QUADRUPLE LYNCHING.

Two Cases of Mob Law Executed in Yreka, Cal.

THE BANNOCK MASSACRE DENIED.

250,000 Visitors at the Knights Templar Conclave.

YREKA, Cal., Aug. 26.—Four murderers confined in the county jail here named Johnson, Semler, Null and Morneo were taken from the jail by a mob at 2 o'clock this morning and hanged in the jail yard.

Lawrence Johnson on July 28th stabbed his wife to death in the town of Etna. Wm. Null shot Henry Hayter in the back near Callahan's, April 21st, Lewis Moreno and Garland Semler are supposed to have killed George Sears and Casper Meleerhans at Bailey Hill, August 5th.

At midnight a preconcerted plan or signal drew a small army of some 250 men into the vicinity of the court house square, while sentinels were placed throughout town to ward off danger of discovery by officers. The fire bells were tied up, the night watchmen sent to other parts of town on sham errands, and stragglers were detained.

An old rail was taken from the depot and stretched between two trees in the court house park, and then began the descent upon the jail. Demand was made upon Deputy Sheriff Radford for the keys, but he did not yield. Henry Bratanch, who was sleeping in the jail, heard the commotion, opened the door to see what the trouble was, and was at once seized by the mob. The doors were then forced open and Johnson, Nule, Semler and Morneo were marched out into the court yard. The condemned men took their fate without a murmur, with exception of young Semler, who begged pitifully for mercy. His age is 19. It is said the scene was a heartrending one, as young Semler broke forth in agonizing appeals and cried out: "Tell my dear old mother I am innocent of crime."

Nearly every section of the country was represented in the mob, in fact ever since Null's cold blooded murder of Henry Hayter, lynching was freely talked of in the western end of the county and when Johnson killed his wife avenging sentiment kept on fermenting. After the Bailey-Hill murder this feeling reached a dangerous stage. During the lynching some one awoke Sheriff Hobbs who hurried down town. As he was going through the court house a Winchester was stuck in his face and he was compelled to stand where he was. The whole affair was carefully arranged and well executed.

Only One Hung.

SPRINGFIELD, Ky., Aug. 26.—This morning a mob of about a dozen men took Hanson Lewis, a negro, who murdered Joe Brooks, also colored, Friday night from jail, and hanged him to a tree in the court house yard.

Knights Templars.

BOSTON, Aug. 26.—The Knights Templar and ladies from every section of the United States and visitors from every nook and corner of New England have been pouring into the city today by the thousands. One hundred commanderies, including over 3,500 Sir Knights, arrived before midnight. Tonight fifty more delegations will arrive. The railroads expect to bring in over 250,000 people before the parade starts tomorrow, besides those from suburban towns that make up Greater Boston.

The Bannock Massacre.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The report of killing 15 Bannock Indians by cattlemen in the neighborhood of Diamond Valley, Oregon, is not believed at the Indian bureau.

It has been definitely decided by the Indian bureau that no attention shall be paid to the game laws of Wyoming where the laws come into conflict with the treaty of the United States with the Bannock and Shoshone Indians. The attorney general after considering the matter has informed the secretary of the interior that the rights of the Indians to hunt on unoccupied lands, in his opinion, is unquestionable and that the state of Wyoming has no power to limit or abridge this right. The bureau will discourage hunting by Indians as far as possible, and at present no passes will be issued permitting braves to leave the reservation. It is probable that a number of soldiers will be kept in the Jackson Hole country during the remainder of the hunting season, and if it is deemed advisable at any time to permit the Indians to leave the reservation to hunt, whites possibly will not be permitted to molest them.

OREGON'S HOP CROP.

Picking Will Commence Next Monday Morning.

OREGON WILL HAVE A '90 CROP.

Falling Short in Poorly Cultivated Yards.

It is estimated that there will be a thousand pickers employed between Salem and Hall's Ferry.

It looks as if this year's crop in Oregon would be a "ninety crop," which was the top crop in the history of the state.

The New York market shows old hops selling at 3 1/2 to 4 cents. Picking begins about Waterville August 21st. Crop good. New York 1895 seedlings are being sold for 10 cents. Otsego county reports crop "discouragingly good."

