JAMESON TO BE SHOT

He Narrowly Escaped the Enraged Boers.

CUBA NEWS SENSATIONAL

Two and a Half Millions Demanded of England.

AFTER JAMESON.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—It was reported this afternoon that Jameson had been sentenced by the judges of Pretoria to be shot Saturday last. A dispatch from Krugersdorp, Transvaal, dated January 3rd., says: "Jameson narrowly escaped being shot in the market place by incensed Boers, and was saved by the commandant, who threatened to shoot the first man who raised his rifle."

THE UPRISING.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—Long dispatches from Cape Town, to the Times, describe the intense feeling there at the failure of the Johannesburgers to succor Dr. Jameson, but the National Union delegates say that a disobedience of Governor Sir Hercules Robinson's orders would have frustrated his belated mission of mediation, and all the old animosities of the Majada times would have been revived. The people are angry and at cross-purposes but are unanimous in their enthusiasm for Dr. Jameson. The Times dispatch from Johannesburg says that Colonel Rhodes told the crowd the bitter truth, declaring that it was the whitest moment of his life. The committee never imagined that Dr. Jameson was in such desperate straits, having received hopeful messages.

The Times this morning makes the following announcements:

"Orders have been sent to Portsmouth, Davenport and Chatham for the immediate commissioning of six ships to form a flying squadron, the object of which is obviously to have a squadron ready for any required emergency. It will be composed of two first-class battle-ships, and two first-class and two second-class cruisers. The possibility of the commissioning of such a squadron at a moment's notice shows that our resources are better than was supposed, and is proof that our naval organization has greatly improved of late years. It has also been decided to dispatch a naval force to Delagoa bay, but it is unknown whether it will be composed of vessels from the Cape or from the East Indies."

The archbishop of Canterbury has issued a special collection for use in the churches during the grave crisis.

The Daily Telegraph announces that it has been decided to intercept the troops to and from India in order to send strong reinforcements of infantry and cavalry to the Cape. This paper also states that troops in addition will be sent from England, and that a first-class cruiser has been ordered to Delagoa bay.

The correspondent of the Standard at Aldershot believes that there is a question of calling out the army reserves, and a portion of the militia. The Duke of Connaught and the staff officers, the correspondents say, are busy at headquarters, and are in constant communication with the war office.

A special from Berlin says that Dr. Leyds has received a dispatch stating that the Transvaal demands from England an indemnity of £500,000 for Dr. Jameson's invasion.

NUTLANDERS (FOREIGNERS) SURRENDER.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—In a dispatch to the secretary of state for the colonies, Sir Joseph Chamberlain, from Sir

The U. S. Gov't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

Hercules Robinson, dated yesterday, and just made public, Robinson says: The nutlanders of Johannesburg have surrendered unconditionally, and given up arms to representatives of President Krueger.

In addition the latter has intimated the intention of handing over to Dr. Jameson and other prisoners captured by the Boers to the British high commissioner on the borders of Natal.

PEACE IS ESTABLISHED.

Sir Hercules Robinson, in the dispatch adds: "You may therefore be satisfied the crisis is over, and all danger of further hostilities ended."

LATER FROM TRANSVAAL.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A dispatch received from Cape Town this evening, says it is reported at Pretoria that the Transvaal government demands the banishment of Cecil Rhodes, premier of Cape Colony, and Dr. Jameson, from Africa and, that an enormous fine is also demanded from the British chartered company. It is supposed here that this may refer to $2,500,000 indemnity which, according to a dispatch from Berlin, the Transvaal government will demand of Great Britain.

ROYALIST VICTORY REPORTED.

HAVANA, Jan. 8.—The details of an engagement have just been received here, showing that General Navarro, between Guraja and Cuba de Agua, overtook a numerous insurgent force under Zayas and other leaders. During a three hours' fight the Spanish artillery was called into play. The insurgents were routed with a loss of 23 killed and 43 wounded left on the field. The insurgents are said to have carried away many more wounded.

General Navarro pursued the insurgents, overtook their rear guard at Calba de Agua and in a skirmish four insurgents were killed and three taken prisoners.

On the government side it is announced that only four officers and thirty privates were wounded in both engagements. A dispatch from Matanzas says 400 insurgents recently tried to compel the garrison of the Itabo Cardenas district to surrender. Upon refusal of the troops to surrender the fort was attacked but the insurgents were repulsed with a loss of six killed.

CAMPOS' SUCCESSOR.

MADRID, Jan. 8.—Present rumors are in circulation here that Captain-General Campos will be succeeded by General Polaviera or general Wellej in command of the Spanish forces in Cuba.

REPORTS EXAGGERATED.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—A dispatch to the World from Havana says: "Cable dispatches from New York report widely exaggerated stories of the condition of affairs here. The fact is, the city is so quiet as to give rise to surprise on the part of the old experienced residents. There has been no anticipation founded on substantial reasons that the rebels will change their policy and attempt to occupy a town which could probably not be taken without a battle. Among the Cuban sympathizers, of course, there is much individual excitement, which finds no collective expression. The Spaniards, especially the merchants and tradespeople, who are suffering from prostration of trade, feel extremely anxious on account of their business."

FIFTY-THOUSAND DOLLAR HAUL

But the Bank Was Insured Against Robbery.

TOLEDO, Jan. 8.—A special to the Blade from Fayette, O., says the Fayette bank was entered last night by burglars and $43,750 in cash and $4000 in bonds were taken.

The bank was insured against burglary in the Fidelity and Casualty company of New York.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The Republican caucus, after a stormy session, agreed to instruct the finance committee that the tariff bill be reported without an amendment, and passed in that form.

