IN THE COUNTY COURT.

Correct Statement How the New Salary Law is Put into Effect.

The salary law passed by the legislature reduces the salaries of the deputy county clerk and recorder and deputy as follows: The old law gave the clerk $2,500 a year and his deputy or deputies $2,000, while the recorder was to receive $1,800 and $1,500 for deputies. This was amended in such a manner that the clerk and deputies receive $2,500 and $1,800 and the recorder and deputies $1,300 and $780. The act took effect immediately from and after its approval by the governor. However, the Marion county court concluded not to make the reduction until the beginning of the new fiscal year in the departments of the county and yesterday the first month's salary accounts came up for consideration.

County Clerk Ehlen's bill was drawn and allowed at the old salary of $75 a month, and he drew the money and paid it to his deputies as usual. Recorder Waters put his bill in at the old figure for $275, having had no notice of the court intending to put the new law into effect. It was reduced to comply with the new law to $165. Neither Mr. Waters nor Mr. Ehlen have any controversy with the court as to the amount of their pay, as they do not want any more than the law allows them for their services.

There is no reduction in the clerk's salary. Mr. Ehlen says the county officers expected that the reduction would take place at the February term when the law went into effect. The deputies also expected that, but the bills were allowed at the old figures, and at this time no change was expected. The clerk's salary is not reduced at all as the morning paper would intimate.

Complaint Filed.

Peter Bosen today filed a complaint in Department No. 1 of the Marion county circuit court wherein he claims that he has on the donation land claim of Thomas and Harriet Moean, 1/2 mile east of Brooks, 518 bushels of wheat and 34 bushel of oat that is rightfully his own property. The total value of the grain is $243. He also claims that Chas. H. Dodd & Co. (a corporation), and F. J. Bolter wrongfully and unlawfully took possession of said grain about August 1st, 1895 and refuses to turn the grain over to its rightful owner. The plaintiff claims that he is damaged in the sum of $100 by defendant's actions and prays for a judgment of $243, the value of said grain, and $100 damages, against defendant, if the grain is not returned to plaintiff. W. H. Holmes and Webster Holmes are attorneys for the plaintiff.

WAS BUNCOED.—At Eugene Tuesday night the "lottery" man of the Wallace Shows got in his work on a drunken man. He was to pay $5 for a chance to draw $135. The old man invested. He put down $50 and in his excitement only got back $5 change.

Instead of the big prize of course he drew a blank. About midnight as the train was ready to pull out Officer Linton called on the show manager to square up with the victim, but as he refused he was arrested when he immediately dug up. It seems the Wallace people are not all saints after all.

NEW DRIERS.—Geo. A. Stephens, who built Oregon's first and only fruit palace at the fair grounds, has developed into quite an inventor of fruit drying processes. He has very encouraging news from the patent office and has successfully dried a large quantity of raspberries and is now drying the blackberry that is sold so cheaply in the market. He has also broken ground for new driers on the Reynolds and Davis fruit farms near the fair grounds, and is in hopes of going to building them on a large scale soon.

PRACTICE AS WELL AS PREACH.—Some men will stand on the corner for hours and preach on the subject of patronizing home industries but when they want a cigar the very same men will step into a cigar store and call for a 15 or 20 cent foreign cigar. They do not realize that A. Hockenstein's 10 cent La Corona cannot be beat anywhere and his 5 cent cigars, the Bon Ton and Prize Bouquet, are second to none. By all means patronize home industry.

CARRIED A GUN.—F. J. Settlemier, of McKee station, was given an examination yesterday before Justice Asman at Gervais charged with pointing a gun at Peter Balleris, a neighbor. Deputy Prosecuting Attorney A. O. Condit conducted the prosecution which resulted in Settlemier being bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $100, which sum he furnished.

SPECIAL MEETING.—Rev. H. D. Wiard of Chicago, held secretary of the Congregational Home Missionary society, and Rev. C. F. Clapp, Oregon superintendent, will visit Central Chapel Friday evening August 9th. Mr. Wiard is on a tour of investigation, and a full attendance of all interested in this field is desired. Services begin at 8 p. m.

IMPROVEMENT.—The concrete walks about Hotel Willamette are completed and a long stretch of the east side of Commercial street is now supplied with good walks, all but the Hirsch property, on corner of Ferry street. If that could be put in it would make a great many people happy. Mr. Bush has made the biggest improvement of this sort that has been made this year.

NOT EXCELLED.—The meals served at our lunch counter for 15 cents are not excelled in restaurants where twice the same price is charged. We lead in our line of business. Kenworthy & Barnett.

HOME FORUM BENEFIT ORDER

Is Permanently Organized—Officers Installed.

