THE TURKS WILL PAY

Russia to Restore Peace in Armenia.

NAVAL DEMONSTRATION.

Minister Terrell Demands Indemnity for Pillaging.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—A dispatch to the St. James Gazette from Washington says a correspondent of that paper has the highest authority for announcing that an entente between Russia and Turkey is known at the state department, and has had a most important effect in modifying the plan the administration had prepared to compel Turkey to pay indemnity for damage done to American property in Armenia. The correspondent says in spite of denials, he knows a naval demonstration was prepared. Secretary Olney entered into communication with Russia and Great Britain, asking if they would oppose action of the United States against Turkey.

Great Britain's reply, he says, was favorable, but Russia informed Olney she preferred there be no naval demonstration, as Russia was negotiating to bring about a restoration of order in Turkey.

De Kotschue, the Russian minister to the United States, is said to have informed Olney that Turkey would pay any indemnity required.

REPORTS FROM TURKEY.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—A dispatch from a Constantinople correspondent says: "Careful inquiry convinces me that the palace party set afloat the rumors of the Russo-Turkish alliance, in order to increase the distrust among the powers."

Sir Philip Currie, British ambassador at Constantinople, writes to the Daily News, denying a published statement that he was kept waiting for an hour in a cold ante-room when he went to deliver the queen's letter to the sultan.

A Constantinople dispatch says: "The reports from Turkish sources, believed to be fairly accurate, state that it is believed that Zeitounes are still holding out. The Turks have made several different attacks upon the town, but all have failed and their losses are reported to amount to 10,000. It is alleged that 50,000 troops will be needed to capture Zeitoun. It is believed the Zeitounes number from 15,000 to 20,000, are well armed and provisioned for a year. There is a doubtful report that 4,000 Russian Armenians crossed the Persian frontier and defeated the Turks at Sir, 18 hours from Zeitoun and have joined the Zeitounis."

DEMANDED INDEMNITY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 3.—The United States minister, Mr. Terrell, has demanded an indemnity of $100,000 for the burning and pillage of the American missions at Marash and Kharpout. He also asked for the immediate granting of firearms for rebuilding them.

Steamer in Distress.

ASTORIA, Ore., Feb. 3.—The steamer Columbia, from Portland, sailed this morning from Astoria, and when one mile outside was observed flying a flag of distress and blowing her whistles. The Columbine, a light-house tender, has gone to her assistance.

LATER.

At 2 p. m. the Columbia is being towed back into the river by the tugs Escort and Relief. It will reach Astoria about 4 p. m.

In the House

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—In house today the senate free coinage substitute for the house bond bill was referred to the ways and means committee.

STATE COMPETITION.

At Brick Making With Free Labor in California.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 3.—The governor and the attorney-general had quite a little controversy over different legal points, and the proceedings took more of the form of a free-and-easy conversation than it did of a dignified meeting of the "watch dogs of the treasury."

TO ASSIST ONE ANOTHER.

Governor Budd said he was in favor of using the bricks made at the Agnew and Napa Insane Asylums for the Glen Ellen and other institutions. He did not see why one state institution should not assist another. The Glen Ellen institution made good shoes, put up ham and bacon, others made brick, etc. He regarded the several state institutions somewhat like the combination system of stores. If one of the stores runs short of any class of goods, that was found in great quantities in another, they just called upon that stock. It was simply transferred from one to the other and their books showed no cash transaction, simply a debit and a credit.

FITZGERALD OPPOSED IT.

The attorney-general did not believe such transfers should be made. These institutions were maintained by the laboring classes who pay taxes, and he did not believe this insane asylum material should be thrown on the market as against that of free labor. Again, he did not believe a compelling crazy people to make brick, which he considered the hardest and most menial labor that could be imposed upon them. If the insane were sufficiently sane to run a brick yard then they should be sent home and no longer be a charge upon the state.

WORK FOR THEIR HEALTH

The governor said that this outdoor work and system of labor was for the health of the patients, and was directed by the Trustees and medical faculties of those institutions. He mentioned the case of one woman who had one crazy day each month. The other twenty-nine days she was as sane as any one. Many were similarly situated. They were not compelled to work hard, but a few brick made each day, by each of two or three hundred people amounted to a great deal. The product of their labor belonged to the state, and he believed the state should use the material so made at any and all the state institutions.