HAWAII ANNEXATION.

The Subject Is Broached in Congress.

NEW STATE OF HAWAII.

To Be Admitted to the Union by a Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The subject of the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands was broached in the house of representatives today by Spalding, representative from Michigan. In the resolution is provision that the Sandwich Islands be erected into a new state to be called Hawaii, with a republican form of government to be adopted by the people. It provides that all property pertaining to the public defense be ceded to the United States, but that the state retain all other property and the United States be liable for none of its debts. The resolution proposes as an alternative that Hawaii may be admitted as a state by treaties between the two governments, with one representative in congress, and proposes to appropriate $100,000 for making the treaties. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY.

A Number of New Pupils—Other Notes of Interest.

L. K. Wilson returned from Portland Monday morning where he spent the holidays with his parents.

Miss Bessie Shepard recited an excellent selection very nicely in chapel Monday morning.

At the close of the session of the Philodorian society meeting, the young men proceeded to organize a mock house of representatives which resulted in the election of F. C. Brown as speaker; Chief Justice H. P. Callison administered the oath of office and C. J. Atwood, president of the U. S. delivered his address. Very little business was transacted last week but the meeting for next Friday evening promises to be quite interesting.

Messrs. Floyd Reynolds, Harry Hansen, H. L. McHaffie and Miss Laura Whitman were chapel visitors Monday morning.

Otto and Antone Metschan of the State Agricultural College of Corvallis were chapel visitors Monday morning, returning to their school on the 11 o'clock local that day.

The Y. M. C. A. International convention will meet in Eugene January 10 to 12 inclusive. Willamette will have a delegation in attendance.

James Shives read an essay in chapel Tuesday morning on the present site of London.

Miss Gertrude Stahley and number of others visited chapel Tuesday morning.

R. B. Wilkins, of Albany and R. L. Loeb, of Brooks are the latest pupils to register with President Hawley.

Beware Of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions reputable physician, the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

A Card.

On retiring from practice of dentistry in Salem I wish to express many thanks to my friends and clientele for the very liberal patronage enjoyed. For future dental operations I am pleased to refer them to my worthy friend, Dr. C. H. Mack, who will continue practice at the same office—(Old White Corner). Dr. Mack having been associated with me, I know him to be extremely well skilled in any and every branch of dental practice and a very nice and worthy gentleman. I bespeak for him a very liberal patronage.

RECOGNITION OF CUBA.

Many Difficulties Have Been Presented.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—One of the members of the foreign affairs committee of the house, when asked whether the recent successes of the insurgents in Cuba would hasten the recognition by this government of their rights as belligerents, said:

"The state department is now preparing in answer to a resolution of the house, copies of all the correspondence which has taken place about the rebellion. This will include letters from the Spanish minister. If those letters should prove to be bragging declarations that the Spanish forces would put the rebellion down in a week or two, it will have the effect of demonstrating to the house that the rebellion is now certainly beyond the control of the home government. The Spanish minister has admitted that his government now has on the island 100,000 troops, and yet the insurgents are within a few miles of Havana, the capital city of the island.

"The difficulty we have to contend with in moving for the recognition of the patriots as belligerents is that they have no organized army and no fixed seat of government. Their plan has been not to have an army, for if their forces were concentrated the Spanish regulars would undoubtedly overwhelm them. Recognition by this government would only have a moral effect, whereas it now looks as if the insurgents were working out their own salvation without assistance from the outside world.

"If they continue their successful guerrilla warfare until next April, when yellow fever takes the field, it will be impossible to subdue them by any force which Spain commands. The civil leaders of the revolution, unfortunately for us, do not aim at independence. They say they do not care to go through thirty or forty years similar to the earlier experiences of Mexico, hence they are all for annexation to the United States. I doubt much whether our people are prepared at the present time to assume the government of Cuba, with its population fresh from Spanish rule, and generally unfitted for American citizenship.

"However that may be, it is evident that affairs on the island are approaching a crisis and we must be prepared to protect American interests, whatever our attitude may be toward the insurgents. For this reason, if for no other, I am inclined to doubt the truth of the story, that the administration has been preparing to use our North Atlantic squadron to make a demoralization in Turkish waters. We are liable to need our war ships to protect our interests on the island of Cuba.

"If the insurgents take possession of any of the large cities or should assume to control the civil government of the island, disturbances would follow.

Quarrels of So-Called Federal Receivers.

TO BE HEALED OVER AGAIN

U. S. Supreme Judges to Become Pass Issuers.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 8.—The end of the Northern Pacific Railroad company squabble is fast approaching. It is ascertained on authority that a settlement has been reached satisfactory to all. The basis of settlement cannot be learned at present, but it is certain that it presents precedents quite outside the usual practice in receiverships, for one of the "minor" details is said to be the placing of the receivership in charge of United States supreme court, under control and direction of five justices, who are to preside over the jurisdictions through which the line extends. These justices are: Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, John M. Harlan of the seventh district, David J. Brewer of the eighth district, Stephen J. Field of the ninth district, Rufus W. Peckham of the second district.

DIED ON THE TRAIN.

"Micky" Fullerton Dies of Heart Disease While En Route Home.

This morning "Micky" Fullerton, as he is familiarly known by the old residents of Oregon, died of heart disease while on his way to his home in Roseburg. His death occurred on the Roseburg local, a short distance south of Turner. He was about 80 years of age, a pioneer of Oregon, and the father of Judge Fullerton of the second judicial district.
