ANOTHER GUN ACCIDENT.

Al. Mulkey, a Sublimity Farmer, Loses His Arm.

Another unfortunate gun accident took place about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Al. Mulkey, a young farmer residing near Sublimity, accompanied by three neighbors went hunting Sunday morning in the vicinity of Silver Creek Falls. About 1 o'clock the hunters stopped to rest. Mr. Mulkey thoughtlessly laying his left arm over the muzzle of the gun when in some way or other the arm piece discharged its contents, badly shattering the unfortunate man's arm. His companions carried him to Johnson's sawmill a short distance away and sent for Dr. Brooks, of Silverton. Arriving at the side of the young man, Dr. Stott saw it was necessary to amputate the injured member. Accordingly a hack was secured and the man was removed to Silverton where the painful operation was performed about 1 o'clock this (Monday) morning.

A Joke on Chief Dilley.

Ever since the bicycle ordinance was passed by the city council a few months since, Salem's alert police officers have kept their eyes open and have succeeded in publishing a number of wheelmen. Saturday forenoon Chief of Police Dilley noticed a bicyclist going spinning along Commercial street on his wheel, and determined to put a stop to it. Passing down State street he soon met the bicyclist crossing the street by Small's dry goods store.

"I should like to have you come up to my office for a few moments," said Chief Dilley to the astonished wheelman.

"What for?" inquired the bicyclist. "Were you not riding your wheel on the sidewalk a few moments ago?" queried the officer.

"Yes sir, and I have a right to" replied the man with the wheel much to the astonishment of the officer.

"How's that," inquired Chief Dilley?

"Why," smiled the bicyclist "haven't you read the ordinance yet?"

By this time the chief's predicament was becoming quite laughable. He acknowledged that he had not noticed the ordinance very closely.

"Better look it up, then," remarked the wheelman who went spinning down the street.

The wheelman in this particular instance was Elmer Calkins, the popular assistant at the Salem steam laundry, who propels his bicycle with but one foot, making almost as good time thereby as any other bicyclist. As the ordinance permits cripples riding upon the sidewalks, the chief had to let his man go.

First Anniversary.

The Presbyterians of this city have occupied their handsome church edifice on Church street just one year the dedication of the building having taken place Sept. 9, 1894. In accordance with these facts, the pastor, Rev. A. L. Hutchison yesterday delivered an anniversary sermon, reviewing the work of the past year. The society still has a small debt on its hands incurred by the remodeling of its church house last summer, but is hopeful of wiping it entirely out within a short time. During the past year 129 persons have been received into the church, 82 uniting by profession of faith while the remaining 47 held letters from other churches. In the same length of time 14 members were dismissed to other churches. Two of its most devoted workers, Mrs. W. D. Jeffries and Miss Ethel Van Eaton, have been removed by death the past year, leaving an actual membership numbering 341.

A PAINFUL WOUND.—Sunday afternoon Warren, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hunt, residing at the corner of 12th and Center streets, met with a painful accident. While playing about the house he accidentally ran a fish hook into the middle finger of the left hand, the hook entering the finger lengthwise going in full length. It was with some difficulty his father removed the hook from the boy's finger which will be quite sore for some time to come.

THE QUESTION OF THE DAY.—Seems to be that of hops but at the same time we want to pay a little attention to the subject of home industry. When a dealer invests his money in your own community, employs only white labor etc, he is surely deserving of your patronage. A Hucklestein has done this and respectfully asks you to test the merits of his ten cent La Corona.

PETTY THIEVES.—A number of young Salemites who attended the hop yard dance near Lincoln Saturday night returned home without their buggy robes. While the dance was progressing some one removed all the robes and the best whips from the various buggies.

THE HOP QUESTION.—Does not bother the "old mids" so much as does the tea question. But most old mids know there is none better than Epicure and use that only.—Gilbert & Patterson.

Kidnapped Tonight.

The lovers of amusements are going to be given a treat tonight. Bacon's Stock company are going to present Kidnapped. Kidnapped is a play that is full of dramatic situation replete with climaxes and brim full of comedy with a very pretty heart story running through the piece. The principal comedy part is that of a German dude the other parts is that Michael Mooney an Irishman that has just been appointed on the police force. There is also a very funny Jew. The company have their own orchestra and is one of the largest companies that has visited Salem in many years. If you are going to see Kidnapped don't delay getting your seat as they are going very fast. You can get the best seat in the house for 50 cents. Children will be admitted for 15 cents. Kidnapped had run of two weeks in Portland where hundreds were turned away. The company go from here back to Portland and play all winter. Don't stay away for fear of not seeing a good show. A $1 entertainment for 50 cents. Seats are selling at Patton Bros.

A Large Crowd.

The bankrupt store at 118 State street, has been crowded with people during the last week and judging from the armful of shoes carried away they must be of a good quality and very cheap. The sale will continue until all are sold. Mr. Orem, the assignee of this stock expects to make Salem his home in the future but does not expect to continue in the shoe business after he closes out this stock. Now is a good time to lay in shoes for the winter. 16 dws

AT WOODBURN.—At the Episcopal church yesterday evening in St. Mary's church, Woodburn, the Rev. Lawrence Sinclair presented five candidates for confirmation to the bishop of Oregon as follows: Cassius Denver Watkins, Charles De Ville Johnson and the Misses, Laura Emily Johnson, Ida Mills and Delia Hunsaker. The Bishop preached on St. Paul's words: "Forgetting the Things That are Behind," etc. The congregations were all that could be desired at 3:30 and 7 p. m. services. Mr. J. A. Sellwood conducted the service at 7:30 in St. Paul's Salem, in the absence of the rector.

New Hats at Dalrymple's.

A MYSTERIOUS DEATH.—Dr. J. S. Stott, of Gervais, this morning telephoned Coroner A. M. Clough, of this city, informing him of the finding of a dead man near St. Paul under peculiar circumstances making it necessary to hold an inquest. As it was impossible for Mr. Clough to attend to the matter, he authorized Justice of the Peace Assman, of Gervais, to hold an inquest over the remains.

AT WILLARD.—About 200 people witnessed the dedication of the new Congregational church at Willard Sunday. Everything went off successfully. The church has nearly forty members and new ones are added every week. There are to be services every Sunday and a regular pastor is to be settled as soon as possible.

BIG PROFITS ON SMALL INVESTMENTS.

Returning property will make many rich, but nowhere can they make so much within a short time as by successful speculation on grain, provisions and stock.

$10 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can be made by our Systematic plan of Speculation.

All successful speculators operate on a regular system. It is a well known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago, made large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars to the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $75,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand. It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from investment in grain and stock are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading. Write for convincing proofs, also our manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers. All FREE. Our manual explains margin trading fully.