The governor said that at many of the asylums they could use these brick for homes for doctors and their families and this would so relieve the building that room would be made for several hundred more inmates. At Napa it would make room for nearly two hundred.

Mysterious Burial.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 3.—Waveland is all excitement over the mysterious burial of Dr. Columbus Moore, a former resident, who died recently in Chicago. The Chicago undertaker had telegraphed to Waveland that upon arrival of coffin it must be buried immediately and without opening it. This was done by lantern-light, upon arrival of the midnight train, but, when it was learned that Moore had died of a disease which had baffled the doctors and that he had been an invalid for years, the peculiar burial order aroused suspicion. It is thought the coffin did not contain any body, and it is very probable the coffin will be disinterred and an examination made.

Unitarian Church Burned.

BOSTON, Feb. 3.—Historic First Unitarian church on Meeting House hill, at Dorchester, a familiar landmark, burned today. The loss is estimated at $30,000, covered by insurance. Four firemen buried under the falling walls were rescued by comrades.

POLITICS AND CRIME

Lively Times in the Kentucky Deadlock.

ANTI-POOL SELLING BILL

Passes the Lower House in the Old Bourbon State.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 3.—Politicians are looking for lively times in Frankfort during the week as Senator Ogilvie (Dem.) who is ill, has arrived and Beckham (Dem.) who was elected Saturday to succeed Wilson, deceased, will come tomorrow.

This makes the assembly again a tie on joint ballot. It is thought the Republicans will report on the contestees Dunlap from Lexington, and Werner, unseating two Democrats and electing Hunter into the senatorship. The ballot today resulted: Hunter 55, Blackburn 46, scattering 11; necessary to choice 57.

A CHRISTIAN DUTY.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—President Cleveland sent a special message to congress today, asking that provision be made from the treasury for relief of families of Italian laborers recently lynched in Colorado.

DEATH TO POOLS.

FRANKFORT, Feb. 3.—The Grazienna bill, which prohibits pool selling in Kentucky, and which has been regarded as a death knell to horse racing in this state, passed the house today by a vote of 73 to 13.

A LYNCING CRIME.

KNOXVILLE, Feb. 3.—Developments today show that Lee Sellers, lynched here ten years ago, for the supposed murder and robbery of $1,000 from Edward Maines, was innocent. Lizzie Hickman on her deathbed confessed that Ike Wright, a notorious character, was the murderer. He is now being pursued by the officers.

THE FAIR WILL.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Suit over the estate of J. H. Fair was practically decided this morning. Superior Judge Slack declared the trust clause of Fair's will invalid, so far as it relates to real estate. All their is for heirs to fight over is the personal property of the estate.

McCarthy to Resign.

LONDON, Feb. 3.—It is announced that Justin McCarthy will resign the leadership of the Irish parliamentary party, at the meeting of that party, which has been called for Saturday next. When questioned regarding this report, Mr. McCarthy admitted it was his intention to resign, but he declined to give any details. It is understood, however, that he feels that his health is unequal to the arduous position, but he will retain his seat in parliament. It is believed Thomas Sexton will be invited to succeed Mr. McCarthy, and he will probably accept. John Dillon and Edward Blake are also spoken of for the position.

He Chose Suicide.

SEATTLE, Feb. 3.—A. A. Merrill, head of the local merchants' police patrol, committed suicide this morning by shooting his brains out. He was arrested Thursday morning last, charged with an unnamable offense and gave bonds Saturday evening in the sum of $500. He leaves property valued at $10,000.

A Missing Ship.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Forty per cent reinsurance was offered today on the British ship Cadzow Forest, blown off the bar of the Columbia river 23 days ago.

When the people pay $50 a month for a teacher they should not be served with a $90 one.

DR. BROWN IN CHURCH.

Did Not Attempt to Preach, But Addressed His Congregation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The Rev. C. O. Brown presided Sunday at the morning services in the First Congregational church, but he did not preach the sermon. He took occasion to address the congregation however, and to make it plain that in inviting Professor R. R. Lloyd to occupy his pulpit, he expressly reserved his right to resume the place at any time he saw fit. The doctor was precise and clear in explanation of his position. He knew, he stated, that some portion of the church, "a small minority," was shaken in their faith in him.

