

DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DAILY.

VOL. 8.

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1896.

NO. 23

'Here it is, mama!'

The Shoe Store they all talk about, where you can get just what you want and do not have to pay the two prices, either, as are leaders in their line, and are making some big reductions, and odds and ends and single pair lots we will follow the crowd and call in at 275 Commercial street.

KRAUSSE BROS.

No Trouble to Show You Through and Give Prices.

Hardware, Tinware, Barbed Wire
Blacksmith Supplies, Stoves and Machinery

GRAY BROS.

Examine our large and complete stock. Always prompt and courteous treatment.

THE FAIR STORE!

Can save you money on Underwear, hosiery, boys' clothing, table linen, overalls, gloves, tinware. Keep your eye on 274 COMMERCIAL ST.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC

of the Willamette University.

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.

Modern methods, up to date. Same as in the eastern and European Conservatories. None but the best is good enough for beginners as well as for more advanced pupils.
W. C. HAWLEY, President
R. A. HERITAGE, Vocal Director
EMIL L. WINKLER, Instrumental Director.

WE HAVE REMOVED

Now that we are located in our new quarters we announce ourselves ready for business, and by the way we would have you understand we mean business when we say that

This Stock Is to Be Closed Out, and that right soon. So come while our assortment is complete. You will find us in No. 115 State street, next to Gray Bros.

G. W. JOHNSON & SON,

W. R. ALLIN, Agent Mortgagee.

BANJ. R. TILLMAN.

The South Carolina Farmer Talks

IN PLAIN ANGLO-SAXON.

He Voices the Sentiment of Plain People.

CHAMPION OF SILVER DOLLARS

Uncovers the Schemes of New York Capitalists.

At 2 o'clock Senator Ben R. Tillman took the floor on the pending silver bond bill. The galleries filled quickly, and the senator was accorded close attention. He moved from his rear seat to one in the front row, immediately in front of the presiding officer. Although provided with manuscript, he began extemporaneously. He said he would use plain Anglo-Saxon, the language of the common people, for he was one of them. He spoke bitterly of the essay-reading indulged in by senators. He referred to the statement of the senator from Ohio (Sherman) that the silver question had been threshed out, adding:

"Yes, it has been threshed out by the speculators, but not by the farmers."

As a farmer, he would thresh it again, taking up the whole subject on a pitchfork, ready, if need be, to uncover the manure likely to be found. He then went on:

"Mr. President, it is not saying too much, and I feel warranted in charging that the derangement in our financial affairs and all this cry about sound money and maintaining the money and the credit of the United States are all a part and parcel of a damnable scheme of robbery, which had for its object: First, the utter destruction of silver as a money metal; second, the increase of the public debt, the issue of bonds payable in gold and, third, the surrender to corporations of the power to issue all paper money, and give them a monopoly of that function."

The senator referred to the enactment of the Sherman silver law in 1890, and, in this connection, said:

"The silver Republicans of the West who have deserted the silver Democrats of the South and accepted the compromise offered by the senator from Ohio, may take warning as to what faith or trust they may put into any utterances or actions of the senator from Ohio, as to legislation in regard to finances. The time for another presidential election approaches. They must understand that the election of any man to the presidency who would veto a free-coinage bill means defeat. It means more; it means disaster to our industries and increased poverty to the masses of our people."

"Under the Sherman law there was a diminution of the amount of free gold in a gradually decreasing scale, but not enough to cause any alarm. During the entire year of 1891 and the entire year of 1892 there was approximately as much gold as there was during 1884 and 1885."

"If the secret history of the year 1892 shall ever be written it will disclose the fact, which cannot be proven now, but of which I have not the slightest doubt, that the gold ring of New York, that embraces nearly all the bankers in the eastern and middle states and the stock gamblers of Wall street, controlled the presidential nomination of both the Democratic and Republican parties, and had an understanding with the managers, or with both the candidates themselves, in regard to what policy should be pursued toward our finances. They contributed money for the booming of Mr. Cleveland as the only available Democratic candidate, and they abused and ridiculed every other Democratic aspirant.

"There was plain evidence to show that the president himself worked on tariff reform, and that the financial plank was cunningly drafted so as to satisfy both gold and silver men, with the intention that it should be interpreted, if Cleveland were elected, as meaning the cessation of silver coinage and the forcing of a gold standard upon the people. Whether the scheme was agreed to by the president in person or not, and whether he bound himself in plain terms or not, will perhaps never be known. His course has been unwavering in the absolute contradiction of his public professions and letter of acceptance.

"There had been no trouble with the gold reserve, and no hint of any loss of confidence in the national credit until about the time of the last presidential election. Then, for the first time, we were given a glimpse of the conspiracy which I have referred to. Secretary Foster gave the holders of greenbacks and treasury notes the option of having government paper cashed in gold or silver, and, as they all demanded gold, the gold in the treasury rapidly ran down. The financial papers took up the cry of the country going to a silver basis, and the first premonitory breezes of the panic of 1893 swept over the land, and the conspirators fomented it by every possible means."

