

THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1895.

PROF. HERITAGE COMING.

Farwell Tendend Salem's New Conservatory Director.

Prof. Heritage doubtless feels proud of the audience that gathered at the opera house last night, the occasion being the testimonial concert tendered him upon the eve of his departure for Salem, Ore. The house was well filled despite the terrific heat, and the presence of such a number was a deserved expression of the respect and esteem felt for Prof. Heritage.

Prof. Heritage deserves it all, for no man has given more freely of his time and talents to make others happier, nor done more to raise the standard of musical culture in this city and vicinity. He has sung his way into the hearts of every citizen, and while he leaves he will not be forgotten.

When the bill passed last legislature to tax foreign companies the Oregonian said rates would be advanced. Now the insurance rates at Salem are reduced to ten per cent and in many other parts of the state.

The professional office-seeker does not care whether he has any qualifications for the place he seeks or not. He does not care whether the party owes him anything or not. All he cares for is to get the salary.

Are you going East? Have you decided which route you will take? Do you know the Northern Pacific is the only line running Upholstered Tourist Sleepers direct from Portland to the East without change or delay?

Prof. Heritage leaves this morning for Elk City, Kas., where he will visit with his father for a few days, and will then go to Salem. When he leaves Fremont it will be with the hearty good wishes and godspeeds of every lover of unselfishness and the kind remembrance of all who love music.

BAGS AND BINDING TWINE

At the rate he has run Cleveland will issue about $400,000,000 gold bonds during his term of office. It will take a big protective tariff to wipe that out.

And who will pay this big tariff tax but the people? We are afraid that the farmers who get cheaper grain bags and binding twine and harvesting machinery, and all the other "plain people" who are benefitted by cheap clothing and other necessities of life will object to THE JOURNAL'S plan for increasing the revenues.

Cheaper grain bags, binding twine and harvesting machinery are a mere bagatelle compared to what the farmers are losing by destruction of good home markets under Democratic free trade and low tariffs.

The attempt to raise a fund at Salem for sending off the monthly four-page boom editions of the Oregonian at 50 cts. a year is one of the many ways of helping Oregon. It is nothing more than what THE JOURNAL has been doing for six months at its own expense.

"The Pacific Empire," Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway's new Equal right's paper, has appeared. It is a neat, bristly, able, weekly paper, and all suffragists should send for a copy and assist the lady in her battle for her sex.

"New today" and "Want Ads," five lines in DAILY or WEEKLY JOURNAL for 25 cts.

THINGS TO LEARN.

Salem people should learn by this time that it pays best. To call in the family physician instead of patronizing quacks or sending their sick ones off to hospitals.

To support the home churches having regular pastors better and not shell out so freely for every perambulating evangelist who comes along with a scheme to reform the community.

Booming Silets.

Amos Strong and a part of his party returned from the lower Silets Tuesday. While there they made soundings on the bar and in the bay preparatory to going in with a steamer with a cannery outfit. We did not learn the depth of the water on the bar, nor the condition of the entrance to the harbor. The site for the cannery has been located and the machinery bought and the latter will be taken in at an early date.

When the bill passed last legislature to tax foreign companies the Oregonian said rates would be advanced. Now the insurance rates at Salem are reduced to ten per cent and in many other parts of the state.

The professional office-seeker does not care whether he has any qualifications for the place he seeks or not. He does not care whether the party owes him anything or not. All he cares for is to get the salary.

The Northern Route.

Are you going East? Have you decided which route you will take? Do you know the Northern Pacific is the only line running Upholstered Tourist Sleepers direct from Portland to the East without change or delay?

Prof. Heritage leaves this morning for Elk City, Kas., where he will visit with his father for a few days, and will then go to Salem.

When the bill passed last legislature to tax foreign companies the Oregonian said rates would be advanced. Now the insurance rates at Salem are reduced to ten per cent and in many other parts of the state.

Did You Ever Think

That you cannot be well unless you have pure, rich blood? If you are weak, tired, languid and all run down, it is because your blood is impoverished and lacks vitality.

Reduced Rate.

The Southern Pacific Co. has put on reduced rate on oats in carload lots of 40,000 pounds. Effective Aug. 21 from Portland and all points on main line as far south as Eugene City; between Woodburn and Natron and Lebanon branch.

There are 177,755 miles of railroad in the United States.

There are 66,835,880 rails used to cover this ground. There are 533,355,000 ties used to bind these rails together, but no such amount, however, is required to bind the hearts of the traveling public to the fact that the Wisconsin Central lines furnish superior facilities on all their trains between St. Paul and Chicago, which form close connections with all lines to the east and south.

Make a note of it.

Why is Wheat so Cheap?

"According to Russian official reports," says Consul General of U. S. St. Petersburg, "the grain supply of Russia for 1894 and 1895 will be about as follows: to wit: Wheat, 255,659,719 bushels; rye, 712,794,133 bushels, and barley 174,581,109 bushels."

After deduction of ample amount for home production, seed and consumption, the balance for exportation will equal at least 183,059,479 bushels of wheat; 62,069,928 bushels of rye; the data for oats and barley not being in a condition to use.

It is estimated the total requirements of wheat for foreign countries is 440,681,445 bushels, and 98,988,350 bushels of rye.

To meet this demand, Russia has a surplus of 155,563,727 of rye and 58,653,110 of wheat. It will be seen this report gives no account of surplus of France, Italy, Austria, Japan and other countries, and makes no mention of British India, which alone produces a surplus of about 250,000,000 bushels, that can be offered for sale at London at a less price, by reason of low cost of labor to produce it than can be supplied from many, if any other country.

The so to speak, improved or revival of business, small increase of percentage of wages and demand by producers is only temporary, most of it by money monopolists, hoping in this way to stem the rapidly increasing tide of condemnation against all monopolies and combines, especially that against a currency based on gold money, necessarily contracted by reasons of its intrinsic value under a gold basis, with a view of the affect it may produce on public opinion during ensuing political or National conventions.

In short this so to speak revival in business, is not well founded, therefore deceptive, as there is no increase but decrease of demand for labor, hence no increase of demand for production or consumption.

But intelligent investors will carefully consider these questions, and make their investments with great conservatism, until public opinion is so far revolutionized, that the old contraction monopoly of gold money and U. S. bonds system shall be wiped out, and a broader basis of currency introduced that will set the people of the country to work at good wages, and thereby create a corresponding increase of demand for consumption, as also of demand and value of property.—Insurance and Commercial Magazine.
