THE PORTLAND LOBBY.

Taking a Hand for and Against Senator McGinn for Judge.

The Portland Lobby for and against Hon. Henry E. McGinn to succeed Judge Hurly, late judge fourth district, Portland, are in the city and Governor Lord is being put in the sweatbox by them. Hotel Williams and the state houses have resounded with the tread of warring factions all day. The early evening trial brought the following delegation to see the governor and present the demand of those who wish to see Henry E. McGinn appointed to the place. These were O. F. Paxton, Raleigh Stott, Wallace McCamant, W. L. Boise, H. Stanislawsky, Julius Silverstone and F. A. E. Starr. These were reinforced at the coming of the late train by Senator Jos. Simon, Judge Thos. F. Stephens and Alfred F. Sears, Jr.

Others who came were Judge O. N. Denny, Colonel Frank V. Drake, and District Attorney W. T. Hume, Attorney-General Idleman are also present, and each is said to be taking a hand. The McGinn faction presented to Governor Lord a petition signed by 111 Portland lawyers, including Geo. H. Williams, Judge Belling, Judge Thayer, Emmet Williams, Judges Stearns and Stephens and like names of prominence, irrespective of party affiliation. This petition Governor Lord took under advisement.

WHAT WAS SAID AND DONE.
Major Tuttle desires it understood that he is here purely on business and has had nothing to do with the judgment. He has taken no sides in the matter.

The following delegation waited on Governor Lord this morning: Senator Jos. Simon, Representative O. F. Paxton, ex-Judge Raleigh Stott, F. A. E. Starr, a prominent Democratic attorney; Whitney L. Boise, ex-chairman of the Republican state central committee; Alfred F. Sears, Jr., the Multnomah county candidate for attorney-general; Julius Silverstone, law partner of United States District Attorney D. R. Murphy; Henry Stanislawsky, the Russian attorney; Wallace McCamant, vice-president for Oregon of the American Protective Tariff League.

At 8:45 the McGinn delegation presented their petition. Mr. McCamant made the leading fight for McGinn, and is an eloquent and pleasing speaker, who made the hills of Polk county resound in the campaign of 1894.

Mr. McCamant plead for the virtues of Mr. McGinn. He spoke from the standpoint of Christian statesmanship, and his words had some weight, as he is a prominent churchman and carries around a contribution box on Sunday.

Mr. Sears, Jr., made a plea for Mr. McGinn as the man who seconded the nomination of Judge Lord. The anti-McGinn men are very outspoken in opposing this appointment. They are not as noisy, or as formidable in reputation. They say the petition of the Portland lawyers was signed by many who would prefer to see some other man appointed. The petition was signed by many who would not refuse a request to sign out of political policy, but who would not lend their presence or their personal influence to coerce the governor into making the appointment. They say it is a confession of the weakness of Mr. McGinn's candidacy, that a delegation of Portland city politicians should have to come here and make a formal plea, and personal reminder to the governor. They say if the governor feels under great political obligation to Mr. McGinn personally he should find some other way to pay him.

Governor Lord, after hearing the McGinn delegation patiently, decided to make no appointment today.

FROM CROOK.—The assessment roll of Crook county is the first one of the lot of 1895 to arrive at the secretary of state's office. From it the following facts of interest are taken: Acres cultivated land, 26,431; acres uncultivated, 471,636; gross value of all property, $1,853,392; exemptions, $149,518.

A REQUISITION.—Sheriff C. F. Cathcart, of Douglas county, came to the city yesterday to secure a requisition on the governor of Washington for the F. Skinner, for obtaining money under false pretense. Gov. Lord granted the prayer.

HURRAH FOR THE DEFENDER.—But at the same time keep in mind your home merchants. They deserve your patronage and should have it. When you wish on excellent 10 cent cigar, just try the La Corona. The Bon Ton Prize Bouquet, five cent cigars, also have no equal.

THE TEA DRINKERS' ASSOCIATION.—Has not yet been formed but should such an organization be formed the greater part of its members would be found to use nothing but the "Epicure" for sale only at Gilbert & Patterson's.

A SMALL WIND.—Sometimes does considerable damage but the most violent earthquake possible would not in the least distribute the bargains in groceries to be found at Branson & Co's.

AT MARION COUNTY'S CAPITOL

Complaint Filed—Matters in Probate Court.

A complaint has been filed in department No. 1 of the Marion county circuit court by A. McFarlane, whereby he seeks to secure judgment against A. H. La Croix and O. O. Cune for $200 and interest from July 7, 1894, and attorney's fees, amounting to $25. The note was given August 5, 1893.

A demurrer has been filed with County Clerk Ehlen, in the case of Weston Normal school vs. secretary of State Kincaid, and the case will not come up for a hearing until the next regular term of court. Judge Hewitt returned to Albany last night.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Wrightman and A. T. Wain are engaged in making a list of sheriff assessments. It will probably take them the remainder of this week to complete the task, when the work of making out the delinquent tax list will be begun.

County Judge Hubbard yesterday appointed Wm. England, Otto Wilson and Fred S. Williams appraisers of the estate of Annetta B. Averil, an insane person aged 51 years. Her property is valued at $300.

Very little business was transacted at the court house today, the rain apparently keeping people in.

Deputy Sheriff F. T. Wrightman today conducted one sale on execution. In the case of Lamport vs. Gilgilly a set of harness sold to the plaintiff for $5.

Police Court.

Nothing disturbed the usual quiet of police court this morning, not even a drunk appearing to secure the sentence of "five days."

Recorder Edes busied himself a part of the day in "touching up" his office furniture with a coat of varnish, which adds much to the already tidy appearance.

JUST A LITTLE.—Come to think it over, "just a little cheaper," means considerable on food and flour. Brewster & White sell just a trifle cheaper than anyone. 13 2c

REFRESHING GOODS.—Ladies, Misses and children's rubbers, and mens, and boys rubber boots, and shoes, at the New York Racket. Call and see them. 12 23-1w

There are 17755 miles of railroad in the United States.
There are 66,835,880 rails used to cover this ground.
There are 533,265,000 ties used to bind these rails together, but no such amount, however, is required to bind the hearts of the traveling public to the fact that the Wisconsin Central lines furnish superior facilities on all their trains between St. Paul and Chicago which form close connections with all lines to the east and south.

Quarrel Over the Yacht Race.

The Sun, which throughout has maintained a tone hostile to America, says: "The Yankees evidently intend to keep the cup. Possession is nine points of the law in sport in America."

The Evening News says: "The whole business savors of sharp practice. No one would quarrel with a decision ordering the race to be sailed, but we cannot stomach the paper victory awarded Defender."

Valkyrie Goes Home.
New York, Sept. 13.—On her arrival at Erie basin, the Valkyrie was hauled into position between two steamers, just outside the dry dock, where she had several times been dried out for cleaning and repairing purposes. The crew, under command of Captain Cranfield and Sycamore, were immediately set to work to strip the yacht, and prepare her for a voyage across the sea.

Dunraven Upheld.
LONDON, Sept. 13.—The conclusion of the international yacht race for America's cup furnished a text for articles in all the London afternoon papers. In general, the press upheld Lord Dunraven in his refusal to sail over the course yesterday without a guarantee that it would be kept clear of excursion steamers and other craft.

Valkyrie's Farewell Tour.
New York, Sept. 13.—Dunraven's friends say the Valkyrie will never again race on this side of the Atlantic.

Will Resist Bonds
TOPEKA, Sept. 13.—Senator Puffer said today that if another issue of bonds be made without authority of congress, he will introduce in the senate, a resolution for their repudiation.