The senator quoted from Cleveland's response to the committee that notified him of his nomination the last time, and declared there was nothing in it to lead one to suspect that the leader of the Democratic party would ignore the platform and treat with contempt the trusted lieutenants whom the people had sent to national capital to assist in shaping legislation. The language would lead us to expect the very reverse. He then asked:

(Continued on second page.)

A Call From London.

MEMPHIS, Jan. 31.—Dr. John A. Brooks, of this city, has received a call to the London tabernacle, the largest Christian church in Europe. Dr. Brooks was the first prohibition candidate for governor of Missouri in 1884, and in 1888 he was nominated for vice-president by the national convention. He was for many years supreme master workman of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. Dr. Brooks has not yet accepted the call to London.

The Kentucky Senator.

FRANKFORT, Jan. 31.—The first break in the Hunter ranks occurred yesterday, when Dr. J. E. Chamber of Kenton voted for Judge W. H. Holt of Frankfort. The announcement of Chamber's vote caused a cry to go up among the anti-Hunter people, who declared that it was all over with him. Holt's friends assert that, if all the Republicans will go to him, he can be elected.

Albany Delegates.

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 31.—The Albany Republican Club has elected the following-named delegates to the state league in Portland.

J. H. Whitney, delegate-at-large; C. B. Winn, C. W. Watts, J. A. Wilson, J. R. Wyatt, Dr. M. H. Ellis, Ed. Cusick, F. J. Miller, Dr. W. H. Davis, N. M. Newport, D. R. N. Blackburn, J. A. Van Winkle, N. D. Conn and E. M. Horton.

A TEST OF SPEED.—There is nothing more swift than a Lockwood messenger. Ring up the blue boxes or telephone 40.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

MONTGOMERY HUNG.

Sheriff McFeron Sprung the Death Trap.

MAKES FULL CONFESSION

Asks Forgiveness on the Gallows But Dies Hard.

A SPECIAL REPORT IS SENT

By a "Journal" Reporter--Hung at Kalama.

Special to The Journal:

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 31.—Lloyd Bryson Montgomery was hanged at 7:14 in the jail yard this morning. He appeared in good health and met death with apparent composure. The death warrant was read at 7 o'clock, and he was escorted to the scaffold by his cousin and Sheriff McFeron, accompanied by Rev. Snyder, of Brownsville. While a prayer was being delivered, the doomed man was engaged in examining the rope and tacklings. Just as the

BLACK CAP WAS DRAWN he distinctly uttered: "Oh God, have mercy upon me, a poor sinner. Take me as I am."

As the sentence was finished a cack on the building about 10 feet away, crowed twice. Sheriff McFeron sprung the trap-door, and Montgomery fell 61-2 feet. The neck was broken, and life was pronounced extinct in 12-1-2 minutes.

A CONFESSION. Montgomery slept last night from 1 o'clock till awakened at 4:30. A cousin and fellow prisoner spent the morning in his cell exhorting and coaxing for a confession. At 6:30 he wrote the following:

"I did it. I am guilty. God have mercy upon me. Take me as I am a poor sinner. I am sorry for what I have done. God do have mercy upon my poor soul. For my sake, do and forgive those who are against me. Oh God help the precious souls to see the way of sin. God, for my sake, do help and guide them through this life. Amen."

It was a trying ordeal for Sheriff McFeron. He was almost overcome with emotion in reading the death warrant, but he overcame it, and the execution was performed without a pith. Montgomery was a distant relative of the sheriff's wife. On hearing the death warrant the victim's face showed signs of despair mingled with resignation, and he feelingly said: "I am sorry for what I have done, and want you people to forgive me. I hope to meet you in Heaven."

THE REMAINS were left in the enclosure until the physicians can make an examination of his brain, and the body will be placed in the court house until tomorrow.

The citizens of his neighborhood have objected to interring the body in that vicinity. Its disposition has not as yet been determined upon. Dr. Cusick, of Salem, and Drs. Ellis Davis, Maston and Starr, of Albany, will make a critical autopsy of the brain.

His relatives refused to take possession of the body or bury it.

A HUNCHBACK HUNG. KALAMA, Wash., Jan. 31.—Charles A. Simus, a hunchback, was hanged here today for the murder of James Greenwood last September.

At exactly 9:30 Simus came out of his cell and walked between two deputy sheriffs up the steps of the scaffold. As soon as he was in position on the drop he commenced talking in a hesitating and disconnected manner.

His words were: "I must die, I am all right, sheriff he good man. I must die, I'm right." While he was saying this the deputies were busy strapping his arms and legs and adjusting the noose. With his last words Sheriff Watson touched the lever at 9:32, and the body dropped nine feet. He was pronounced dead at 9:36, and cut down at 9:47. Every detail passed off in the smoothest possible manner. Almost 30 people witnessed the execution, mostly sheriffs, doctors and newspaper men.

