The effects of serious fitness upon the physical system are often most disastrous. The disease frequently leaves impure germs in the blood which develop, sooner or later, in some distressing form. The true way to avoid these troubles is to see that the blood is made pure, rich and free from disease germs, when the patient is recovering, by using Hood's Sarsaparilla. "In December, 1859, I was stricken down with typhold pneumonia. My case was truly a very critical one. Indeed, 90 days elapsed, when it settled in my right side and breast. Running sores discharged very profusely. Through long suffering I became very much reduced in flesh, while my bands and limbs were very much swellen. It was a hard were very much swollen.
