

A BLOODY BATTLEFIELD.

Is Converted Into a Pleasure Park.

VETERANS OF BLUE AND GRAY.

Shed Tears Over the Bloody Chasm of War.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 19.—One of the bloodiest battlefields the world ever saw was formally dedicated here today as a pleasure park. It was the battlefield of Chickamauga, whose ravines and mountain sides were strewn with nearly 30,000 dead and wounded men thirty-two years ago. The dedication was conducted by the man who fought on both sides in that awful strife. Two generals, with silver grey hair, who headed thousands of men in the affray, on opposite side, made the principal speeches. They were Generals John M. Palmer and John B. Gordon. The exercises were witnessed by no less than 50,000 people of the north and south and at least half of them took part in that bloody civil war. Vice President Stevenson presided over the dedicatory services. By way of beginning there was a national salute of forty-four guns by the artillery, followed by the "Star Spangled Banner," played by one of the United States infantry bands. It was cheered to the echo by the veterans of the blue and of the gray and many grizzled veterans shed tears of joy. When the applause ceased Vice President Stevenson made a brief address appropriate to the occasion. A prayer was then offered by the Right Rev. Bishop Gaylor, of Tennessee. "America" was then sung by the audience accompanied by the band. The volume of sound rolled up as a great tidal wave of peace and long before the song was ended tears were coursing down the cheeks of thousands of old veterans. General John M. Palmer, the venerable senator from Illinois, made the first dedicatory address. Then the battle-scarred veteran of the Confederacy, whom Lee called his "right arm," John B. Gordon, of Georgia, was introduced.

THE CHINESE EMPEROR

Issues a Strong Edict to San Francisco Chinese.

FOREIGNERS TO BE PROTECTED.

Chinese Exhorted Not to Listen to Scurrilous Talk.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The attitude of the emperor of China in relation to the recent outbreaks against missionaries is shown in an edict recently issued by the emperor, which is published in a local paper. The emperor says: "Since the opening of international commerce with western countries, foreigners have always resided in the inland districts at peace and harmony with their native neighbors, and we, in our impartial love for both native and foreigner alike, have time and again commanded our high provincial authorities to pay extra heed constantly to protect the latter from harm. Judge of our extreme indignation, then, upon hearing recently of the riots in the capital of Sze Chuen where chapels have been destroyed and burned down by the rioters, thereby fanning the flames of destruction far and wide, inasmuch that a number of subprefectures and districts simultaneously followed in the footsteps of Cheng Tu, and now we receive news from Fukien reporting that evil characters have murdered and wounded a very large number of foreigners at Kutilen, going so far in their ruthless ferocity as to murder even women and infants. "With reference to the Sea Chuen riots a number of the rioters have already been arrested and will undergo trial, but the chiefs and heads of the Kutilen murders are still at large, and we command Pien Pao Chuan and Chung Yu, (Tartar general of Foo Chow), to set to work without delay at the head of military and district officials and speedily arrest these wicked characters, nor shall any be allowed to escape the meshes of the law. Indeed, it is the manifest duty of the local mandarins throughout the empire to be always on the alert and prevent such worthless characters from manufacturing scurrilous tales and exciting the populace; they should crush all incipient risings at the slightest sign. What sort of frivolity and indifference to duty in this, then, has brought about all these recent serious outrages? "We would also, therefore, command the various Tartar generals, viceroys and governors of the empire to impress upon all their subordinates the necessity of granting thorough protection to all chapels, etc., in their districts. They are also to issue proclamations exhorting the people to abstain from listening to scurrilous talks which incite unfounded suspicions in the breasts of all. If there be any who shall dare to raise disturbances in the future they shall be at once punished with the utmost severity of the law, and as to such of the local officials as may use subterfuge and craft to avoid their duties, they are to be most severely punished, and no leniency shall be exercised in their cases. Let these commands be known to all within this empire." Little value is attached by foreigners to this edict. It is now well understood that the orders of the emperor of China have virtually no force outside the walls of Peking. On several previous occasions edicts even more forcibly worded than the above have emanated from the dragon throne, but foreign property and foreign lives remain as insecure as ever in the interior of China. It is generally believed that the action of the British government has fallen far short of the requirements of the occasion. Instead of dispatching a consul to investigate the circumstances connected with the Ku Cheng atrocities the task should have been entrusted to a secretary of legation and instead of a Chinese escort the commissioner should have been accompanied by 500 redcoats and bluejackets.

