HIGH STORMS RAGING

New York and New England the Victims.

TELEGRAPH WIRES ARE DOWN.

Heavy Sleet Storms Throughout the Canadas.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—A severe storm of wind, rain and sleet is prevailing in the East today. Telegraph communication between this city and points in New England is entirely suspended. Along the coast the wind has a velocity of 40 to 60 miles an hour.

Storm in Canada.

TORONTO, Jan. 24.—This city is cut off from communication with all the rest of Canada and the United States. It has been snowing terribly. An awful sleet storm has rendered telegraph wires useless. It is not known how far the trouble extends through Ontario.

After Murderer Brown.

ROSEBURG, Jan. 24.—Yesterday morning two suspicious looking men were seen near the 18-mile house on the old Coos bay stage road. As soon as they were observed one of them, who was carrying a rifle and a bundle on his shoulder, jumped down the low grade and disappeared in the timber.

The other came to the house, ate breakfast and bought a lunch to carry with him. He answered the description of Andy Pool, brother of Jim Pool, who was convicted of robbing the train at Cow Creek Canyon July last. Andy, it was thought, was helping Murderer Sam G. Brown, who escaped from the county jail December 30, and has since been at large. District Attorney Brown, in working on the case this week, discovered a plan to take Brown to Coos county, where his parents live, and had men on the lookout.

Jim Laird, Jim Moss, and two others kept the man supposed to be Pool in sight. He went slowly, presumably to allow his companion to keep near him, as he appeared much fatigued when seen in the morning. Pool would whistle at intervals to warn Brown, who remained under cover of the timber, whenever any one was in sight. At 11 o'clock last night all reached a point near Dora, in Coos county, 42 miles from Roseburg. Laird and Moss made a detour and hid in a barn. Brown and Pool soon appeared in company, and were allowed to pass the barn. They were ordered to throw up their hands. Pool promptly did so, and is now under guard at Dora. Brown jumped over a fence, and Moss fired twice. Brown fell, but before his pursuers reached him he disappeared in a thick clump of brush, where he is now supposed to be, possibly wounded.

Albert Pool Arrested.

ROSEBURG, Or. Jan. 24.—Albert Pool recently acquitted by the federal court for complicity in the Cow Creek train robbery of July, 1895, was arrested this afternoon charged with assisting Murderer Sam G. Brown to escape. A preliminary examination will be held tomorrow.

Panic at a Fire.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—A fire in the old stock exchange building, at the northeast corner of Dearborn and Monroe streets, today, caused a panic among the occupants. All escaped with but slight injuries.

Wants to Be Governor.

St. LOUIS, Jan. 24.—In an open letter to Dr. Pretorius, editor of the Westliche Post of this city, Mayor C. P. Walbridge has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for governor.

THE CONGRESSMANSHIP.

The Salem Statesman makes a mistake in its warfare on Geer and Hermann. Geer has been loyal—too loyal for his own good—to the machine whence the Statesman derives its sustenance. But Mr. Geer is a gentleman of brains and intelligence, and great ability as a campaigner for the party. He has not agreed with us on the money question. We did not agree with his vote to repeal the mortgage tax law. But there is no man we would go further to help into a public position than Mr. Geer. He deserves well of the Republican party. Like other Republicans, he has to take his chances on his record and on his views; but he is a talented man and it is an honor to the party to have such a man in it. He has never made money out of the party. He is not an unprincipled hireling Hessian. [He is a clean, honorable party man. We do not know how any party could get along without some men in it with more brains than a mosquito, or how it can get along without giving such men offices once in a while.

The Statesman's abuse of Hermann is all dictated by the old Portland ring. He is in a position where he is worth millions to the state of Oregon. Congress is no longer a deliberate body.

The 360 members, all representing a multiplicity of interests can only transact business under the present rules by placing almost autocratic power in the hands of the speaker and a few committees. A new member from Oregon would be lost like a needle in a hay stack. He would get no chairmanship, no second place on a committee and onto very few committees. Hermann is the only Pacific coast conferee on the river and harbor bill, and will be worth millions to Oregon river and harbor improvements. Why should the old ring and machine organs like the Oregonian, Telegram and Statesman make war on Hermann and belittle his influence if they have any regard for the interests of Oregon?

