WOLF-STEELHAMER.—At the First M. E. parsonage, Friday, October 11, 1895, Hilma C. Steelhamer, to W. D. Wolf, Rev. G. W. Grannis officiating.

FIVE MEALS EACH DAY.—Some people devour five meals each day but that makes no difference to us. We don't care if you eat twenty meals each day. What we want to tell you about is this: You can get the best 15 cent meal to be had in the city at the New York Kitchen, on State street at any time night or day.

DURRANT'S TESTIMONY.—Is more damaging to himself than that of any other witness but the testimony of our many patrons is certainly a credit to us. Ask them and they will tell you that Brauns & Co. give more goods for the money than any other firm in town.

A POLICEMAN.—Makes a big mistake when he arrests the wrong man but the man who enters our store sees that he makes no mistake whatever but that he has come in contact with prices in groceries that cannot be beat.—McCall Bros.

IT'S INDEED A PLEASURE.—To drop in our dining parlors and have a dinner prepared to order for only 15 cents; and to think that we serve chicken every Sunday at the same price—why no one should go hungry. Bring your family with you tomorrow.—Kenworthy & Barnett.

THE WEEK SOCIALLY.

Knights of Pythias Swallowed Up Everything.

A FEW EVENTS ARE NOTED.

Several Swell Affairs are Upon the Tapis.

The most perfect October in history. A few bloomers appeared the past week.

A very "tany" wedding is in preparation.

The Heritage-Winkler concert is Tuesday evening.

The four-state Y. M. C. A. rally at Salem begins October 17.

There is a church building project incubating that's a stunner.

Salem is the convention city of Oregon. Half a dozen this month.

Mrs. Marian B. Baxter, of Chicago, lectures Sunday evening at the First M. E. church on "Society as it is." It is expected she will tell the truth about it and that it will be quite interesting.

MISSION SOCIAL.

The paper on Japan and China, read at the Episcopal Rectory yesterday by Mrs. L. L. Patterson was very instructive, and attentively listened to by a good representation of the Auxiliary.

It was decided to give $5 for the purchase of a stained glass in St. Luke's church, Grant's Pass. Mrs. Miller, of Cottage street, has given a load of stove wood for the benefit of the Guild room.

"THE BURGLAR."

"The Burglar" as played at Moore's opera house last night is the strongest and best dramatic presentation ever seen here. The work of this superior company was of a very high order. We do not always see the equal of these players, and they have a play that differs from the stereotyped ones, and is interesting and strong, with a very amusing comedy element which is capital given. The work of Mr. Eugene Moore and Mrs. Anna Boyle Moore in their very difficult roles was

Maple Syrup, Again!

We have received another barrel of genuine Maple Syrup. Bring your can and get it filled for $1 per gallon. Cream honey drips cannot be beat in quality or price. A 76c syrup for 50c. HARRITT & LAWRENCE of a peculiar high standard, but the entire company did very clever execution. Little Gertie Carlisle as "Edith" was one of the best and most pleasing child actresses we have ever seen on any stage. Her interpretation of her lines was remarkable, and she delighted every one. It is refreshing to the lover of good drama to see such a company of players as these.—Brighton, N. J. Daily News.—At the Reed opera house Thursday the 15th.
 P. O. GROCERY

DAMON AND PYTHIAS.

This play was presented at Reed's theatre twice and met the expectations of all the Pythians and their ladies. Prof. and Mrs. Rasmus showed splendid ability as actors and directors, drilling the large cast so thoroughly that when they appeared on the stage, the play went off with all the perfection of professional playing.

The acting of Miss Josie Brown was as good as ever seen on the Salem stage, whether professional or amateur. Basil Wagner mastered the difficult role of Pythias in a way that proved him to be an actor of more than ordinary ability. Chas. Burgraf surprised his many friends in the part of Dionysius the fierce soldier and tyrant king. The Salem audiences have known Charles to be a fine comedian and hardly expected to see such heavy work done by him, in a role like the one he filled. He played it like a veteran and with a finish from the beginning to the end. Messrs. Steiner and Alexander are artists, and showed it in their various parts. Dr. Conriss, Mr. Hansen and Geo. Hoeye and others are worthy of special mention. The senators acted their parts a great deal better than the average statesman sent to the legislature. They got up and bowed, knelt down, and kept silence at the slightest back of the tyrant in a masterly manner.

People Give Us Credit for Revolutionizing the Clothing Business.

They Will Tell You Our Clothing is Good, Our Prices Very Low.

The tide of trade again this season has turned our way. We were sure it would. When neighbor talks to neighbor, friend to friend, tell the story about our clothing and prices there can only be one result. An overflow of business—the endorsement of hundreds of buyers led us to make large preparations.

The fine suits now selling for $20 are the $18 to $30 quality. The fine suits now selling for $16.50 are the former $25 quality. The fine suits now selling for $15 are the former $20 quality. The fine suits now selling for $10 are the former $15 quality. The fine suits now selling for $8.50 are the former $12 quality. The fine suits now selling for $6 are the $8.50 and $10 quality.

Without a question our stock this year exceeds anything we ever offered, both in quality and reasonable price. Everybody ought to have fall overcoats—when they are going at $6, $8 and $10.

G. W. JOHNSON & SON,

Our make of boys' clothes growing in popularity every day. It's right, has superior trimming and the fit of the lowest priced suit same as the highest cost. It will be a revelation to see the kinds from $1.50 to $8.