A TERRIBLE CYCLONE.

A Church Lifted Bodily in the Air and Turned over.

GREEN BAY, Sept. 19.—News reached here tonight of a cyclone swept over Dove County peninsula today demolishing fully thirty buildings. At Claybank the large Shiloh Church was tossed from its foundation, lifted bodily into the air and dumped bottom side up. For twenty miles the cyclone cut a swath through timber and across farms leveling everything. No one was killed.

The Asylum Shortage.

The Statesman claims to have ascertained the nature of the discrepancy discovered at the insane asylum, and says: "While it is a little awkward there is probably no dishonesty behind it and no actual loss to the state funds. It appears that in the inventory there is a credit for wood on hand of $10,000, but an actual measurement of the wood reveals only 2,000 cords, which at $2 per cord, the present price of wood, amounts to only $4,000, leaving an apparent deficit of $6,000.

"This deficit has existed and has kept increasing for several years, as a result of the system of bookkeeping and monthly reports prevalent at the institution. The aim has been for some years to see how low the per capita expense could be brought; each month and to keep it down every fall in prices of commodities had to be followed.

"For instance: At the beginning of the year 5,000 cords of wood might be bought at $3 or $3.50 per cord. In a few months the price of wood fell to $2 or $2.50 per cord. Each month's report enumerates the amount of each item of expense, and when 300 cords of wood were burned they were put in at the price of wood at that time, perhaps $1 a cord less than it cost. At the end of the year, the monthly reports showed that there had been used only so much fuel, but the purchase at the beginning was so much more, consequently the difference was reported on hand. Under such a system one can readily understand that a discrepancy would surely accumulate.

"There may be other items in which the same rules have been observed, but the foregoing is sufficiently illustrative of the trouble. The last superintendent, Dr. Rowland, found the incubus and let it drift along, thinking as it had been the custom there was no harm in it. Dr. Paine very properly would like to begin without any such heavy weight to drag along and probably a full investigation will be made and the books squared."

THAT BICYCLE ORDINANCE.—While comfortably seated in his office this morning, Recorder Edes noticed bicyclist come splashing down State street on the sidewalk contrary to the bicycle ordinance. Hastening down stairs the accommodating official proposed to inform the stranger that he was out of place while riding upon the sidewalk, but before he reached the foot of the stairs the wheelman passed the door at a lively gallop—too swift for the recorder. Reaching Commercial street the bicyclist turned to the left, keeping on the sidewalk, and was soon lost to sight over the Murphy Hill. Judging from the man's appearance, he was a stranger, and had undoubtedly failed to read the bicycle ordinance.

Police Court. Chief of Police Dilley returned from Roseburg on the 2:30 local this afternoon with James Parker, whom he went after last night. Parker was arraigned before Recorder Edes at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, charged with assault and battery on the person of John Ferguson last Saturday night. Parker plead guilty and was fined $25.

There are 17,755 miles of railroad in the United States. There are 66,855,880 rails used to cover this ground. There are 533,265,000 ties used to bind these rails together, but no such amount, however, is required to bind the hearts of the traveling public to the fact that the Wisconsin Central line furnishes superior facilities on all their trains between St. Paul and Chicago which form close connections with all lines to the east and south. Make a note of it.

The Royal Chinook has made its appearance on the upper bay and our sportsmen are enjoying themselves to the full extent of the law.

Toledo lodge I. O. O. F. initiated three new members Saturday evening. This popular order is growing stronger every month in Toledo.

The citizens of Toledo are a unit on incorporation and are tearing down the hills and grading the streets all over town.

A half dozen teams and as many men are making the dirt fly just in front of town and soon another fifty acres of land will be reclaimed from the salty tide, making 500 acres in sight of the city that has been reclaimed. There are within three miles of Toledo 4,000 acres of tideland that must be reclaimed in the near future. It is the richest land in America and readly produces 70 tons of sugar beets to the acre.