Aurora growers will begin picking next Monday. They have a fine crop and growers are in good shape and consider that they are sure of a reasonable price.

Hop picking may commence at the Douglas Minto yards on Minto's Island on Friday.

At Independence the acreage is reported much larger than in 1894, but absence of rains has cut off the yield to a considerable extent and the total crop will be of good quality, but no heavier than last year.

There will be at least seven buyers at Salem this season through to buy hops. Hubbard of Los Angeles is at the Cottage hotel. Phil. Niles & Co. will be represented by Kola Niles of Eugene; the Pacific hop company will be represented by Thos. Livesley of Seattle; it is not certain whether Meeker & Co. will have an agent at Salem or not.

O. O. McClellan is Horst Bros. office man. They are fitting up offices and sample rooms in the Bush-Breyman block. Chas. Livesley will represent the firm on the outside. He has been a buyer since four years, two years with this firm. These young men will be found very obliging and intelligent and growers will do well to consult with them.

Buyers are urging growers to hold off with picking. They say there is no mold and no lice and there is no danger in waiting ten or fifteen days. A few talk of beginning picking on Wednesday of this week. Among them are J. C. Beardley of Kaiser Bottom, L. F. Masher and M. Haberer of Silverton. The latter two have upland yards. A week from today picking will be general.

Polk and Marion counties produce at least half the Oregon crop. Over a quarter of a million dollars will be needed to pick the crop this year in these two counties, and it is estimated that 15,000 pickers will be required. The acreage is much increased over last year, but only a small percentage of the yards were given a high degree of cultivation and pruning necessary to produce the largest possible yield. Prospect of low prices induced many growers to give only slack attention to their fields and their crop is cut off one-fourth to one-third in many instances. The quality will be very bright and of high grade, but the number of yards that will yield more than last year will not be very large. The estimates that place the Oregon crop at 80,000 to 100,000 bales are apt to over-reach what the final result will be.

PUYALLUP CITIZEN. The Puyallup Citizen, of August 23, has these three items of importance:

Henry and Gustave Hardke, of McMinn, and a few growers whose yards are situated on sandy lands will commence picking Monday, but the work will not be general before the middle of September.

Louis Lachmund says that Yakima county will not harvest over 5,000 bales this season. The lice are multiplying rapidly and there is every indication that much damage will be caused by their ravages.

Geo. L. Rose, who returned from New York says that the crop will go over two-thirds and that a good quality will be bailed but that a number of growers will not pick on account of the depressing market which will materially lessen the produce of this year.

Julius Pincus says that his house the Lillenthal's have abandoned their interest in 15 yards which they own and control this season and will do nothing further toward picking this season. Lice have got too much headway and market conditions will not justify the enormous expense necessary to even pull them out even. This firm, which heretofore has done a wide business of advancing money on crop mortgages, will loan absolutely no picking money this season.

FROM PUYALLUP "COMMERCE." Thos. McNeff shipped 24 bales to St. Louis, Mo., Thursday, for Phil Niles & Co. This shipment took all the hops that were stored in the N. P. warehouse.

The growers in this vicinity say that under existing condition they will not be able to pay over 75 cents per box for picking.

The general feeling as to the outlook is not yet crystallized, though many are quite confident of satisfactory result.

The proposition that the hops should be harvested, independent of the condition of the market, was generally discussed and the feeling prevailed in very definite form that the crop should be picked by all means. "Turn the crop over to the pickers in some way," said the growers "get them into marketable shape at all hazards, whether there is a profit in them to the growers or not. Thousand of dollars will thus be put into circulation that would otherwise be lost absolutely."

MARION COUNTY NEWS.

Board of Equalization Begins Its Annual Task.

The county board of equalization began its annual task of adjusting taxation at 9 a. m. at the county court house. Assessor Coffey has not yet fixed the assessment of the Southern Pacific railroad. It is impossible, he claims, to secure the co-operation of the other assessors to determine upon a uniform rate upon the road throughout the state. Mr. Coffey thinks a mile in Jackson county should be assessed the same as a mile in Multnomah county. Two years ago he fixed the rate in this county at $5000 per mile, which was higher than in any other county and the state board of equalization lowered it. County Judge Hubbard will favor establishing Mr. Coffey's figures of two years ago.