The Republican party of Oregon is made up of men who have never yet been dictated to successfully. They have, when aroused to the true interest of the party and the people, time and again overthrown dictators and can do it again. We do not mean to say that no man is good enough to be a candidate against Hermann. We believe Marion county has several men who would in time make as good, or even a better congressman than Hermann. But the way to get them to the front is not by abusing Hermann. THE JOURNAL will cordially support any Republican who is a fairly representative man of the people and fairly nominated, and we believe none other will be put up. The editor of THE JOURNAL is not a candidate as is represented by some Salem papers. In the absence of an active well-supported Marion county candidate it prefers Mr. Hermann in the true interest of the party and the people. His ten years experience and acquaintance with public men and the departments at Washington renders him an almost invaluable man for the people of this state. Besides, he has broken away from ring dictation and control and stands with the people.

A Salem correspondent of the Roseburg Plaindealer replies to a Roseburg correspondent of the Oregonian as follows: "Republican" should know, if he understands the situation, that the next congressman from this district if he be a republican, will be nominated by a union of the elements that were in opposition last winter. And the next senator if he be a republican will be elected by those who supported Mr. Dolph and those who opposed him. In short, by those who can do what "Republican" seems incapable of doing—sink their past differences and antagonisms for the honor of the party and good of the state.

The Oregonian and Statesman are carrying their fight too far in abusing men like Hermann and Geer and reading them out of the party.

RELIEF IS PERMITTED

Turks Permit Miss Barton to Assist the Armenians.

GEN. GOMEZ A CONSUMPTIVE

The Cuban General Cannot Live Sixty Days.

Relief Permitted.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Owing to the energetic efforts of Minister Terrell, Miss Barton and party will be permitted by the Turkish government to distribute relief to the distressed Armenians, although the Red Cross will not figure in the work.

THE SENATE ALL RIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Senator Lodge, in a canvass of the city on the Monroe doctrine, has been able to find only eight votes against the Davis resolution.

An Armenian Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Call offered in the senate a radical resolution in demanding either through peaceful negotiations or by force of arms that the Armenian atrocities be stopped. The resolution was defeated without division. A resolution reported by the committee on foreign relations passed unanimously.

Gomez Dying.

HAVANA, Jan. 24.—It is stated upon excellent authority that Gen. Maximo Gomez, commander in chief of the insurgent forces, has consumption in an advanced stage, complicated with fever, and the doctors are agreed that he can live about two months longer.

Insurgents Victorious.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—A dispatch from Havana says:

Despite official denials, the report has spread here that Maceo has captured the city of Pinar del Rio. A warship left Havana hurriedly at a late hour, carrying a battalion of reinforcements and several light field pieces. Reports of big rebel defeats around Pinar del Rio are being given out from military headquarters in order to counteract unofficial news and to encourage the Spanish residents.

In the town of Sabanilla on Monday, while a party of Platados were looting stores and terrorizing the citizens, a company of regular Cuban cavalry dashed into the place and, calling upon the mayor and citizens to co-operate with them, captured the marauders and promptly lynched them on the outskirts of the place.

From Cardenas comes the news that a majority of the able-bodied men of the outlying town of LaGuinallas, led by the mayor, have risen against the government, openly declaring for revolution. Troops have been sent from Cardenas to attack them.

Five Spanish forts around the town of Macuaga, province of Matanzas, have been captured during the week by La Crete's Cuban forces.

In Good Health.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—A report that Queen Victoria was somewhat seriously indisposed, and the announcement that a treaty providing for an offensive and defensive alliance had been concluded between Russia and Turkey had a disturbing influence upon the stock exchange today. Consols receded 1-16 below their price yesterday.

The last bulletin from Osborne House announces the queen in good health, but overwhelmed with grief at the death of Prince Henry of Battenberg.

Children Cry for Plincher's Oastoria.

In Jackson's Hole.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 24.—Private advices received by letter are that the Indians in Jackson's Hole are commencing to grow restless, and trouble of a serious nature is daily expected. The Bannock Indian ringleaders have been made to believe by a man named Jackson, husband of a half-breed wife, that if Agent Teter could be gotten out of the way he would succeed him. With this idea in mind, they attacked Teter's house, attempting to carry him off bodily, but failed. The Indians are said to be well armed, and a general uprising is looked for any day. The Indian leaders are Big Neck, Sagawance, Big Horse and Red Bear.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Wheat jumped as follows today:

UNION PACIFIC SCHEME

For Foreclosure on the First Mortgage Bonds.

