticism of the Cleveland administration, arraighing it for misrepresentation, and saying that he would make some corrections.

Here Mr. Willis protested, on the ground that the occasion was not one for a political speech. He was greeted with storms of applause. Mr. Cook, considerably confused, asked for a bill of particulars, and declared he was not accustomed to either a straight jacket or a gag. Mr. Willis replied that the contracted sentiment from a Boston environment was not broad enough for an American celebration in Hawaii. Mr. Cook said Boston had a good deal to do with achieving American independence. Mr. Willis said this was granted, and that all were proud of it. The lecturer quickly concluded his address with a few remarks on annexation. He bade good-bye to Minister Willis and Rev. Dr. McArthur, and left the hall amid silence, clearly mad through and through.

The End of the Endeavor.

BUELOS, July 16.—Last night the Fourteenth International Christian Endeavor convention came to an end. During its continuance more than 500 meetings have been held. Approximately 50,000 men and women have come from all corners of the American continent as delegates. Others have come from distant lands and the most powerful nations have been represented in this vast gathering. While several thousand delegates will return to their homes tomorrow, the greater part will remain right-seeing for a few days.

HORR VERSUS HARVEY.

Coin's Financial School Is Now Under Debate.

HORR HITS HARVEY VERY HARD.

But the Little Schoolmaster Held His Own.

CHICAGO, July 16.—The ten day's debate on the money question between Roswell G. Horr and H. Harvey began today. The judges were ex-Solicitor General of the United States Charles H. Aldrich and Hon. Henry Miller. Horr spoke first. He said there was hardly a proposition in "Coin's Financial School" to which he could assent. He would attempt to prove that the theory therein set forth, if adopted by the people of this country, would only lead to financial ruin; unless a united international agreement were established it would be simply suicide for this nation to adopt a system of free coinage of silver upon the old ratio. He believed the act of 1873, which Harvey's book denounced as a crime, was honestly conceived and openly passed. What people needed was good credit, good money, good principles and sound business sense. Harvey in his open statement named the propositions set forth in "Coin's Financial School" which he expected to make good in this debate, the chief of which is that it is to the interest of the United States to act independently in the remonetization of silver to 16 to 1.

NEW HOP MARKET.

A Profitable Field for the Home Output.

"The hop growers and buyers of the Sound are overlooking a profitable market and don't know it," said a prominent shipping agent at the wharf today, as he was reading a newspaper published in Japan.

"Do you see that?" continued the speaker, and he pointed to three separate advertisements of breweries located in Japan, all of which mentioned that their malt and hops came from London and Germany.

After reading the ads. to a News reporter the shipper said: "I have taken the trouble to inquire into the brewery business in Japan, and have learned that the demand is largely in excess of the local supply, and that the establishments there are all increasing their plants as rapidly as possible."

"Now all these breweries must have hops, and from what I can learn the bulk of them comes from London. I do not understand why we here with direct communication with Japan, cannot furnish these breweries with Washington hops, and thereby find as good if not a better market than London and work up a large business. Nearly all our hops go to London, anyhow, and if we exported direct to Japan we certainly could cut under the rate the Japanese get from London."

English Elections.

LONDON, July 16.—At 4 p. m. today the following was the result of the general election: Conservatives, 101; Liberals, 55; Labour, 21; Miscellaneous, 4; Labor, 1. The result so far shows a net Liberal gain of 19 seats.

Another Woodburn Scorch.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—As there is but one young and verdant politician at Woodburn "who attended the Denver club convention" last year and "paid his own way" and as this particular one chooses to cheerfully plead guilty to the "crime of occasionally wearing a pig hat and spending hundreds of dollars to pay his political expenses," also pleading twice guilty to the crime of scorching blatant self seeking—free silver political demagogues—in stentorian tones, it is quite patent to your many readers in this county at least that Walter L. Toozie is the party referred to in your article signed "P" purporting to come from a correspondent at Woodburn—and who feels deeply injured that Toozie did not give more than 5 cents to celebrate the Fourth. The nom de plume is very appropriate indeed. "P" stands for several bad words—but first and last it stands for Prevaricator or in common parlance "liar." The statement of "P" is notoriously false. The writer don't care to blow his own horn, but if "P" can show where, when or how he has ever done more or as much as myself either toward this celebration or towards the growth and prosperity of this city or county I will present him with the full cash value of his contemptible carcass—(5 cents would doubtless be high.) Will say my contributions toward the celebration only constituted a very few dollars and to a man who has Dolph twines to support during these "dark financial days" it is a grievous thing to be twitted of my inability to do as usual in such cases, foot the major part of the bill. Such diabolical diatribes could only emanate from the mind of a petty politician who never had 5 cents—never expects 5 cents, but who gets a "piece" out of the political crumbs that fall from his master's table. The writer was "street sweeper" most part of the day on the Fourth, and justly earned all the joy the day brought him. "P" says me quite an exultation; he says he "paid his own way" to the "Denver Club Convention." It is only true to state I "always pay my way" and have even paid the "way" of P's, present, (but not past.) Free silver friends, friend "P," don't blacken my character as a staunch, old-line Republican by stating "I pay my way." It is really too bad for one like you—who is a noted "sponger," or a "sponger's backer"—to bring up this delicate matter. "P," can blow under cover of a non de plume, perchance fire rocks through plate glass windows at "midnight's holy hour," but he is too cowardly to mix with the "pig hat." His political brother tried that, to his own humiliation. In conclusion, will say that had 5 cents been my full and only contribution, it is my own business. In "holy writ," the widow's mite was equal to the largest contributions given, and the hundreds of dollars I may have spent in the past for my city and party, are only an indication that I now have that much less to spend. Probably "P," saved his last June—7777 Howl on, brother "P," thy row is almost run. The Champion Bar who has a place, is a stickard "outh the sun."
