BANK OF ENGLAND NOTES.

The Bun in an article on the Bank o England, condensed from an English magazine, says of the notes of that institution: "The notes it is well known. are a legal tender everywhere in the United Kingdom, except at the bank itself, where, on presentation, they must be paid in gold. The notes of the Bank of England are reputed the safest pleces of paper in the world." They are no safer than the American green. back, but as they are legal tenuer, like the greenback, there is little practical difference. A note that everybody in the country is obliged to redeem is apt to be pretty safe, so long as the issue of It is limited The fools in this country who are howling for the retirement of legal tender paper and a single gold standard profess to take England as an example; but in that country silver is legal tender up to $25 and Bank of England notes are a legal tender to any amount .- Rochester (N. Nervousness

Cannot be permanently cured by the use of oplates and sedative compounds. It is too deeply seated. It is caused by an impoverished condition of the blood, upon which the nerves depend for sustenance. This is the true and only natural explanation for nervousness. Purify, en rich and vitalize the blood with

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Saraaparilla will give vitality to the blood and will send it coursing through the veins and arteries charged with the lifegiving, strength building qualities which make strong nerves.
