

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of COUNTY ASSESSOR...

OFFICIAL SALARIES.

It is a well known principle of the public service that an official's salary should not be reduced or increased during the term for which he is elected.

The petition to reduce the salary of marshal and chief of police at the city council meeting was signed by prominent tax payers...

If a judge's salary can be lowered or raised during his term of service then justice is at the mercy of the faction in control of the legislative body.

Aspirants for county offices, where the pay is manifestly too large, should understand this as well as the people. The only way to reduce the salaries of any county officials...

THE JOURNAL does not believe in electing men who are getting too much out of their offices without such an agreement in advance. If that agreement is not made they will come before the legislature and plead that they are entitled to the salary in force when they took office...

HELPING THE POPULISTS.

The Oregonian keeps up its nefarious work of wrecking the Republican party by copying all the sweeping condemnations of the Populist press.

The edict is, if the Republican party cannot be made a corporation ring party, wreck it.

"If Dolph, and I and Jo. Simon can't run it, wreck it, ruin it," is the only sentiment Harvey Scott expresses in sincerity.

"All the members who did not stand in with us are Populists," is the cry.

He never publishes the names of the Portland gang who opposed all reform measures. But thank God, the people know them.

BAKER OF LANE.

Hon. C. H. Baker, of Lane, was one of the most determined leaders in the last legislature in fighting the old Portland machine.

He always got fighting mad when he took the floor to make a speech and never sat down without shaking his fist in defiance at the foe of the people of Oregon.

He writes: "What do I think of an extra session of the legislature? I think and say most emphatically, No!" There is something refreshingly positive in this.

Mr. Geer is evidently laboring under the impression that he has been of some service to the Republican party. The Statesman also recognizes this and bring him out for state senator in 1896.

The Statesman boys like Mr. Geer well enough. Their owners and managers have no use for him except in campaign time.

Mr. Geer, thru your harp in the Waldo hills until Geo. Steel calls you from your retirement again.

Mr. Geer is evidently not available timber in the Salem congressional sawmill.

And the people about sick of parasite Republicanism?

BULLDOZING LORD.

The Portland Oregonian-Telegram says: Before this month has expired the governor of Oregon should be placed squarely on record as having either acceded to or refused the popular demand for an extra session of the legislature.

Nine-tenths of the people favor the proposition that their state senators and representatives be given another opportunity to lighten the oppressive tax burden. Only the office-holders and their parasites oppose it. But there has been no effort to formally notify the governor of the popular desire. There has been nothing but scattering talk through the newspapers and among the taxpayers themselves.

If this is not done the people will have only themselves to blame for a two years' extension of the evils of which they are now complaining. The governor cannot be censured if he declines to accept mere rumor as an expression of public sentiment. A special session of the legislature would cost about $10,000, and something more definite than newspaper report and street talk is required to justify his excellency in putting the state to that expense.

CONFESSION GOOD FOR THE SOUL.

But all of Gov. Lord's influence went with those who were "holding up" the legislature on the senatorial election; and this was the pivot on which all measures turned.

In the above words the Oregonian gives away the principal cause of the failure of the legislature to keep its pledges. The Dolph managers started in to sacrifice everything to elect Dolph.

They gave clerkships, big appropriations, rewards of office, and promises of more to hold votes for Dolph.

They wanted a personal senator who would be owned, body and soul, by the ring so they could say we made him and he is our creature.

They cared nothing for public sentiment, nothing for what the people wanted, nothing for the press of the state, nothing for the rank and file of the party.

It was give Dolph or reform or die. The Oregonian tells the truth in the above.

Mr. Geer is too able and daring a man to be promoted by the old Portland ring. He is also too clean a man to suit them. Had he used his brains and abilities in the service of the people as faithfully as he has served party managers, they would not forsake him as the gang have.

The constitution says the governor in calling a special session "shall state to both houses" what they are called together for. But the governor told them just what was necessary before.

