THE SUPPLY OF WHEAT.

The estimate of the wheat crop of the United States for this year is now put at 400,017,000 bushels. This is much less than it has usually been d tring the past 20 years, and it has only been materially less in four years, namely, 1875, when it was 309,102,700 bushels; in 1876, when it was 295,136,-000; 1877, when it was 289,356,500, and 1886, when It was 357,112,000.

It is considerably less than in 1892, picturesque mountain scenery. At when the actual yield was 611,780,000, Kingston Messrs. W. J. and Frank and even less than in 1893, when it was Culver, Ernest and Charles Porter 515,949,000. These figures although boarded the train for Detroit, the given for the fiscal year ending June 3), embrace the production only to D cember 31, of the preceding year.

It is a singular fact that in 1894. which was the lowest production for They had walked to Kingston from even years, the percentage of experi was the greatest in 20 years, reaching 41 47, although in 1892, when our production was over 50 per cent more, we exported only 36.88 per cent.

Our home consumption last year was only 231,848,596, less than it has been for 18 years; but the average is over 300,000,000, so that the prespect is we will have for export 100,000,600, or has thau half that of 1892 and 1893, and 64,283,129 less than last year.

So far as the United States is concerned, therefore, the outlook for the farmer is good. But we are met by the enormous production of Russia, which has reached 415,058,000 bushels, and for the first time in many years, if memory may be depended upon, the United States takes second place in value of reached. The water falls over a huge production. In 1890-91 Russia prorock that projects far over the ground duced only 186,200,000 bushels to our 450,000,000. This enormous increase is due to the opening up of Siberia, which, with its new lands, is doing for Russia what the opening up of Iowa and Minnesota did for the United States.

In the dispatch published on Monday in the Post-Intelligencer the production of France is put at 31,573,000, but that is probably an error. It can hardly have fallen so low. The production of Argentine and Chile is doubted, but most of the other esti-

Notes From Mehama. CAMP ALBERT, Aug. 29, 1895.

While in Albany Monday on our way to Mehama, the popular mountain resort, we saw Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Townsend, who were on their way home from an outing in the mountains. Sherift John Knight and family were also in Albany, Monday between trains, on their way home from Newport, where they have been spending the summer. Chas. Boothby was also seen on the streets of Albany on that day looking much better than when he left Balem a few weeks since, At 1:30 we boarded an accommodation train over the O. below the average

Of course, in making a comparison i must be remembered that for past years the actual production is given, while for this year we are depending upon estimates which must be largely the result of guess work.

Enough is known, however, of the crop abroad, and of the prospects of still further increase, to serve as a warning to the farmers in Oregon not to rely upon it except for home consumption. As a staple it will do well to keep a certain acreage, but diveriafied farming will be the moneymaking method in the future.

When the Republican party goes into power in 1896 it should go in with clean hands, led by men of pure lives, good public reputations and the confidence of the people. It should go in to stay in and do something for the people of this great nation. It will have a short career and end in a seething mass of corruption, if Platt, Hog & Co. make its ticket and control its administration. Give us some new blood, clean hands and high purposes. Governor Fletcher is one of Salem's

Good roads are good investments Money judiciously expended in road improvement adds so much to the value of the property in a country that every dollar invested comes back to the treasury in the form of additional taxation. Good roads are arteries of trade, promoters of value, aids to prosperity. They attract how settlers, encourage land improvement and enrich a community. They bring in more people to help pay the taxes, and thus reduce the rate of taxation while increasing the aggregate amount collected.
