SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lane were at Turner yesterday, the guest of friends.

Mrs. H. H. Thompson entertained the "Over-the-Ten-Cups" club this afternoon at her home on Center street near Commercial.

Mrs. Julius Wagner, who has been an invalid for some time past was last night taken seriously ill and her recovery was not expected. Today, however, she is much better.

UNIVERSITY EXTENSION. President Chapman, of the State University, lectures in Unity church on Tuesday night, October 29, on Shakespeare's play "As You Like It."

ELECTION OF OFFICERS. Officers for the ensuing year were elected by the Men's League of the First Presbyterian church at its meeting Friday night, viz: Dr. F. L. Taylor, president; P. H. Raymond, vice president; John Moir, secretary and treasurer.

YOU SHOULD ATTEND. The program for the entertainment to be given tonight by the G. A. R. and W. R. U. at their hall is a good one, and the two numbers by Prof. R. A. Heritage will alone more than recompense you for the small admission fee of 25 cents. Friends of the above orders should contribute to the financial success of the entertainment.

POSTPONED. The reception which was to have been tendered the Misses McManis, Phelps and May by the ladies' auxiliary of the Y. M. C. on Wednesday afternoon, is postponed, as the Artists Trio have engaged to give an entertainment at Astoria Tuesday night, and cannot arrive in Salem earlier than 6:15 o'clock Wednesday. This is to be regretted, as it would give the ladies of Salem genuine pleasure to meet such charming and accomplished women as these three certainly are.

THE ARTISTE TRIO. At the opera house next Wednesday evening is to occur one of the most pleasing entertainments ever heard in Salem. The Artists Trio of Chicago, comprising Miss Lena McManis, the nightingale whistler, Miss Julia Phelps, the celebrated harpist, and Cornelia May, reader and pantomimist, will be the entertainers. These young ladies have won a great reputation in the east for their artistic work and the Y. M. C. A. were fortunate in securing them to open its popular entertainment course. Without a doubt the opera house will be crowded the evening these young ladies are here. Admission will be 50 cents. Tickets on sale at Patton Bros., and at the box office.

SERIO-COMIC. The Keller Bros., of Salem, are continuing to gain fame as popular song writers. The best evidence of this is in the fact that the greatest music houses are publishing them and eagerly seeking the privilege. The latest from these composers of both words and music is a serio-comic ballad "Helen's Promise," published by White, Smith & Co. By permission we give our readers the chorus:

Helen, Helen, promise me today, Do not tarry, answer right away; You are the girl that I admire, And you know what I require, Only promise and I'll name the wedding day.

HURRAH FOR WILLAMETTE!

She Defeats Monmouth With the Score of 4 to 6.

'Rah, 'Rah, 'Rah, Z. P. Boom, Bah, Willamette, Willamette, Ha, Ha, Ha!

Such was the yell that almost deafened the large crowd of onlookers at the close of the foot ball game at Monmouth, Saturday.

The Monmouth team was worsted by old Willamette, the score being 4 to 6, and to say that the Salem team is highly elated over their first successful contest would be expressing it very mildly. The many horns that accompanied the party of Salemites to Monmouth did their part in bringing the game to a successful and satisfactory finish by encouraging the boys with deafening blasts every time a point was scored in their favor. The outcome of this game will have the effect of making the Willamette boys more determined than ever, and it is to be hoped they will meet with a like success when they meet the State University team, from Eugene, at Salem next Saturday.

The team that represented Old Willamette in Saturday's game consisted of: Murphy—Quarterback and captain; McCormack—Left half back; Mark Savage—Right half back; Wm. Evans—Full back; Jo Evans—Left end; Bert Savage—Right end; Bert Savage—Left tackle; William—Right tackle; William—Left guard; William—Right guard; Hawley—Center; Hobbs—Metschan, Hibbard, Ashen brener.

The first half of the game was stubbornly fought. Murphy, quarterback and captain of the Salem team, did excellent work, and Mark Savage gained ground every time the ball came into his possession. J. M. McCormack, Albert Macy, Bert Savage and Truett did effective work in their respective positions.

The Normal school team was composed of their best metal, who fought the game very stubbornly from start to finish. Fisher especially deserves credit for his excellent playing for the Normal school.

U. OF O. VS. O. A. C. Saturday afternoon a match game of football was played at Eugene by the Oregon Agricultural team of Corvallis and the University of Oregon team, in which the visiting team was badly worsted, the score being 46 to 9 in favor of Eugene.

U. OF O. VS. W. U. As per previous arrangements, the winner of the football game at Eugene last Saturday was to play a practice game with Willamette University team at Salem, Saturday, November 2. Accordingly, it will be determined next Saturday whether Willamette University can outkick the University of Oregon team. The game will be played at the state fair grounds, and promises to be very interesting.

A CARD. EDITOR JOURNAL.—I am very sorry indeed, if any of the good mothers of Salem have taken to heart what I had to say in Saturday's edition of THE JOURNAL concerning the omnipresent parental objection to football.

My own dear mother, than whom there is no better, is much opposed to football as a sport in which her son should engage. Therefore I say it of her no less than I say it of many others, that she is narrow-minded on the subject of football, owing perhaps to a rather scant knowledge of the game. However, I hope all parents will come to see some day that the beneficial results of the game more than counterbalance those that are harmful. Most sincerely, CLINTON R. MORSE.

Seven Wonders of the Word. By request Rev. A. L. Hutchison, of the First Presbyterian church, delivered an address on "Seven Wonders of the Word" at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Sunday afternoon to a large audience of men. The address was full of valuable information and was well received.

The above figures give the population of Salem at 10,261. Of course, this is not the population of Salem school district, or of Salem and all its suburbs. Fully one third the city's population is in the suburbs, outside the corporate limits. It is well known that in five years several entire new additions have been built, like Highland, Rosedale, Morningdale, Riverview and Lincoln Park. A census of all the people, who, if asked, would say they lived at Salem, would show 15,000 to be the city's population, and that it has grown as much in 5 years as any part of the county or state.
