Advices From Consul-General Jornigan.

EVENTS UP TO THE TIME OF RIOT

Missionaries Who Were Eye-Witnesses Give Details.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10 .- Acting Secretary Adee has received advices from United States Consul-General Jonigan at Shanghai, dated July 12, enclosing letters received by him from missionaries, giving in detail of accounts of the events in China leading up to the riots against the missionaries at Cheng Su, in the province of Se

One of these, from Spencer Lenier, very comprehensive in scope, and dated Chung King, China, says that the West China mission of the Methodist Episcopal church, is the only American mission represented at Cheng Tu. The Americans there were the Rey. Otis Cady and wife, H. L. Canwright, M. D., and wife and two children, and the Rev. J. F. Peet and wife and two children. This mission owned but one piece of property in Cheng Tu, on which was a Chinese building fitted for the residence of the two families; a Coinese building used as a chapel, a dispensary and minor structures. Mr. Lenier says that substantially all these are gone. The total loss, exclusive of personal losses, is about 600 taels.

The American Baptist Missionary Union had stations at Sui Fu, Kia Ting and Yachen. The mission and personal property in Kia Ting and Yachen are probably all lost, though particulars had not been received by Mr. Lenier when his letter was written. At Sui Fu the Americans owned a great deal of property, but not much damage was done to it. Mr. Lenier missions at Cheng Tu, particulars of which have been made public in American newspapers. In the attack on the Canadian Methodist missions the two physicians in charge of the hospital, which was afterwards looted and burned, kept the mob at bay, but the officials would give no assistance although several of them were quite near. Late that evening, May 28, the members of the American Methodist mission sought refuge in the district magistrate's at the yamen, but were refused and told they would be prosected if they returned home. Relying on this, they were not ready for the mob which soon visited them, and had barely time to escape. Operations were renewed by the mob at daybreak, next day, and before noon the attack was general on all the Catholic and Protestant missions. The American Methodists, from their hiding places, in an attic only six feet away, watched the mob for 12 hours," plundering their houses. Some of the 10,000 soldiers assisted in the looting and dug up a mound of bones, which they took to the district magistrate, telling him they were bones of babies which the foreigners had esten. The viceroy, says Mr. Lenter, and consequently all the other officials were stimultaneously suffering from a severe attack of indisposition. He makes serious charges against the viceroy, Cho Taoti, claiming that, as he had been degraded and was soon to be recalled, he was bent on giving a parting bint both at the foreigners, whom he hated, and the government. SUICIDE OF J. H. MULLEN. When the flan e burst forth from the Roman Catholic bishop's residence, scarcely a stone's throw from the viceroy's, he remarked according to Mr. Lepler, that this was a matter for his successor to attend to, and he states that only after everything was quite destroyed did the viceroy make an effort to restore order, in the meantime having sent out telegeams that a multitude of Chinese had been found at a foreign place, with the result that nearly all the natives believed the story. Mr. Lenier scores the vicercy severely, and demands the punishment of hoetile officials. He incloses copies of the inflammatory placards were posted everywhere, charging that the foreigners were kidnapping children and using oil from their bodies.

A letter from H. L. Carwright con. firms Mr. Lenier's statements.

George W. Hill, of the American Baptist Missionary Union, tells of the flight of himself and party from there, and an attempt to mob them while going down the river in a boat. He was unable to tell, at the time the letter was written, whether the Baptist mission's property at Yachen had been destroyed, but he learned before leaving there that all the stations on the Cheng Tu and Yachen roads, Catholic and Protestant, had been looted and there had been riots at Hu Yung Ya, Fa Tong, Sui Fu, Li Ching, and other places where the missions were at-

Mr. Hill praises the action of the Chinese officials in giving them every protection at Yachen.

Consul General Joinigan has taken a great deal of interest in the recent troubles and has sent several dispatches to the state department giving information and making suggestions for protection. The state department has not called upon the navy for any ship or force to land and proceed into the interior. Minister Denby has authority to call upon Admiral Carpenter and the United States forces, and under his instructions the admiral is bound to furnish them.

Both the state and navy departments believe that United States representatives on the ground, clothed with ample power, are able to act for the best than those here in Washington.

He Had Money. A young man, who give his name as Walter H. Filton, and his residence as Stayton caused considerable annoyance about Ladd & Tilton's bank yesterday afternoon, by inclating that he had over $1,000,000 on deposit there, and he wanted to draw it out. Filton had evidently pondered on the money question until his mind had become unbalanced. He was taken into custody by Detective John Day, and, when searched at the police station, several deposit checks on various banks, for announts aggregating several million dollars, were found in his pockets. All were dated August 9th, and bore the signature of Walter H. Filton, and two of them were made payable to the order of "The Lord, Jesus Christ," Filton talked quite rationally to Chief Minto about people at Stayton and other valley points. He was well dressed and evidently of good family. He said he had worked for Jesus Christ all his life, and guessed that the money in the bank was his. He was sent to the county jail to await examination before the county commissioners.-Or-

David Guthrie who farms 300 as good acres as there is in Polk county, says his wheat on summer fallow is better than it has been for two years. He sells at the Dallas mills. He says the oat crop is not over a half-yield, although there is more acreage. Potatoes are a big crop in acreage but yield is not yet determined. The apple crop is fair but the prune crop is a hummer. There is quite a peach crop, in spite of the late frost. Mr Guthrie would not talk hops. He could not find words to tell it all.