The city council met last night as a kind of extraordinary legislative session. But the council cut salaries and the extra session would only talk about it.

The Statesman boys like Mr. Geer well enough. Their owners and managers have no use for him except in campaign time.

Mr. Geer, thru your harp in the Waldo hills until Geo. Steel calls you from your retirement again.

Mr. Geer is evidently not available timber in the Salem congressional sawmill.

WHY IT CIRCULATES

Phenomenal Demand for a Weekly Newspaper.

IT ADVOCATES POPULAR MEASURES Characteristic Letters From All Kinds of People.

The phenomenal circulation of the WEEKLY CAPITAL JOURNAL in all the postoffices of Western Oregon causes a great deal of comment, and needs some explanation. Orders keep pouring in by every mail, and while names are struck off the list as soon as a subscription expires the additions surpass the extractions.

IT IS THE CHEAPEST Weekly in the state. One year $1.00, six months 50 cents, three months 25 cents. At this low price all can afford to take an Oregon Weekly, and these hard times they naturally take the cheapest. It is too cheap to do without it, and conducted on the cash in advance basis, they know they will not have a bill run on them.

THE PEOPLE WANT IT. The people will not pay cash in advance for a paper unless they want it and appreciate it. THE WEEKLY is popular as THE OREGONIAN DAILY which is conceded to be the most popular daily in Western Oregon. A man brought in a silver half dollar the other day and ordered it for two months. He said: "I can't get work this winter. I can get along without one meal a day. But I can't get along without THE OREGONIAN DAILY. These long, cloudy, rainy, winter days it comes a welcome messenger to cheer the whole family." The people feel the same way about THE WEEKLY.

FROM NEVADA BAY. comes a cheering letter from a subscriber at Netarts, Oregon who encloses a dollar and writes: "Dear Editors: THE JOURNAL has the true Republican ring about it. I wish that every paper in the country would advocate the peoples cause as THE JOURNAL does. I will do all I can for THE JOURNAL."

FROM MAINE TO TEXAS. A Republican of the school of Abraham Lincoln. Mr. O'Hara is not afraid to sign himself an Abraham Lincoln Republican and THE JOURNAL feels proud to be considered a champion of Abraham Lincoln Republicanism.

COME ORDERS FOR THE $1 WEEKLY JOURNAL. Silver dollars are sent. John Holm, Luling, Texas, sends us a big dollar of the daddy in a common envelope. It is one of those "In God We Trust," dollars, coined in 1893, good enough for any American, and good enough for any newspaper. THE JOURNAL is the only silver daily and Weekly in Oregon. THE JOURNAL is the only Daily and Weekly in Oregon that fights the whole gold bond humbug and stands for the right of the American people to buy their friends. It demands Republican legislation for the American people instead of for the corporation, the trusts, the bondholders and syndicates.

ORDER THE JOURNAL. Circulate the DAILY and WEEKLY. Stand by the cause of good government for the masses and sound American principles. We will pay extra postage on silver. Don't send stamps. Hood's is Wonderful. No less wonderful are the cures accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla, even after other preparations and physicians' prescriptions have failed. The reason, however, is simple. When the blood is enriched and purified, disease disappears and good health returns, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the one true blood purifier. Hood's pills are prompt and efficient and do not purge, pain or gripe, 25 cents.

With reduced county, city and school tax there is some consolation for the taxpayer. Let The Whole World Know The Good Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Does

HEART DISEASE has its victim at a disadvantage. Always taught that heart disease is incurable, when the symptoms become well defined, the patient becomes alarmed and a nervous panic takes place. But when a sure remedy is found and a cure effected, after years of suffering, there is great rejoicing and desire to "let the whole world know." Mrs. Laura Wineinger, of Belkirk, Kansas, writes: "I desire to let the whole world know what Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has done for me. For ten years I had pain in my heart, shortness of breath, palpitation, pain in my left side, the second blood I felt its good effects, I feel now that I am fully recovered, and that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded.