Three Government Commissioners to Adjust Matters.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Attorney Morrison, who represents the first mortgage bondholders of the Union Pacific railroad, whose holdings amount to over $50,000 has prepared a bill which will ask Congressman Powers, chairman of the committee on Pacific railroads to bring before congress.

The plan includes the appointment of three government commissioners, who shall secure the co-operation of all the other creditors they can enlist to bring about a foreclosure through the company's failure to pay interest on the last three coupons due, and buy the road at such sale. An organization would be made by issuing new first mortgage bonds for the full amount of the debt at a rate which the commissioners might decide was justified by the net earnings of the road.

Broke the Color Line.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—After fighting over a woman's complexion for 14 months, the Chicago Woman's club has eliminated the color line and elected Mrs. Fannie Barrier Williams, a well-known colored woman, to full membership at an executive session of the club. The greatest effort was made to suppress official information on a subject which had become one of popular interest on account of the prolonged opposition to the candidate's admission.

Preceding the meeting there was a lively session of the membership committee, which had the name of Mrs. Williams under advisement for the second time. Four members of the committee were prompted by racial prejudice to vote against a favorable report on her application. Another negative vote would have successfully blackballed the candidate. Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevens and Mrs. Catharine Vaughn McCulloch championed the cause of the colored woman, the majority of the committee reported their sentiments. The committee's report prevailed until presented to the meeting. While the majority of the club have welcomed the intellectual colored lecturer to their sisterhood, a few members have threatened to resign unless Mrs. Williams does. When the cause of contention heard their threats she positively announced her intention to remain in the club regardless of the actions of a minority, whom she designated as prejudiced, mean and hopeless.

TWO MURDERERS HANGED

A Cherokee Indian Named Ward Cut Off Short.

Henry C. Foster Swings for the Murder of George Wells.

VAN BUREN, Ark. Jan. 24.—Geo. Ward, a Cherokee Indian, was hanged this forenoon for murdering Henry Bacon in July of last year. He was a noted desperado and an all-round criminal.

A Foot-Pad Hung.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Henry C. Foster, colored, was hanged in the county jail today for the murder of a saloon-keeper, named Geo. W. Wells, who the latter was attempting to save a citizen Foster had waylaid and was robbing on the street in front of Wells' saloon. On the scaffold Foster confessed and hoped his execution would be a lesson to all.

Street Car Collision.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 24.—An electric car on the Knoxville street railway and a switch engine on the Southern Railway collided at the asylum street crossing today. Several persons were injured, and two perhaps fatally.

Woman's Suffragists.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The annual convention of the National Women's Suffrage association began here yesterday and 3,000 delegates are present. The report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Rachael Foster Avery, of Philadelphia, said that work had been hindered by the general misconception of the relation of the so-called "woman's Bible" to the association. As an organization, this body had been held responsible for the action of an individual in issuing a volume with a pretentious title, covering a jumble of comment without literary value, set forth in a spirit neither reverent nor inquiring. She urged that the association, by resolution, disavow responsibility for the publication.

A number of personal colloquies resulted and the report finally was tabled by a vote of 59 to 16.

In the course of the report, Mrs. Avery urged that the success of the cause in Utah clearly demonstrates the advisability of securing the aid of political parties through the planks of their respective platforms. "We now have," she said, "six senators and representatives from three states on the floor of congress, all of whom stand there with an ever-present sense that an important part of their constituents are the female sex."

The Kentucky Senatorship.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 24.—Senator Blackburn's election seems almost impossible, as the sound money Democrats have declared that they will not support Blackburn on account of his free silver views. The ballot today resulted as follows: Hunter, 67; Blackburn, 58; McCreary, 4; Carlisle, 1; M. W. Read, 1; Buckner, 2; Wilson, 1; Hazelrigg, 1; Edrington, (pop.) voted for Blackburn, and seems to be unmovable.

Harrison at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The supreme court room was the center of attraction at the capital today. Ex-president Harrison appeared there as attorney in a California irrigation case.
