FREE RECITAL TONIGHT.

Lovers of Good Music Should not Fail to Attend.

The opening musical recital of the college of music of Willamette University will be given at 8 o'clock this Monday evening at the chapel by Prof. R. A. Heritage, the vocal director, and Emil L. Winkler, the instrumental director. The program is as follows: Mendelssohn:—

- Concerto in G minor. (2d piano by Miss Genevieve Hughes.)
- Handel— Thus Saith the Lord, But Who May Abide, For He is Like a Refiner's Fire. From the "Messiah."
- Chopin—Valse, in A flat, Nocturne, in F sharp, major.
- Wagner—Prize song from "Meister-singer."
- Schubert—The Erl King.
- Russell—Ship on Fire.
- Winkler—Theme and characteristic variations.

(Graduation piece for which a free scholarship was awarded at the Royal Liepzig Conservatory, Germany.) Verdi—From "Ernani"

The college of music is now nicely organized, with a splendid class of pupils—forty-six already registered—and fully prepared to receive all who wish the advantage of conservatory work. Mr. Heritage completed his study in 1893 and Mr. Winkler in 1895, hence the work will be modern and in strict accordance with the best teachers in the world.

One Mollie Cole whose parents live at Hood River, Ore., is lying delirious at a San Francisco hospital. Miss Cole told part of her story in her physician and her nurse in the intervals between her raging delirium says the Chronicle. She revealed the fact that the father of her child was a prominent Knight Templar, the captain of a steamer, and a married man. He has been taking care of her since she left Portland on the 16th of July.

Albany Democrat, Oct. 19: A social event of much interest was an afternoon tea given by Mrs. E. W. Langdon yesterday to fifty or sixty lady friends. All the appointments were neatly and smoothly carried out, conferring credit on those who entertained. Mrs. Langdon was assisted in receiving by Mrs. John Althouse, Mrs. Dr. Maston, Mrs. N. J. Henton and Mrs. J. K. Weatherford, while Mrs. E. D. Cusick, and Misses Bertha Ellis, Flora Mason and Edna Allen attended to the service of a delicious tea.

Dayton Herald: The Willamette river at Oregon City, is low as it ever has been known to be. The amount of water running over the falls is so brink of the rock without getting their feet wet. There are cravines in the rock, through which a quantity of water is running, which have to be leaped over. If the river continues falling the pool at the foot of the main fall, where, in former years, several steamboats have gone to destruction, having on board iron safes, filled with valuables, may be searched for the treasure. Forty rods below soundings have been taken and the river found to be 128 feet deep.

Lower Prices, Larger Business, Better Clothes

We touch the hundreds who need good, substantial clothing. All wool at $7.50 or $8. It may be suit, it may be overcoat.

IF YOU'RE A MORE PARTICULAR MAN Pay $10.00 and Do Still Better.

IF YOU'RE A MORE PARTICULAR MAN Pay $12.00 and Do Still Better.

IF YOU'RE A MORE PARTICULAR MAN Pay $15.00 and Do Still Better.

IF YOU'RE A MORE PARTICULAR MAN Pay $20.00 and Do Still Better.

We rest our right to leadership in the clothing business to our great values and low prices to the people, uncaring single-minded attention to the special methods and needs of this one particular mercantile branch has developed for us large and satisfactory results.

G. W. JOHNSON & SON.

Mothers coming again this season fitting out the boys, better pleased customers. The pretty boys' suits have done the business. Then the prices—more than reasonable. How in the world so good clothes can be sold for the money astounds the people; $2, and it's a beauty; yes, $3, $4 and $5. The same correct, stylish fit, no matter the price.
