CONGRESS FOR CUBA

Senate Favors Helping the Cubans.

THE SILVER BOND BILL.

Till Attacks the Administration on Its Financial Failure.

NO ENCAMPMENT.
A Great Many Grand Army Men Want No More.
CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Commander-in-chief Walker said after he had been informed that the Western Passenger association would not grant the desired thirty days' extension on G. A. R. encampment tickets: "Well, that simply lets St. Paul out of it. That is all there is to that. The entire matter will now be reopened and another city selected for the encampment." When informed that the other roads would not grant terms more favorable than those already made by the Western lines, Commander Walker replied: "Then there will be no G. A. R. encampment this year. We must have thirty-day tickets or we will have no encampment."

ONE THOUSAND PERSONS FLED.
HAVANA, Jan. 29.—Several members of the central committee of the reformists party have been recognized. It is estimated 1000 persons have fled from Sabinilla to Matanzas. The insurgents have plundered stores in Cidnas, and attacked Guiera Macunjea, south of Sabinilla.

The garrison repulsed the enemy, whose attack was twice renewed. The insurgents suffered a severe loss. They retreated five miles out, then re-concentrated.

ACTION BY CONGRESS.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The senate committee on foreign relations has agreed to report a resolution of the Cuban question. The resolution does not go so far as to recommend recognition, but it is more emphatic than extensive sympathy.

LATER
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Morgan of Alabama, from the committee on foreign relations, very promptly after the senate proceedings began today, reported on the resolution for recognition of the belligerent rights of the Cubans insurgents. Cameron of Pennsylvania, as presented a minority report. Cameron's resolution was a brief request on the President to interpose his friendly offices for the recognition and independence of Cuba. The report reviewed the course of President Grant during the former Cuban revolution. Both resolutions went to the calendar.

SILVER BOND BILL.
Tillman made a speech on the pending silver bond bill. The galleries were filled, and the senator received close attention. All talk about sound money and maintaining the credit of the United States, he said, was part of a damnable scheme of robbery, having for its object the utter destruction of silver as money, the increase of public debt, and the surrender to the corporations of the power to issue paper money. He denounced Carlisle as Judas and Cleveland as an usurper, and most gigantic failure that ever occupied the White House.

The Bond Syndicate Again.
CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—The Post's Washington special says the new Morgan syndicate has given the treasury renewed assurances of its intention to make the $100,000,000 loan a success, and to that end will have in bids to take the whole issue or any part of it. The lump bid, it is said, will be about $110,000,000, or a little below 3 1/2 per cent basis. The bid for any fractional unsold part of bonds will be on terms less favorable to the government.

AMERICANS NOT SAFE

Spanish Authorities Imprison Our Citizens.

CUBANS STILL HOPEFUL

Chinese Forgeries—Permanent Arbitration Wanted.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 29.—A special to a local paper from Key West, Fla., says: "Advices received here from Havana indicate that since the resignation of Martinez de Campos, the Spanish authorities are acting in a high-handed manner toward American citizens suspected of being in sympathy with the insurgents. Recently Henry Riso, who claims to be a naturalized citizen of the United States, was arrested at Puerto Principe as a political suspect. Riso was thrown into a dungeon, although proclaiming his American citizenship. His request that Consul-General Williams be informed of his plight was denied, and when the last steamer left for Ceuta, the Spanish penal settlement in Africa, Riso was placed on board. The unfortunate man attempted to make a scene as he was placed on the vessel, but he was knocked down by the Spanish guards, and hurried below decks. Riso had no trial, but it is understood the authorities ordered him confined at Ceuta for life. Transportation to Ceuta now means death, as cholera is raging there."

A Mine Explosion.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 29.—News has been received from Pittston junction, that a terrific explosion occurred in a twin shaft at noon today. Four miners are reported killed, and a number injured.

May Be Ambassador.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Edwin F. Uhl, assistant secretary of state, has been mentioned prominently in connection with the ambassadorship at Berlin.

