WOOLEN MILL SUBSIDY.

It Now Has Passed the $24,000 Mark.

WILL PROBABLY BE RAISED

But There Is Still Some of the Amount Lacking.

The woolen mill subscription passed the $24,000 mark this morning, when the committee revised the list and the members of the committee have dropped all else and tried to secure the balance. It is more than likely that some of the amounts below will be lost, as it is well to remember there are always some who fail to meet such obligations. The revised list, as it stood this morning, is as follows:

Total.....$24,000
The committee have been unable to raise any subscription today. It is a fact that $2000 should be still subscribed to make the capital subscription good for $25,000 in cash. It is to be hoped some volunteers will be found to subscribe the balance.

Cruelty to Animals.

The case of the State vs. Chas. R. McCarty and Thos. Pickens, with H. W. Downing private prosecutor, was on trial before Justice Johnson this afternoon. The defendants were charged with cruelty to animals, and the testimony showed that they had on Sunday, November 24th, driven a team belonging to the Club stables, of this city, unreasonably and had greatly injured the same, treating them in a most cruel manner. Many witnesses were heard. McCarty was fined $40 and costs in default of which he was committed to the county jail. The case against Thos. Pickens on the same charge was dismissed.

VALLEY LOCAL NEWS.

Marion.
James L. Farnham died at his home in Marion, Oregon, December 8th, 1895. He was 72 years old and was born at Genesee, New York, January 28, 1823, moved to the state of Michigan in early life, where he resided until April 7, 1885, when he removed with his family to Oregon, where he has since resided. He embraced religion in the year 1858, in the Congregational church. He enlisted in company I, 4th regiment September 4, 1864, at Flat Rock, Michigan. He has been for many years a pensioner and a member of the G. A. R. 8-dgwick post, Salem. Was married to Mary Avery, Nov. 14, 1846, and died November 17, 1847, married again to Percy A. Hudson February 7, 1850, who died September 24, 1853, the fruit of this union was four children, two of whom survive Mrs. Young of Washington, and Edgar Farnham, of Marion. Was married again to Mary S. Whipple April 3rd, 1859, who still survives to mourn his loss. The result of this last union was five children, four of whom are also left to mourn the loss of a loving father. During the last six months of his life, he has been a great sufferer, but oh, so patient; if he chance to speak an impatient word; it was immediately followed by a pleasant word and smile. He leaves a sister in San Francisco in her sixtieth year, the last of a large family of children. During the few years that he resided in Marion he has lived a very quiet, peaceable life and thereby made many warm friends who have been dipped to deep sympathy with the bereaved family.

Funeral services conducted by the Rev. B. F. Hinshaw at 10 a. m. Tuesday, at the residence, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Friend's burying grounds on the hill west of town, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, quite a concourse of people followed the remains to their resting place.

Annsville.
Geo. Brown and family went to Silverton to visit friends Saturday.

Dr. Thomas, who has been living in Annsville since last August, has decided to return to his old home in Kansas.

Robert L. Green of Stayton, delivered a stirring lecture on patriotism at the Christian church, Friday evening. It was well received by all, and their appreciation was shown by hearty applause and raising a large collection.

Mr. Butler, who has been living on Mr. Gilbert's berry farm east of town, has purchased a farm near Lebanon, and moved up there.

The A. O. U. W. Social held Saturday at their hall was a grand affair. The day was fine and early in the day the crowd began to gather. Among them we noticed a number from Stayton, Macleay, Salem and a number of other towns, and by noon their hall was filled to its utmost capacity. A bountiful dinner was served by the ladies, after which a fine program was rendered and a good address by Mr. Frank Davey, and a short talk for the good of the order by Geo. Downing and others. All went home feeling that it was good to meet their brothers and their families as often as once a year.

Mr. Chapin's Reading.
To portray the varied thoughts, feelings and peculiarities of eleven different characters, chosen from "The Merchant of Venice," is a difficult task, but Mr. Benjamin C. Chapin demonstrated his ability in this severe role at the First Baptist church in a manner most pleasing to his large and appreciative audience. Having gained instant goodwill by his self-possession and evident versatility in his changes from one character to another, but his Shylock was the star feature of the evening. The trial scene, used as the conclusion, was followed with thrilling interest, bringing the audience to the highest enthusiasm at its close. In response to a recall Mr. Chapin gave in conclusion some selections of a humorous nature, in which he appeared to excellent advantage.—Oregonian, Dec. 11th.

Mr. Chapin reads the same program tonight at Reed's opera house in the Y. M. C. A. course.

There are 17775 miles of railroad in the United States.
There are 66,885,880 rails used to cover this ground.
There are 538,265,000 ties used to bind these rails together, but no such amount, however, is required to bind the hearts of the traveling public to the fact that the Wisconsin Central line furnishes superior facilities on all their trains between St. Paul and Chicago which form close connection with all lines to the east and south.
Make a note of it.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
