WILLIS BROS. & CO.,

SEVERE ON WILLIAMS.

Answer of Hugh P. aleNary, Receiver Williams & England Banking Co. In answer to patition of R. Williams in the case of the falled banking company, Hugh P. McNary has filed a document that is a severe arraignment

He recites that there is in the bank name of R. Williams for $23,000, but residences are flooded. denies that the bank ever obtained such a sum of money of R. Williams, or of F. C. Baker, and denies that the today sentenced two years for forgery. bank ever agreed to pay Baker 2 per cent in advance and 6 per cent per Portland on the afternoon trein. annum for 15 months on said loan, and denies that such certificate was ever issued to R. to prevent England from endorsing said certificate, or that he wrongfully refused to deliver said alleged cerney-General Idleman, went to Port- tificate to R. Williams, or that R. Williams owns or possesses any debt against said banking company.

McNary, as receiver, further alleges as separate answer, idefense and counter claim to said petition of R. Williams; 1. That Geo. Williams is president, because he and his brother R. Williams owned controlling stock. 2. That Geo. Williams, as president, unsecured promisory notes to said corporation and wrongfully drew money by such notes, overdrafts and checks the board.

3. Qu June 3, 1893, Geo. Williams borrowed of Frank C. Baker on his personal note, $20,000, due in 12 months at 6 per cent. On the same day he bought a draft of $4000 with some of this money, which he endorsed to R. Williams. He then placed the $16,000 in the bank on a certificate of deposit to himself instead of paying what he owed the bank, said certificate being psyable in 12 months, at 6 per cent. He borrowed $3000 of Baker August 1, 1893, depositing same as as above.

4 and 5. August 14th Baker was unwilling to lend Williams more and demanded security, and Geo. Williams gave his note to him for $23,000 with England and R. Williams as co-makers. Geo. Williams then drew of the bank on his own unsecured note $4,000, kind. cancelled his certificates of deposit of $16,000 and $3,000, and wrongfully executed to R. How Suffrage Is Restricted In Canada. The Canadian restrictions on suffrage are peculiar. In order to be entitled to vote, not only must one be a male British subject 21 years of age and have lived in the Dominion at least a year, but he must also have been the owner of real estate or the occupier of a rented house or business property for the same time. If he owns real estate in a city, it must be worth $300, if in a town $200, and if elsewhere $150. If he neither owns real estate nor occupies real estate as a tenant, he can vote if he earns $300 a year, or if he be the son of a farmer or real estate owner and live at his father's home. An income voter is not required, as all other voters are, to live a year in the district where he wants to vote, but can register at any