Chase Stock Company.
"The deputy Sheriff" was produced at the opera house last night to a good house. The audience was highly pleased at the many laughable and sensational scenes enacted. Miss Chase as "Clip" was bright and natural as ever, while Mr. George M. Hayes gave us by far the best piece of character acting we have yet seen him do. Ten handsome presents were given away. E. H. Flagg, the fat, handsome and smiling printer, being the winner of the gentleman's gold watch. Tonight (Leap Year night) one gentleman will be admitted free if accompanied by a lady. "The Shadows of a Great City" a popular melo drama will be the bill. Ten more presents will be given away including a lady's gold watch, and as an additional feature a pair of pearl opera glasses valued at $20, will be given to the handsomest lady and a peculiar present to the homeliest man. Tomorrow night "Uncle's Darling" will be played for the benefit of the city hospital.

Probate Court.
In the matter of the estate of J. W. McAfee, deceased, W. E. McAfee, the administrator, was empowered by County Judge W. C. Hubbard, to sell at private sale the real estate consisting of 80 acres in section 1, T 9 S, R 3 E, in order to liquidate the indebtedness amounting in the aggregate to $357.83. Should the proceeds not be sufficiently large to clear this indebtedness then the lot No. 8 and the south one-half of lot 9, block 88, Salem, belonging to the estate is to be sold. The objections made by the widow of decedent, Mrs. Elizabeth Ellen McAfee, to the petition for sale were considered not well founded and, consequently overruled.

IT IS REALLY NEW.—There is something new under the sun, and it is at Salem first in Oregon. Cherrington Bros., the photographers, have secured the exclusive handling in their territory of the famous California invention, the Bas Relief photograph. This presents the picture in high relief and materially assists in bringing out the perfect form and features. If you have not seen this innovation in photography, do yourself the favor to call at the Cherrington gallery and look it up.

GREAT REDUCTION.—On all kinds of winter underwear for ladies, gents or children. gloves, overcoats, wool socks, and stockings at the New York Racket. We want to close out these lines, and will give special bargains. Call and save money. d2twit

MONTGOMERY'S FATE

Will Undoubtedly Be Hung by the Neck.

A MURDERER'S CHANCE.

Preparations for His Execution at Albany Friday.

It is now settled that in Lloyd Montgomery's case the gallows will not be cheated through legal process, nor, is it probable through executive clemency. The condemned man's attorney, N. M. Newport, made a statement to the supreme court upon which that tribunal was asked to grant a stay of execution. The counsel was told that on a presentation of the transcript, showing on its face reasonable grounds, such a request might be granted. Being familiar with the case, Mr. Newport concluded it would be useless to make a formal application. The counsel made a plea before the governor for executive clemency, asking a commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment. The governor declined to talk after the hearing, but Attorney Newport stated before leaving Salem that all resources had been exhausted and, so far as council was concerned, Montgomery would have to hang.

Judge Burnett signed the bill of exceptions presented by Lloyd Montgomery's attorneys at Salem Monday, but refused to sign a certificate of preparation for the hanging.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 29.—A message from Lloyd Montgomery's attorneys, said they have met with no success in obtaining a stay of execution or executive interference, and the murderer will undoubtedly be hanged Friday. Preparations for Montgomery's execution are not being delayed by the efforts of his attorneys to secure a stay. The scaffold is all framed, and the workmen will begin erecting the enclosure tomorrow. It is not believed here that a stay of execution will be granted by the supreme court. Deputy District Attorney N. B. Humphrey said he did not think an order of that kind could be expected from the supreme court, in view of the fact that the case has not yet been appealed to a higher court. The clerk states that no notice of appeal has been served.

Montgomery has lost much of his bravado. The lively strains of his violin are not heard so often in his cell and he has frequent fits of weeping. Last night he created quite an uproar in the jail. He had a prolonged and violent fit of weeping and declared he did not believe he could live until Friday. He said he could see his father and mother and they were pleading with the officers not to hang him. After quieting down, he asked the sheriff to send for his little brothers and sisters, as he wished to see them once again. Sheriff McFerron has notified them of his request. Two men are kept constantly with the condemned murderer to prevent an attempt at suicide.

A GOOD BAND.—The Woodburn Glee Club that furnished vocal music appropriate to the occasion at the meeting of the Lincoln club Saturday is one of the best clubs ever organized in the county. It is expected that this club will beat the State Convention at Portland and it will be a rare treat to hear them.
