

Nervous

Sleepless, no appetite and very much run down, was the condition of my husband. Since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla he has wonderfully improved, and he now eats and sleeps well; in fact, he is all right.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

We esteem very highly, Mrs. Mary Conroy, 1040 Cedar St., Pueblo, Colorado. Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, headache, etc.

AT THE OLD TRYSTING PLACE.

The dead leaves rustle at my feet. The moon is shining brightly. Something has softly dimmed my eyes. Across the path one shadow lies. The path we trod so lightly. It was upon a night like this I held her in my arms; I held her in my arms and in mine. That parting is to me divine. Then there was no tomorrow. Since I have learned life's lesson well Hearts are not easy broken. Tonight all joys I have forgot. There's something sacred in this spot. My ears are ringing with her voice. I'll feel less lonely with myself If I could see her once again. With all its sadness sweetened pain. When love from love was parted. —Lippincott's

TURF PHILOSOPHY.

It is awful hard to own a balky horse and be a Christian at the same time. To jog or not to jog—that is the question. Well, you know how it is your self. Theory is good, but practice beats it when it comes to mile heats, best three in five. A horse, like a person, is handicapped to a certain extent throughout life by an inappropriate name. The farmer breeder who cuts short the food supply of his colts is taking money from his own pockets.

When the Women Vote.

They were discussing a proposed entertainment when the caller asked: "Have you invited Miss de Verdy?" "Oh, dear, no!" replied the hostess. "I couldn't think of it for a moment." "But, my dear child, she is a charming conversationalist and a splendid dancer. She is wonderfully attractive in the ballroom." "I know it," admitted her hostess, "but you see she is an offensive partisan." "Really?" "Yes, indeed. Why, she tried to get me to vote the Republican ticket, and I couldn't for a moment think of giving her an opportunity to make converts at my dance. I've had to leave her out." "Naturally, under those circumstances," acquiesced the cellar. "But how about Mrs. Wilkins?" "Not a suitable person to invite, my dear. She's not in our set at all." "I hadn't heard of that. What's the matter?" "How thoughtless of you! Why, she doesn't even vote in our ward." —Chicago Post.

Admitted. Tillinghast—What a bashful girl Miss Elder is! Gildersleeve—Yes, she's on the retired list. —Detroit Free Press.

A Straight Shot.

The young man was making himself as disagreeable as a man could who didn't know any better, and she was hoping the house would fall on him or something. "Some women," he said in the course of his remarks, "are pleased by a brainless youth with a handsome face." "Yes," she replied wearily, "but I'm sure that doesn't apply in your case." "I hope not," he said conceitedly. "Oh, no!" she murmured, "for you haven't a handsome face." —Detroit Free Press.

The Difference Slight.

"What's this?" demanded the guest, pointing to one of the side dishes the waiter had brought. "Sausages, sir," answered the waiter. "I didn't order any." "I thought you did, sir." "I ordered sauce. Can you tell the difference between sauce and sausages?" "Yes, sir," said the waiter, gathering up the rejected dish with unrolled dignity. "Between sauce and sausages there is merely a difference of ages. Wish coffee, sir." —Chicago Tribune.

How to Cure Colds in Horses.

A sure and speedy cure for colds in horses is made of 3 ounces spirits of turpentine and an ounce of laudanum. Put this mixture into a bottle containing half a pint of warm water and pour it down the animal's throat. This is said to be an excellent remedy also for human beings, the dose for an adult being one to two teaspoonsful, according to the exigencies of the case. For children or invalids the dose should be reduced. Take in warm water. There is a cure for trifles which proceeds from a love of conscience and is most holy and a cure for trifles which comes of idleness and frivolity and is most base. —Family Herald.

She Was Too Devoted.
Figg—I don't see Grimsby with that Lutestring girl lately.
Fogg—No, when he spoke of marriage she frightened him off. She said in an impassioned manner: "Harry, I will be wholly yours where thou goest I will go." And he says she meant it too. When he came to think of the times he might want to have a quiet little game, or something of that sort, he felt that such devotion as hers might pall on him and so he let the matter drop. —Boston Globe.