Correspondence received indicates that some county officials do not understand the apparent low rate of assessment paid on this road in Oregon, as compared with California. The rate fixed by California is over $12,000, but that includes the steamship lines, depots, real estate and all property. Oregon assesses all property separately, so that there is very little, if any, favor shown the road in this state.

People seem to be satisfied with their assessments. An old lady and three men called in the forenoon to inquire how they were assessed. But no changes were made. It looks as though but few would avail themselves of the chance to be equalized offered all this week.

A marriage license was issued to Claude Norton and Miss Nellie Townsend, daughter of E. D. Townsend, who gives his consent.

CAUGHT FROM THE WHEEL.

Mr. Warner, the painter, is in the Santiam mountains on an extended fishing and hunting expedition.

C. H. Brown, the insurance man and Wm. Miller, of the White Corner, were a week Sunday spending the day at Waterloo and Lebanon.

The country roads leading to Lebanon are literally covered with straw, the droppings from the many wagon loads being daily delivered to the paper mills.

Miss Jessie Creighton, of the State School superintendent's office, is spending a pleasant vacation at Soda-ville, drinking mineral water from the state spring.

Mr. Ed. Keene, of Gray Bros. store, is spending a pleasant week at Waterloo, drinking mineral water and entertaining the numerous handsome belles of that vicinity.

Harvest has been completed in nearly all the fields south and east of Salem and the roads are becoming very dusty, the result of heavy hauling to warehouses and places of storage.

Messrs. Ben Olcott, of Bush's bank, Lenoan, of the Capital bldg., and Carey Martin, of the department of state, took a spin up the valley Sunday spending the day at Waterloo and Soda-ville, returning in the evening.

INSANE MOTHER'S ACT.

She Drowns Her Child in the River.

HORRIBLE CRIME NEAR MONMOUTH

The Mother Rescued from Suicide by Her Son.

News of a terrible case of insanity in Polk county reached the city this morning.

Mrs. Tetherow, wife of Jas Tetherow, who live on the Luckiamute close to Burn's mill, near the mouth of the two streams, six miles southwest of Monmouth, is reported to have become insane early Sunday morning and drowned one of her children, aged five or six years, in the stream. She is said to have returned to the house and called up one of the older children to build up a fire, saying she was freezing to death. She then left the home to go toward the stream calling to the child she had drowned. The boy she had awakened went in pursuit of his mother and rescued her from a watery grave, as she had already waded into the stream where she had drowned the child and was evidently bent on committing suicide. She gave as a reason that she wanted to be with her child in heaven and seemed to be insane on religious matters.

T. A. Farley, the Dallas stage driver, says the above was the report at Dallas this morning.

AN INDEPENDENCE REPORT.

The wife of James Tetherow a well-to-do farmer, who has been under the care of a doctor for several months, awoke yesterday morning before the rest of the family. Taking her 6-year-old son from his bed she wrapped him in a quilt and carried him down to the Luckiamute river, distant about a quarter of a mile, and drowned him. Returning to her home, she told her husband she was sick and asked him to go for the doctor. He told her that she was no worse than usual and that she must wait. The wife then left the house and went toward the river again. This time she was followed and in an attempt to drown herself was rescued.

On the return to the house she kept speaking about the baby. When the house was reached the baby was first missed. Then she told how she had taken it down to the "nice bathing pool, and although he clung to my neck, and begged me not to put him in, I held him under the water." Mrs. Tetherow is now in a stupor and does not know what she has done. It is thought she is insane.

The Tetherow family are pioneers of Polk county, but this family are a younger generation. Mrs. Tetherow has been an invalid and of unsound mind for some time. She will be sent to the asylum as soon as possible. The body of the child drowned was rescued.

Col. Jefferson Myers and cousin Dr. Anlice Jeffreys were visitors at Waterloo Sunday. The Col. was combining business with pleasure by distributing literature advertising the state fair.

John R. Cochran one of the young men on THE JOURNAL force, left today for a deserved week's outing at Me-hama where he joins the rest of the Cochran family.
