COURT HOUSE NEWS.

R. R. Ryan institutes a New Suit Against the S. P. Company.
County Clerk Eblen issued marriage licenses Thursday afternoon as follows: Jas. A. McDonald and Matilda Rhodes; J. J. Thomas and Katie Rosenbinger.
R. R. Ryan has instituted a new suit against the Southern Pacific Company for $11,000 as damages sustained by him in being struck and injured by a locomotive at the passenger depot on January 29, 1894; for the sum of $250 expended for medical services; $25 for medicine; and $125 for nurse hire. This is the second action of this character begun by Mr. Ryan, the first having been nonsuited on two points.
Peter Thobart and Lena Grimm was the happy couple to whom County Clerk L. V. Eblen today issued a marriage license.
Bounty warrants were today drawn upon the county treasury as follows: J. F. Short, $1.25; W. H. Nash, 70c; J. B. Russell, 88c. The latter gentlemen succeeded in killing nearly 400 squirrels. It appears as though Mr. Russell followed squirrel hunting as an occupation.
Thomas, Watt & Co. have commenced suit in the Marion county circuit court against Emma I. Wagon and Emma C. Poole whereby they seek to secure judgment against defendants for $576.91 with interest on $276.91 thereof at the rate of 7 per cent annum from March 1, 1895, and interest on $300 at the same rate from July 1, 1892; and for another sum of $16.73 with interest at 8 per cent from October 3, 1895. Plaintiffs also ask for a foreclosure of a mortgage on certain property near Salem.

Too Slow for the Horse.

Van B. DeLashmott, owner of the Witch Hazel farm and horses, tells us a good story on one of Salem's popular ministers, and as the reverend gentleman has recently been returned to his flock for another year, it will do no harm to tell it to our readers. This minister, Van said, has recently purchased a horse from the Witch Hazel farm, a beautiful animal full of life and energy. A horse of high blood as Van DeLashmott's horses all are, Van takes an interest in all of the horses which come from his farm and asked the minister to keep him posted as to how the horse was behaving. The first two or three letters he received, the horse was behaving all right. But with the next, the minister said: "Alas! He had bad news to relate. He had driven his horse to a funeral and when starting in the procession his horse had ran away and kicked the dashboard to pieces. Mr. DeLashmott wrote down next day and said: "Mr. —, I have guaranteed your horse to have speed, blood and energy, all of which you say he has. But, Mr. —, I cannot and never have guaranteed any of my horses for funeral processions."

Damon and Pythias.

The Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias of the state of Oregon will convene in this city on the 8th of October and will hold a four days' session. The local Knights are doing all in their power to make this the most notable Pythian meeting ever held in Oregon. Reduced rates have been secured from the different transportation lines, and the city will no doubt be crowded with gallant Knights and their fair ladies. The local lodge asks the earnest co-operation of the citizens of Salem, to this end remember the performance of "Damon and Pythias" to be given by them on the evenings of October 9th and 10th. Reserved seats on sale at Patton Bros.

A HANDSOME RESIDENCE.—The handsome and spacious residence of State Treasurer Phil Metschan at the corner of State and 12th streets, is being introduced to a new coat of paint which will add materially to the already neat and charming appearance.

WOODMEN DAY.—Proved a grand success at the fair grounds yesterday—but every day is grocer's day with us. The people of Salem are finding out that our bargains can't be beat. Remember we are headquarters for Blayton flour.—Branson & Co.

"JUST AS GOOD."—Is a much-used phrase by a great many grocers but when they tell you they have a brand of soap "just as good" as ours, do not believe them but insist on having none but that of the Salem Chemical works.

TODAY'S RACES.—Will be from the homes of Salem people to 94 Court street, for Doty was overheard ordering by telephone salmon, halibut, black cod, smelt, clams, lobsters, Eastern oysters, coast oysters, and he has poultry on hand all the time.

TO THE MINISTERS.—The Ministerial Association of this city will resume its regular weekly meetings, beginning at 10:30 a. m. next Monday. The place of meeting is at the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. rooms.

REMEMBER.—That Sonnemann has reduced the famous Wisconsin Swiss cheese to 20 cents a pound.

RIVER NEWS.

Gypsy Falls to Beach Albany and Returns to Salem.

The Gypsy, the O. R. and N. company's new steamer for the upper Willamette failed to reach Albany yesterday and returned to Salem late last evening. This little boat succeeded in crossing the bar at the mouth of the Santiam successfully but was unable to across a larger one, known as the "Black Dog Bar" situated at a point in the river about four miles above the mouth of the Santiam. She returned to Salem, took on a load of flour and feed from the Salem flouring mills and left for Portland early this morning.
The Eugene arrived in Salem at 9 o'clock this morning with a large load of O. R. & N. freight from Portland. Immediately after unloading same she took on a load of miscellaneous freight at the dock and returned to Portland.
The Grey Eagle arrived up from Mission Landing at 7 o'clock last evening with a heavy load of freight. She returned this morning leaving Salem at 7 o'clock with a big load of freight and usual large list of passengers.

Edwards Davis.