A Pious Maiden.
Mlle. Jonjon visited one day a village church and began to sing with her usual enthusiasm. There was a powerful echo in the old church, and each sound that she uttered was distinctly repeated. This did not disturb her in the least, for she at once exclaimed: "It is only the good God who is answering me." —Paris Figaro.

London tells it thus.
He was an applicant for a position as tram car conductor. "What are your qualifications for the place?" asked the superintendent.
"I used to work in a sailing partying establishment." —Exchange.

Pierre Lomillard has auctioned off most of the Ranchoos stable. Among the horses sold was seven of Longfellow's sons and daughters.
George E. Smith, the plunger, known as "Pittsburg Phil," has decided to sell his stable of horses. He has been losing money in big lumps.
The first watches made at Nuremberg and called "Nuremberg eggs," commanded nearly $500.

An onyx seal ring, belonging to an ancient Athenian, was lately dug up near Athens.
The pastor of a church in the state of Washington when a boy stole a ride on the cowcatcher of a locomotive on an eastern railroad. His conscience recently pricked him, and he sent the company $3.45, the amount of the passage, with interest.

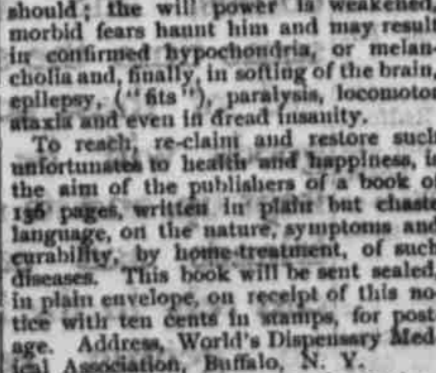

At the close of this season Evans and Hoey will dissolve partnership. Mr. Evans will retire, and Mr. Hoey will thereafter star in a new farce comedy written by Edward Paulson.
The sanitary officer of health protests against the destruction of the crocodiles. He says they are the best and only scavengers possible of the water reservoirs in which they dwell.

The greatest courage is to bear persecution, not to answer when you are reviled, and when a wrong has been done to forgive. —The Newcomes.
The boy crown prince of Germany, it is said, is destined by his mother to be the future husband of Wilhelmina, the child queen of Holland.
The emperor of Germany has a great horror of betting, and would like to make it illegal, if he dared, among the officers of the Prussian army.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions of reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and is in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Medicinal free.
Solely by Druggists, price 75 cents a bottle.

W. D. Hare, of Hillsboro, Senator Vanderburg, of Marshfield, and C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, are mentioned as probable Populist candidates for congress.

PHYSICAL STRENGTH,
cheerful spirits and the ability to fully enjoy life, come only with a healthy body and mind. The young man who suffers from nervous debility, impaired memory, low spirits, irritable temper, and the thousand and one derangements of mind and body that result from unnatural, pernicious habits usually contracted in youth, through ignorance, is thereby incapacitated to thoroughly enjoy life. He feels tired, spiritless, and drowsy; his sleep is disturbed and does not refresh him as it should; the will power is weakened, morbid fears haunt him and may result in confirmed hypochondria, or melancholia, and, finally, in softening of the brain, epilepsy, "fits," paralysis, locomotor ataxia, and even in dread insanity.
To reach, re-claim and restore such unfortunate to health and happiness, is the aim of the publishers of a book of 150 pages, written in plain but choice language, on the nature, symptoms and curability, by home-treatment, of such diseases. This book will be sent sealed, in plain envelope, on receipt of this notice with ten cents in stamps, for postage. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.
For more than a quarter of a century physicians connected with this widely celebrated institution have made the treatment of the diseases above hinted at their specialty. Thousands have consulted them by letter and received advice and medicines which have resulted in permanent cures.
Sufferers from premature old age, or loss of power, will find much of interest in the book above mentioned.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?
Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?
Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?
Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?
Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?
Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Fitch. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?
Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Fitch and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?
Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?
Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?
Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?
Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.
The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fitch is on every wrapper.