For this he did not blame them, and had no rancor in his heart toward them, but he wished it distinctly understood that his present abstention from preaching was only in deference to their opinion, not a waiver of his right to preach. He, and he alone, he concluded, was responsible for the invitation to Professor Lloyd. Then Dr. Brown stepped from the rostrum and took his seat in the body of the church.

A great many were disappointed at this turn of affairs, but very few of them were members of the church. Numbers of strangers had been attracted to the services, in the expectation that Dr. Brown would insist on exercising what he claims was his right to preach, and many members of the congregation had announced their intention to, and did, remain away, in the expectation that the pastor would do as he announced.

Reinforcements of strangers made up for the defection of members, so that when the organ pealed forth the processional, the church was pretty well filled. Noticeable in the congregation were several persons who had expressed their unalterable and powerful opposition to the pastor's reappearance in the pulpit. Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper was one of these. She came early—in the full expectation that Dr. Brown would carry out his decision of Wednesday night. Meyer Strauss and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Mason were also in attendance.

WHAT ARE WE COMING TO?

Abraham Lincoln thought Republicanism had something to do with government of the people, etc. But he is out of date. Republicanism must not emanate from the people. It must originate with the corporation lawyers and big office-holders of a large city to be the genuine thing.

The moment the people take a hand in shaping up Republicanism it becomes Populism, say the bosses. It is spurious if it has not the red seal and brand of professional officialism!

The plain people and men who cater to their tastes in public matters must be kept out as far as possible, or Republicanism will lose caste among the elect upper circles who alone are fit to shape party policies and select men for public office. What are we coming to in our politics, gentlemen?

THE CALL.

The San Francisco Call, an enterprising Republican paper is rapidly displacing the sensational dailies that flood Oregon at times. Six hundred copies were put in at Portland, 250 at Oregon City and 200 copies at Salem, as many at Corvallis and other valley towns. Mr. Shortridge, the editor, was for years a resident of Oregon but his paper is selling on merit alone.

The old jealousy ranking in the breast of Governor Fletcher, of the Post, has broken out again in an new attack on Flagg's personal appearance.

MANY MILES OF WATER.

The Brazos River Engaged in a Flood.

Twelve Miles Wide Where It Joins the Navasota.

FORT WORTH, Tex., Feb. 3.—The Brazos river is still rising. At Columbia it rose 15 feet in 36 hours, and its current is equal to that of a mountain stream.

Seven vessels belonging to the Columbia Transportation company were swept away. The river is out of its banks and sweeping over the surrounding country. Near Navasota the Brazos and Navasota rivers have united, and 12 miles wide. Two miles of the Sata Fe railroad track are submerged.

THE ROTTEN RECEIVERSHIPS.

Two years ago when THE JOURNAL was making its fight on the rotten receiverships of the Oregon Pacific, in the interest of a new deal for the laborers and material men. Some Corvallis lawyers and an Albany newspaper, called the editor a socialist and anarchist for it.

Now Referee Woodcock finds that what we charged was substantially true—that one receiver was $30,000 short in his accounts, that for nearly a year no reports were filed with Judge Fullerton, and that lawyers were hired and allowed to run up bills for hundreds of thousands of dollars unnecessarily.

It having been judicially determined that all that THE JOURNAL charged was true it will be in order for Judge Fullerton to make an entry on his court record that we are not a socialist, anarchist, etc.

TOO DEMOCRATIC.

We suppose it's all right, as intended by Providence, if Providence has descended so low as to meddle with politics, that two Republican papers in Oregon should be edited by Democrats. That is true of the Portland Oregonian and the Salem Statesman.

The Republican party is being served by these gentlemen as faithfully no doubt as Democrats who hire out to the other party can serve anyone. It is generally remarked that the Oregonian is doing all in its power to defeat the party in Oregon.

The leading men in the party, who have done the hard canvassing against Pennoyer, the Populists and Democrats in the past four years, are certainly coming in for a great deal of abuse from these Hessian Republicans. The worst of it is they talk reform and economy. It is too, too!

THE CLUB CONVENTION.

It has been decided that the state Republican club convention has no jurisdiction to pass upon questions of party policy. So there is nothing for the state convention at Portland to do but arouse party interest, strengthen the organization of the clubs, increase the partisan spirit and in that way contribute to party victory.

If the convention should declare itself on any subject in a way that did not suit the Oregonian, it would be declared it was not a Republican convention or that it was not Republicanism. So the Republicans who go down might as well keep still and await the action of the national convention.