The local lodge of the Home Forum Benefit order that was temporarily organized last Wednesday night in the East Salem chapel was permanently organized last evening. The temporary officers who were elected last Wednesday night were installed last evening as permanent officers of the organization. The officers of the lodge are: President, W. J. Kent; vice president, G. V. Boggs; second vice president, Fred Waymire; orator, Frank Baker; assistant orator, Harry Towne; treasurer, C. H. Simpson; historian, A. E. Burton; past president, L. Burton; secretary, W. W. Lenon; porter, J. A. Dickey; guard, Arthur D. Welch; examining physician, Dr. C. H. Robertson; board of directors J. M. Davis, Richard Hensley, and Z. T. Smith.

The lodge will hold regular meetings the present, every Wednesday evening in the East Salem chapel, and the work of initiating members will begin next Wednesday night. There is a strong movement on foot for the erection of a lodge room in that part of the city, and a committee was appointed last evening to determine upon such action. At present the lodge has 55 members, 42 of whom carry insurance. Of the total membership 15 are ladies who are admitted into the lodge under the same conditions as the male sex. Notwithstanding the large number of lodges now in Salem, this new order is in a flourishing condition and has a bright future before it.

J. L. Mitchell and Joseph Woodford, state organizers, will go to Seos and Lebanon this week for the purpose of organizing branch lodges in those enterprising towns.

WOOD BIDS OPENED.

Second Day's Session of Marion's Commissioners.

In the matter of the application of Douglas Nelson for a liquor license, the same was continued until Saturday at 10 a. m. During Wednesday afternoon two persons appeared before the court asking for aid. Harley Thomas aged 27 years, suffering badly from rheumatism requested that he be sent to a Portland hospital. His case will be acted on before court adjourns. The second one asking for aid was a man from Derry, Polk county, who complained of severe pains in the chest, etc. No action was taken by the court in his case.

Late yesterday afternoon the court opened the wood bids advertised for and the contracts were awarded to the lowest bidders. The bids submitted to the court are as follows:

Bidder	Cords	Price
Geo. D. Goodhue	80	$2 97 1/2
C. R. Hougham	70	3 25
John V. Smith	8	2 90
A. B. Gester	30	3 00

C. B. Bentley	70	2 85

GRUB OAK.

C. B. Bentley was awarded the contract for furnishing grub oak at $2.35 per cord while B. J. Lawrence will furnish the county with body fir at $1.90 per cord.

A Disastrous Runaway.

Edward Pruitt, while endeavoring to break a three-year old colt last evening experienced rather a disastrous runaway in Parish's addition. He had hitched the colt with another horse to a wagon when they became unmanageable and he could not stop them. The animals ran north on Fourteenth street to D street where they made directly for the residence of A. W. Veach. The team scaled the fence as easily as trained circus equine but when the wagon struck the obstruction down went about 40 feet of the fencing but the horses did not stop but ran toward the house demolishing a number of fruit trees as they went. The wagon struck and destroyed the steps to the residence but had not gone much farther when the wagon struck a large prune tree a heavy blow, which freed the horses from the wagon. Wagon and harness are badly demolished as a result. When Mr. Pruitt saw he could not stop the team he attempted to jump from the wagon when he sustained a bad fall bruising himself up badly.

Probate Court.

In the matter of the estate of Lavina Patty, deceased, the sale of about 1/2 acre of land situated in the T s r 3 w to James Long $178 dollars by the administrator S. L. Hayden, was not confirmed by County Judge Hubbard and the administrator was ordered to resell the above described property. The reason for such action on the part of the court is that $178 is not enough for the property as a bid of $350 has since been offered by interested parties.

Women and Actors.

Capell, the French tenor, was the recipient of volumes of letters from lady admirers both here and in Paris. On the English stage, besides Mr. Irving, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Hare and Mr. Bancroft have been overwhelmed with a goodly number. But I am told by one who knows that no actor living ever received such a number of admiring epistles from the fairer sex as the late John Clayton.

Among actresses Mrs. Bancroft has perhaps been treated to the kindest attentions. Mrs. John Wood, too, on the first or last night of her play had always her dressing room converted into a perfect bower of flowers, and little gifts of jewelry literally poured in upon her. There was one bangle with the inscription "Bless your art." Whether it was Mrs. Wood's heart or art that was blessed remains a riddle to this day.—London

Descartes was obliged to flee from France to Holland, and then from Holland, where he first published his opinions. He was accused of atheism and would have been burned at the stake had he not escaped from the country.

The Count de Mirabeau, the father of the famous revolutionist, had so pleasant a time with his family that in the course of his married life he took out no less than 63 letters de cachet against his wife and her people and had most of them exiled or imprisoned.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
