A PLEASANT PARTY.

A large number of the friends of Messrs. Fleming and Taylor Burcham and Frank Matthews, gathered at the home of Mr. F. Burcham on the Garden road Friday evening in honor of the young gentlemen, who are home from Leland Stanford university for a short holiday. The evening was most pleasantly spent by all present, they being: Misses Mattie Beatty, Edith Frisell, Myrtle Marsh, Helen Matthews, Marie Rockwell, Rose Moore, Emilie Henry, Bertha Byrd, Cora Litchfield, Clara Pooler, Nellie Clark, Ethel Raymond, May Burcham, Pauline Burcham, Edith Gwynne, Emma Raymond, Miss Chandler, Miss Welch, Miss Mamie Burns, of Sebastopol, California, and Messrs. Frank Matthews, J. W. Reynolds, I. P. Callison, L. T. Reynolds, W. A. Morris, C. V. Fisher, Fleming Burcham, Taylor Burcham, Samuel Burcham and C. J. Atwood.

ANOTHER PIONEER GONE TO REST.

Mrs. Mary Ann Short was born in Rush county, Indiana, January 17, 1822, died December 25, 1895, aged 73 years, 11 months and 8 days. She made a profession of religion when 11 years of age, and united with the Rushville Baptist church in Rushville, Indiana.
 In 1841 she was united in marriage to Rev. J. W. Short, in the state of Iowa. In 1858 she crossed the plains and settled in Linn county, Oregon, until 1880 when they moved to the Waldo hills where they have since resided.
 She was the mother of thirteen children, five of whom survive her; being Mrs. Emma Jones, of Jefferson;

Wm. Short and Mrs. Susan Smith, of the Waldo hills, and Mrs. Kate Adams and Mrs. Jane Hineshaw, of Kikokit county, Wash. Aside from raising and raising her own family, she has raised ten other little ones, to whom she was all that a mother could be. Aside from these, she had forty-six grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Her own children and nineteen of her grand children have professed the religion taught them.
 She truly proved by her unselfish life that she was a faithful wife, a loving and devoted mother, a kind neighbor, and consistent Christian.
 For several years past her sufferings at times have been great, but were borne with resignation and fortitude, and when the last hour came she fell gently asleep in Jesus. While members of the family stood by weeping, her aged companion, with whom she had journeyed for 53 years, expressed his gratitude to the Great Giver of all good in the following lines:
 "Lord! she was thine and not my own,
 Thou hast not done me wrong,
 I thank Thee for the precious loan,
 Afforded me so long."
 After appropriate funeral services by the Rev. A. J. Hunsaker, of McMinnville, an old and valued friend of the family who used for his text, "For me to Live, is Christ, and to Die is Gain." Her remains were gently laid to rest in the Warren cemetery in the Waldo hills near the family residence.
 Good singing was had at the funeral by the male quartet, composed of C. E. Short, J. F. Short, W. A. Short and H. H. Stutell. A large concourse of friends attended the funeral, and the procession to the cemetery was one of the largest ever known here.

ANOTHER RUNAWAY.—This morning at 9 o'clock while Tommy Wait was in a State street restaurant, his horse, which was standing in front, hitched only by an iron weight, took fright and ran down State to Commercial street, where he turned, continuing on his course until he collided with a tree, at John Gray's corner. The cart was overturned and the harness broken some. The horse has run away three times previously to this, but nevertheless within a few minutes the owner had hitched him to another vehicle and was driving him.

A LOST KINSMAN.—Miss Lizzie A.

Foley, of 138 Third street, Memphis, Tenn., writes to Chief of Police Dilley, under date of December 21st, asking for any information he may possess or can secure, as to the present location of one James Brennan, her uncle, who has not been heard from since the summer of 1854, when Miss Foley's mother, Mrs. Mary Brennan-Foley last saw him. No doubt any information relating to the man would be gladly received.

THRICE COMMITTED.—Frank O'Don-ald was sent to the insane asylum a third time today by County Judge Hubbard. The judge was reluctant to send him, as he is a hypo-fend and returns to his practice as soon as he is out. Dr. Bradshaw and State's Attorney Condit tried to make him tell who supplied him with morphine.

PASSED THROUGH SALEM.—The

Butte football team passed through Salem this morning in their special car attached to the delayed overland. They were on their way home from San Francisco where they were worsted in a game of football by the California athletic club on Xmas day.

S. P. PASSENGER TRAIN

Jumps the Track at Comstock.—The Damage Light.

The southbound Roseburg local, No. 15, which passed through Salem at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, jumped the track in the afternoon at Comstock's Mills, about midway between Drain and Cottage Grove. The engine, tender, mail car and part of the baggage car left the rails, badly tearing up the track for several yards. As the grade in that vicinity is very steep, the train was not moving very rapidly, otherwise the accident might have been more serious. The wreck-train was soon on hand and the cars were placed upon the track as soon as possible. As a result the northbound overland, due in Salem at 6 a. m. did not arrive until 8:15, being obliged to wait until the track had been cleared. The northbound freight, No. 31, due here about midnight, did not pass through Salem until this afternoon.

HERBICK.—At the family home in Deport addition to Salem, December 29, 1895, to Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Herick, Jr., a daughter, weight nine pounds.

 The surgeon of Marion county is to be congratulated.