Much interest is being taken in the high school proposition and the chances are very favorable for an academy being opened in Toledo this season.

Crono & Peairs have just completed a full and correct abstract of Lincoln county.

Two more German families from Chicago settled on homesteads near Toledo this week. They do not hesitate to take the rough mountain land and say that they can soon make good homes.

Considerable farm real estate is changing hands these days.

And has it come to pass that a cold storage, gold syndicate must be hired by our government in order to keep the gold reserve in the United States treasury? What manner of money, or we would say, what combination of circumstances is it that has placed the great credit of the United States in the hands of a gold syndicate? Ye Gods! Let us but stop and reason one with another. Must 63,000,000 people bend the knee to the will of a few money lords? Must America humbly bow to a foreign power? Shall England always dictate to the United States her financial policy? Shall the lustre of our own statesmanship be plastered over by sweet-smelling balms from the British Isles? We think not. American brains will work out the financial proposition for America without the aid of our English cousins or any other foreign government.

The center of population is fast wending its way towards the golden west. Already Chicago, the queen city of the west, has been passed. The cow boys have scurried away from the broad plains before the Advancing Army of Homeseekers. The Northwest & Pacific Slopes are gathering large populations and there is room for many thousands more to settle and make homes within her sheltered valleys and rolling hills. Education will control and civilize the earth.

The growing Northwest has taken issue with our Eastern neighbors and in all probabilities, the next President will hail from the West.

The Sunny South is drawing Northern Blood and Capital. Party lines are being broken. Soon there will be no party, or money power strong enough to dictate to the powers that be—"the people."

The people will in time work out the money proposition. Subsidized papers controlled by corporations, cannot always mould or shape public opinion.

The thousands of Public Schools all over our Country are beginning to bear fruit. The masses of our people are educated and there is no danger of millions of educated people ever making a mistake that they are not able and willing to correct. The impulses of the people are always right. Calamity Howlers may howl themselves hoarse and even talk Civil War, but so long as our school houses are kept open and the flag floats over them we need not fear.

But there is an Army of Foreign papers that is invading our fair land and we must close our doors against such classes of immigration. Our own bone and sinew can take care of the work in America without the aid of this class, or the long tailed Mongolian.

Appropriations for our Rivers and Harbors and Wagon Roads is but money loaned to the People and will always return with a high rate of interest.

Walter Lyon writes in a Portland paper: Governor Lord made an inspection of the penitentiary and mental school. The management of the penitentiary he found first-class. The prisoners are now all employed. The foundry works 125; 90 are employed at the mine and reform schools, and the others are used as domestics or work in the gardens or on the farm. The governor reported unfavorably on the building for deaf mutes. He said: It should not have been received; it is an outrage that the legislature passed a relief bill of $1300 for that building. The repairs necessary to fit it for occupancy will cost fully $2000; all of the floors had to be put in anew, the last one being now put down. The school will open October 1.

An Interesting Insurance Question. William Bailey, who had been buying horses and shipping them south, and who accidentally shot himself through the right foot two weeks ago, has died of his injuries. Bailey came here from Fort Scott. Shortly after the first of the year he took out two accident insurance policies, one in the Fidelity and Casualty company for $5,000 and the other in the Standard company for a like amount. The latter company claims exemption under a clause which releases it if the insured is injured while in the act of violating a state law. Local representatives of the company claim that as Bailey was shot by the accidental discharge of a revolver in his pocket he was carrying a concealed weapon, and thereby violating the state law.—Atholion (Kan.) A brood mare that is a fast walker is a treasure on a farm. Not only will she transmit her quality to her colts, but she will train them by her example. Few of the new accessions to the trotting ranks take the precaution to learn even the surface before beginning to buy. They buy first and learn afterward. It is the breeder who was unfortunate enough not to have any winners in his stable this year who thinks the business has gone to the demitition bowwows. It costs money to develop speed, and a man without money may own a colt which has inherent qualities to make a trotter, but in his hands the colt is destined to a life of obscurity.—Turf, Field and Farm.
