THE JURY'S VERDICT.

Japanese Woman Is Buried This Morning.

INQUEST COMPLETED. Following is the concluding portion of the coroner's inquest: Walter Green, the spokesman, was recalled to the witness stand. "Come down town with Will Shinner, went to Gilbert and Patterson's, left there at 7:30 o'clock, went to opera house, remained there 10 minutes; went to free show corner High and State streets. Saw or heard no commotion on Liberty street. Some Stanton boys told me that two Chinamen had murdered Japanese woman. Went to the house of the Japanese woman, arriving there about 8:30 o'clock, went back to the snow remained until show was out. Came up town, met Seth Wade, went home, went to bed. Late that night Chief Dilley and Recorder Eds came to my house, woke me up, asked me where I was that night at 7:30 o'clock. Told them I was at an entertainment at the opera house." After another close examination Green was excused for the time being, to be called to witness stand again later in the afternoon.

Hoon Kum, proprietor of Chinese drug store on Liberty street, was called to the witness stand. "Was at On Lee's store that evening, did not see any strange Chinamen in town that evening. Been in Gurvay several days, know great many Chinamen living in country around Salem, do not know any Chinamen living near Chemawa. Heard of woman being killed that evening, went around to house of Japanese woman, saw her laying on the floor, Lee Bak Fook was holding her up. Held lamp while they removed woman to sitting room, do not know who killed the woman, do not know the man who ran away; woman was acquainted with Lo Sam, Gee, (Steiner's Chinaman) and a number of others." When pressed to tell who did it he said, "I will be honest and tell nothing but the truth, I will not tell a lie."

Geo. Sun, the state street merchant, was next called: "I know Maggie Tuoyo, acquainted with her three weeks ago when she came to me to rent some property. Do not know who killed her. Saw no strange Chinamen in town that night, I know Sam Hee. He like Maggie Tuoyo. Hum Goy good friend to Maggie Tuoyo. Never heard him say who he thinks killed the woman. Nobody knows who killed her. Do not know who did it. Nobody in town. Maybe some stranger. Saw none in town that night." When asked by Jurymen C. A. Gray as to where he was born the Chinaman answered after some hesitation: "I was born in China, just as sun was coming up. No clock in China at that time you know." When asked if he knew who committed the deed he continued: "If I knew who killed that woman I would tell you. Was home between 7 and 8 o'clock Friday night." Willie Stanton, a lad residing at the corner of Mill and Sixteenth streets, was next called: "Saw Jack Green at show at 8 o'clock Friday evening. He was drunk when I saw him. Not dead drunk but had been drinking. Jack did not tell me anything about the Japanese woman being killed. I knew about woman being killed at 7:40 o'clock but did not tell Jack anything about it. After the show I overtook him and walked up home with him. Passed through China store into the Japanese woman's rooms and found her sitting up. Did not see Jack there at all. Saw Jack at the show about 8 o'clock, but did not see him again until after the show. Heard no talk as to who did the killing except what the police learned from the murdered woman before she died. Saw two Chinamen run out from the Japanese woman's rooms and jump onto a passing street car. About five minutes later heard that Japanese woman had been killed. The men jumped one of the cars going to the fair grounds. Did not go with Jack to Maggie Tuoyo's house and told him no thing about the murder of the woman."

George Sun, the State street merchant, here described the two men that young Stanton saw jump the street car for the fair grounds to be hard working Chinamen and that they left the building just before the murder was committed. At 4 o'clock Monday afternoon all the testimony had been received in the inquest over the remains of the unfortunate Japanese woman, and the case was turned over to the jury who soon brought in a verdict as follows: "That the deceased was Tayo Watsube, a female native of Japan, aged 26 years and that she came to her death on the evening of the 4th of October by her throat being cut, also her face and hand with some sharp knife or dagger by some person or persons unknown to the jury and that the direct cause of death was occasioned by the wound in the neck." James Batheoler, foreman; F. F. Post, Wm. Sargeant, M. E. Goodell, C. A. Gray, G. G. Gads.

FUNERAL SERVICES. A number of the friends and admirers of the dead woman raised enough for Pitcher's Castoria.

money among themselves to purchase a coffin and to secure the services of a hearse. Those who contributed toward the funeral expenses were part Chinamen and the remainder Japs. This morning the body of the Jap woman was placed in a nicely finished coffin upon which was a silver plate bearing the inscription "At Rest." Funeral services were held from Coroner A. M. Clough's undertaking parlors at 10:30 this morning and the remains were interred in Old Fellows cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by the Chinese and Japanese of this city. The woman was buried without any religious services whatever.

Original. John Hookham Frero was a scholar and a man of much literary ability, but one of those whose work, for some reason, finds a very slight hearing. But even if his literary work should be quite forgotten the stories of his absence of mind will live as long as inconspicuous error continues to amuse. One day he sat repeating some verses to Mr. John Murray in Mr. Murray's office, and his host became so interested in the poem that he asked the poet to go home with him to dinner and continue the recitation. Mr. Frero started to find it so late, excused himself. He had been married that morning, he said, and it was already past the hour when he had promised his wife to be ready for their journey into the country.

Another such story rests on the authority of his wife herself. Mr. Frero had just been introduced to her at an evening party and offered to take her down stairs to procure some refreshment. He became so interested in their conversation, however, that he drank the glass of negus he had poured for her and was about to conduct her up stairs when she laughingly remonstrated with him for having forgotten her needs. "This," she said, "convinced me that my new acquaintance was, at any rate, very different from most of the young men around us!"—Youth's Companion.

Unique Advertising. A tale is told of Robert Bonner and of his belief in advertising. One day he engaged a whole page of a newspaper and repeated a two line advertisement upon it over and over again. It must have been repeated 5,000 times upon the page in the smallest type. "Why do you waste your money, Robert?" asked a friend. "I noticed that same line so often. Would not half a page have answered your purpose?" "Half a page would never have caused you to ask the question," replied Mr. Bonner. "At least five people will ask that to every line, was the way I figured it."—New York News.

Capoul, the French tenor, was the recipient of volumes of letters from lady admirers both here and in Paris. On the English stage, besides Mr. Irving, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Hare and Mr. Bancroft have been overwhelmed with a goodly number. But I am told by one who knows that no actor living ever received such a number of admiring epistles from the fairer sex as the late John Clayton.

Among actresses Mrs. Bancroft has perhaps been treated to the kindest attentions. Mrs. John Wood, too, on the first or last night of her play had always her dressing room converted into a perfect bower of flowers, and little gifts of jewelry literally poured in upon her. There was one bangle with the inscription "Bless your art." Whether it was Mrs. Wood's heart or art that was blessed remains a riddle to this day.—London

For Much. He was going down the street with a tottering gait and a wild eye. A chiropodist's advertisement caught his glance. "Yes," he muttered wearily, "that's just it. That's the difference between us." "What is?" asked the policeman. "We feel the heat." "Yes." "While they heal!" He gasped and sank to the pavement, and the policeman went and rang for the ambulance.—Washington Star.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting. The Triumph of Conservative Surgery is well illustrated by the fact that: RUPTURE or Breach is now rapidly cured without pain. Clumsy clanging trusses can be thrown away. They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death. TUMORS and many others, are now removed without the perils of cutting operations. PILE TUMORS, however large, other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife. STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting. STRUCTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. MOTHERS and those soon to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures childbearing of its tortures, terrors and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children. MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called soothing syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine? Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons? Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons? Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and he assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless? Do You Know that 35 Average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose? Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest? Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. The fac-simile signature of Dr. S. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.