This talented young preacher is a genius and has powers within him which if properly developed will make him one of the greatest forces of the age. He has a wonderful intellect. He is not a materialist, but should steer clear of the vague mists of platonic idealism. He is still surcharged with the effervescence of youth but that will wear off. He is a Napoleon of organization, a tireless worker, is brilliantly eloquent in spite of some acquired afflictions of pulpit and stagecrafting that will wear off. With polish and culture he will equal if not surpass Theodore Tilton. He has the American knack of emphasizing money-making. We believe him capable of growth in right directions, in a solid way. He is a type of the Pacific Coast American race, that will before another half-century be the most magnificent human types ever produced—the first real American race on the face of the earth, the present generation of young men and women between the Rockies and the Pacific.

Car Collision.

The 10-year-old son of John Farrar, who drives a meat cart for Cross's market, had his vehicle collided with this morning by a motor line car on Commercial street. In spite of a bad bruise on his head and leg by being thrown from the cart, the plucky little fellow is on his cart again this afternoon driving as usual. That boy is clear grit.

Pawned a Wagon.

Farmer Hewitt, of McCoy, has been camping at the fair grounds with two men who worked for him. This morning his team was gone. He found the horses at Shoup's livery barn, and the wagon at Cook's second hand store. The men have disappeared.

The Brown Oase.

In Justice Johnson's court was again continued until Tuesday next at 1 p. m. Council for defendant Geo. R. Blingham, said his client was absent from the city. Deputy District Attorney A. O. Condit was also glad to continue the case as an important witness for the state was absent.

Died.

ROSSITER.—At the family residence in North Salem, at 11 o'clock p. m. Thursday, October 3, 1895, Alva, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rossiter.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence corner of Broadway and Oak streets, North Salem, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. P. Farmer. The remains will be interred in Rural cemetery.

Married.

MCDONALD-RHODES.—At the residence of L. M. Bauningham, on Chemeketa and 18th streets, at 5:30 p. m. Thursday, October 3, 1895, Matilda Rhodes to James A. McDonald, Rev. J. M. Shulze, of the Leslie M. E. church officiating.

OREGON STATE FAIR.

Seven-eighths mile dash—Selling race—Minnie, the favorite, and Paddy Ryan were left at the post. Charley Bynum's bay mare, Ginger, won the race, with Daylight second, Sleeping Child third.

Summary as follows:—
Synum's b m Ginger 99 lbs (Douglas) 1
Whitemore's ch c Daylight 92 lbs (Weatherford) 2
Randall's arg b Sleeping Child 105 lbs (Williams) 3
Time 1:20 3/4.
The winner was bid in by her owner for $500.

HIKE RACES.

Boys' 1 mile race—Clever, first; Neal, second. Time, 1:38 1/2.
Oregon championship, 1 mile—Wright, first; Shipp, second; Riggs, third. Time, 1:25.

Mile open, class A, 2:40 class—Entries were Shipp, Davis, Grilley, Woods, Lennon, Disque and Townsend. Shipp took the lead, getting a bad start through talking too much. He led to the quarter with Townsend a good second. Townsend led up the back stretch, Bunched at 3/4 and came together at the 1/2. Disque and Townsend dropped out at the 1/4. Davis and Shipp fought hard for place but Shipp won it easily, Grilley second, Woods of Albany third and Davis fourth. Time, 2:43 1/2.

Exhibition mile, flying start, class B, by Eli Winesett, paced by Rucker, of San Francisco, to the first quarter, Sears of Albany, the second quarter, "Eli" Lee, of Portland, the third quarter, H. L. Hewitt of Portland, the last quarter. At 11:45 it was announced from the judge's stand that Eli Winesett would ride an exhibition mile. A few minutes later Mr. Winesett appeared on the track with his pacer and was received with loud cheers by the crowd. They came under the wire on the jump in 2:15 1/2.

Dr. Geo. S. Wright, class A, next went an exhibition mile. He made the mile in 2:18. "Doc's" time would certainly have been much faster had his pacer been old campaigner. As it was Messrs. Shipp, Riggs, Swe 1 and Woods, while setting a good speedy pace, were not skilled in making quick "pick-ups" and at least three seconds were lost on that account. "Doc" is a very speedy man and has shown up wonderfully well this year.

Homer B. Hewitt went an exhibition quarter mile in 2:9 flat, paced by Alfred Sears of Albany.

Consolation race.—Entries, Disque and Baker. Disque won in 3:29.
The officers' race was the last bicycle race of this "meet." The entries were Jas. R. Davis, Dr. Contris, Armie Steiner, Claud Taylor, Harry Olinger and Walter Denton. This was a good race which was enjoyed by the competitors as well as the grandstand. Jim Woodruff was entered but was not allowed to ride on account of a previous record of 2:38. Armie Steiner won, Walt Denton second and Harry Olinger third.

PARSON'S ORCHESTRA

will give their farewell concert at the pavilion this Friday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock, all published statements to the contrary notwithstanding. The announcement that they would play for a ball in the city was premature.

STATE FAIR NOTES.

Marcus Daly's horses leave for Frisco tonight.

Premiums were paid all day today at the secretary's office.

Wild West shows lack money. Their crowds have been very slim here.

Linn county ran a special train from Albany yesterday. Lots of people came down.

The baby show was held yesterday. Some very sweet little darlings competed for premiums and the judges had a delicate task in making the awards. Handsomest baby under one year, Esie Maguire first, Vivian Crump second. Ford Tarpley took first and Eugene Downing second as boys over three years. Iva Veach first as girl of three years. Lola Cook second.