Battle Near Havana.

HAVANA, Jan. 30.—The sound of what appeared to be a serious engagement has been heard between Seborucal and La Cecilia. It is believed the fighting took place at the Saladrigas farm. Much firing or artillery was distinguished and it is supposed that the columns of Spanish troops commanded by Colonels Cannelas and Galbis have been engaged with the insurgents under General Gomez, who is making for the province of Pinar del Rio to reinforce the insurgents under Antonio Maceo.

Reports are in circulation here that Antonio Maceo is in sore straits, his following being scarce of both ammunition and provisions, and being obliged to slaughter their horses to eat. These reports are not to be traced to any authoritative source, and are in part based upon surmise.

There is no doubt that Gomez is making strenuous efforts to open a way through the military line along the railroad from Havana to Batabano, and it is said Maceo has sent several emissaries to Gomez appealing urgently to him for succor. In response to this appeal, Gomez has succeeded in passing the military line, but the authorities claim he has not been able to keep any line of retreat open for himself. Be that as it may, he is making progress westward, either with the purpose of joining Maceo or of creating a diversion in the north and drawing off the forces in pursuit of Maceo, while that leader works his way eastward in the south. The latter is regarded as the more probable course by observers here.

FLOCKING TO THE INSURGENTS.

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 31.—Two hundred and thirty Cuban refugees arrived today. Marcos Garcia, mayor of Sancto Espiritu, a prominent autonomist and a personal friend of Campos, has now gone with the insurgents. Since Campos' departure numbers have flocked to the insurgent banner. Maceo went into Pinar del Rio with 400 men, but now has 12,000. He is reported at Guints, where he has established a new city government.

The commander in charge of Atares castle, near Havana, was taken prisoner Monday and sent to Morro castle. He is suspected of selling guns and cartridges to the insurgents. Maceo is not wounded nor is Gomez suffering with consumption.

The Color Line.

BOSTON, Jan. 31.—Considerable suppressed excitement was noted in Christian Endeavor circles today as the result of the news that Bishop Arnett, of Ohio, who is here to attend the Christian Endeavor rally, had been refused admittance by three of Boston's leading hotels on account of his color, and vigorous denunciation of the management of the hotels in question was heard on every hand.

Galloway Gets There.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The president today nominated William Galloway receiver of public moneys at the Oregon City land office. Galloway was the last Democratic nominee for governor of Oregon.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Dupont Will Be Seated as Delaware's Senator.

SALEM PUBLIC BUILDING.

$100,000 for a Public Building at Oregon's Capital.

A BOND BILL VOTE IS FIXED.

The Test Vote on Silver Comes Off Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The senate committee on privileges and elections today decided to report in favor of seating Dupont the Republican senator from Delaware. The committee divided on strict party lines, being five for to four against.

PUBLIC BUILDING FOR SALEM.

The sub-committee of the house, public buildings and grounds have agreed to report favorably a $100,000 appropriation for a public building at Salem, Oregon.

THE BOND BILL.

The senate has agreed to vote on the silver bond bill at 1 o'clock tomorrow.

Rev. C. O. Brown Again.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—Rev. C. O. Brown did not make his confidential explanation of Miss Overman's letters to Mrs. Sarah Cooper yesterday. At the meeting of the First Congregational church last evening Brown said Mrs. Cooper should not condemn him until she had heard his version of the scandal precipitated by Mrs. Mary A. Davidson. Mrs. Cooper announced her willingness to hear him, and the minister agreed to make matters clear to her at his home this morning, an engagement for this meeting being publicly arranged.

The meeting, however, did not take place. Mr. Brown telephoned Mrs. Cooper, who is a sort of lay preacher and bible class teacher in the First Congregational church, that his attorneys had forbidden him to make his proposed explanation. As a result Mrs. Cooper's conviction of her pastor's culpability remains unchanged. She and other members will try to prevent Dr. Brown from preaching, pending the word of the council of investigation.

Furnace Explodes.

LEADVILLE, Col., Jan. 31.—The jacket of a blast furnace was blown out in the Arkansas valley smelter yesterday, allowing the red hot metal to escape. James Powers was badly cut and will die. B. Min had his face severely burned, and Michael Barbachop was slightly injured.

School Clerk Arrested.

SEATTLE, Jan. 31.—Harry F. Whitney, ex-secretary of the board of education, was arrested this morning charged with irregularities aggregating about $1,000. The arrest has caused a sensation.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—Rodney, the younger son of Dr. J. C. Shelton, is very ill at the family home on Front street, his ailment being pneumonia. Little hope is entertained for his recovery.

BILL OF SALE.—Mary M. Ray of Woodburn, doing business under firm name of W. M. Ray & Co., today put on file a bill of sale of all merchandise in the association building for the sum of $1200 to W. M. Ray.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE