

BY HOFER BROTHERS.

FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1896.

COUNTY REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- Representatives, DR. J. N. SMITH, of Salem, H. L. BARKLEY, of Woodburn, E. W. CHAPMAN, of Brooks, M'KINLEY MITCHELL, of Gervais, DAVID CRAIG, of Macleay. County Judge, GROVE P. TERRELL, of Mehama. County Commissioner, J. N. DAVIS, of Silverton. County Clerk, L. V. EHLEN, of Butteville. Sheriff, F. T. WRIGHTMAN, of Salem. Recorder, F. W. WATERS, of Salem. Assessor, J. W. HOBART, of Garfield. Surveyor, B. B. HERRICK, of Yew Park. Treasurer, JASPER MINTO, of Salem. School Superintendent, GEO. W. JONES, of Jefferson. Coroner, A. M. CLOUGH, of Salem.

SIMON'S OLD GAME.

Jo. Simon is chairman of the Multnomah county central committee. As chairman he calls the primaries, appoints the judges and clerks, fixes the hours and places, and they are to be conducted under his own law to regulate city primaries, passed in the legislature of 1891.

With all these advantages in his favor; with a law in his hands that does not require his officers of primaries to preserve the ballot; with a law that makes any list of voters certified or list of delegates elected final, and gives the citizen no recourse, he goes into a fight for the political control of that city and county, and through that means to force himself to the head of the delegation to the national convention.

A PREDICTION.

It looks now as if the Republican state convention might go for free silver. Jackson county has started the boom that way, and Marion's convention indicates a similar tendency. The fight on behalf of Senator Mitchell, at Woodburn, led by Rev. Barkley resulted in a pronounced victory over the Dolph faction led by W. L. Toose. In almost every contest the silver men carried the day.—Roseburg Review (Dem.)

There will be no free silver fight in the Republican state convention, nor any anti-Dolph fight. The state convention will not on the other hand endorse the single gold standard, nor send goldite delegates to the national convention. It will send a delegation favorable to silver, to genuine bimetalism, to represent Western Republicanism aggressively.

WHAT IT MEANS.

The Marion county Republican legislative ticket means one thing: Economy in the state government, economy in the county government. The men put on that ticket stand personally pledged to that.

Messrs. Smith, Barkley, Craig, Chapman and Mitchell will be found a unit on all questions of moral progress, economy reform and vital issues in the interest of the people.

They are men of character whose one ambition will be to make a good record for themselves and not oppress the people with jobbery or extravagance.

MANLY VIGOR

ONCE MORE in harmony with the world, 2000 completely cured men are singing happy praises for the greatest, grandest and most successful cure for sexual weakness and lost vigor known to medical science. An inviolable discovery in book form, with references and proofs, will be sent to suffering men, sealed free. Full manly vigor permanently restored. Failure impossible. ERIE MEDICAL CO., BUFFALO, N.Y.

HARVEY SCOTT A DEMAGOG.

In whatever state of incertitude it pleases Governor McKinley to leave his position upon the money question, it grows more and more clear with every state convention that, if he shall be nominated for president at St. Louis, he will stand upon a sound-money platform; that is, upon a plain gold-standard platform, distinctly condemning free coinage of silver, and susceptible of no such double meaning as was put upon the platform of 1892.—Oregonian.

Yet the platform plank on money of 1892 was reported by Harvey Scott as chairman of the Oregon state Republican convention of 1894.

It was good enough to win the greatest Republican victory every won in Oregon. Now it is "susceptible of a double meaning." Whatever other things it could be construed to mean, it did mean bimetalism and did declare for the use of both gold and silver as standard money.

CONTESTING DELEGATIONS.

There will be nearly two hundred contesting delegates in the national Republican convention. These contests grow out of corrupt manipulation of the primaries and conventions from New York to California, the gravest evil of our national life.

From New York there will be a complete set of contestants—Platt and McKinley delegates. In Texas and other states bloody battles have been fought over the delegations. The end may be bloodshed and disruption of the convention.

The contestants will be seated by the national committee composed of one from each state. A seat and a vote on that committee is worth a fortune. The battle will be fought to a finish, and will demonstrate that the greatest national issue is purification of the primaries.

THE POLK COUNTY FIGHT.

The political battle in Polk county is red hot. The Portland ring slate is Smith or Mulkey for senator, Ed. T. Hatch, of McCoy, and Mr. Van Ness, of Independence, for representatives. Ed. T. Hatch is national committee man for Alaska, and as a senator was a staunch Jo Simon man. Some of these men profess to be Mitchell men. They are secretly for the old ring, for Dolph. They were all at Salem last winter lobbying for Dolph. The people of Polk county should turn out at the primaries and keep them at home. Put ring men on the ticket some other time.

County politics are so hot in this county among the Republicans that there will be no fight for congressional delegates. "Hands off" has been ordered, and that will adjust itself afterwards. The delegation will lie between Hermann and Ford here as it will on the 7th. One will be the nominee. The Democrat predicts Hermann. Should it be Ford, as he is as ardent a free silver man as Hermann, though silent now, what will the Oregonian say?—Albany Democrat.

A private telegram received from Binger Hermann announces that he has succeeded in putting Yaquina Bay and Yamhill and Willamette river improvements under the contract system. This means much for the Willamette valley, as it insures immediate completion as recommended by the engineer for these improvements.

The Salem Statesman is a big, influential paper, but it has yet to learn that it can't beat both a popular man and nominate his successor, too.

Harvey Scott: You can't down a man in the Republican party because he is a silver man.

Little Jo Simon was sat on hard in old Marion.

Bronchitis Cured. MAOLEAY, Or., Jan. 30, 1896.—After having the grip I was left with rheumatism and bronchitis. The doctor cured the rheumatism, but my throat was still in a bad condition. My mother had been using Hood's Sarsaparilla and I thought I would try it. After I had taken one bottle of this medicine my throat was all right. Mrs. Emma C. Smeral.

NOTES ON THE SITUATION.

[BY A BYSTANDER.] Marion county has no boss.

Rev. Belknap had been in the legislature once too often.

Elder Barkley is one man Joe Simon fears in Oregon.

The Statesman has beaten Mr. Hermann. No one else did it.

It is learned that the next governor of Oregon is a member of the Illihee club.

Where are the Woodburn twin politicians now? Supporting the straight ticket, of course.

Rev. Harry Rattlebrain Watkins—a good fellow—will tell stories at Reed's opera house tonight.

Good men who secure a nomination on a good ticket no longer need to hire a newspaper to elect them.

Elder Barkley won a big victory at Woodburn over the single gold standard and single boss crowd.

Farmer Whitney and Barron and Corby in town taught the Woodburn politicians a much needed lesson.

It is whispered that Gardner Fones and Taylor Lane had something to do with making up the Republican ticket.

Jap Minto made an honorable fight for a Mitchell legislative ticket. He is also a county treasurer without any strings on him.

The Statesman is kicking about Binger Hermann using his frank. So long as it brings good news, dear brother, don't cry.

General Weaver's gospel of the poor sounds well coming from a lawyer who has always lived well and never worked for a living.

Joe Simon, of Portland, is running the primaries down there just as his henchmen wanted them run at Salem but it didn't work. It is predicted it will not work there.

There is still an opportunity left for Mr. Dolph to move to make Mr. Mitchell's election unanimous before it is done by the people. When did Mr. Dolph do a gracious or graceful thing?

Judging by the noise in the newspapers, State Land Agent Davenport is recovering millions of acres of school lands to the people. It was thought by some that Jack D'Arcy had got away with all these.

Christians and white men in Oregon politics. Isn't Elder Barkley a more decent man to send as a delegate to the national Republican convention than that notorious corporation trickster Jo Simon, of Portland? Then let's send him.

The more opposition Binger Hermann has the harder he works. He should be called Beaver Hermann. But the shaking up he has got in Marion county will hurt nothing. It has already got the Willamette river under the contract system.

General Weaver has not yet recovered from his old carelessness in handling figures. He made many good points, but marred it by saying that a quarter of a billion of bonds have been issued to supply a deficit of $37,000,000 in the government revenues. General Weaver's contribution to the cause of labor has been to raise a son who is a sharp corporation lawyer in the city of Des Moines.

An old farmer said to a young Salem lawyer the other day: "If I were in your place I'd keep out of politics about ten years. Don't even mention the word. Stick close to your profession for that time and you will regain your reputation in the community, your standing in the profession, the respect of the people, and your really great political talents can be used to better advantage. You have been in too many jobs, and you'll be hanging around the next legislature for another."

Governor Budd of California has broken the record for nepotism. He has now eight of his relatives on the public payrolls. That beats some Oregon talent. It is to be remarked that Governor Lord has appointed no relatives to office; neither has Kincaid, as his assistant secretary, Mr. C. M. Lockwood, is his wife's nephew, but had a claim on the place by fighting his way into the county convention, and having been instrumental in helping to nominate Mr. Kincaid. Nepotism is a corrupt influence in the public service. Men should win their way to promotion on merit and by bearing their part as men in practical politics.

THE DU PONT CASE.

Close of Senator Mitchell's Great Speech in the Senate, March 4-5.

In conclusion, Mr. President, and begging pardon for having trespassed so long upon the patience of the senate, I confidently submit this case to the calm, deliberate judgment of the senate, trusting and believing, as I do, that the judgment rendered will fully vindicate the integrity of that great American doctrine which recognizes the complete independence of the different departments of the governments of the several states, and of the United States as well; and the preservation and perpetuity of which, against all undue encroachments of executive power, are so essential to the preservation and perpetuity of political and individual liberty in this country. If, unfortunately, the day should ever come when in an unguarded moment the senate of the United States should give its sanction to a relaxation of the restraints which hold in proper subjection the executive prerogative, and which in the interest of liberty and good government disunite executive and legislative powers, and give its consent to a unity of exercise in the same person of the respective functions of two or more of what are now and ever should be the independent departments of national and state governments, then from that date will commence the decadence of political and individual liberty in this country.

The strife for the extension of executive power on the one hand, and for the curtailment of constitutional limitations and restraints upon the power of the people and the people's representatives on the other, has been a contest longer in duration than that of any war of either ancient or modern times. It has been the contest of ages, extending into all nations and spreading throughout all Christendom. It has been the contest of liberty against prerogative; of the struggle for legislative independence against the grasping tendencies and unwarranted encroachments of executive power; a contest which at times, as we have been told, has "written the history of a whole age of blood," destroying with its consuming fires the brightest and best hopes of myriads of the host of freedom, and wrecking upon its devastating floods the worst and loftiest aspirations of the friends of individual and political liberty.

To hold that the governor of a state can exercise simultaneously the functions of executive and legislator is, unfortunately, to array the senate on the wrong side of this mighty contest. Such a decision would, in my judgment, be a departure from one of the great fundamental principles of Republican and Democratic government—an unwarranted concession to the ever-grasping claims of executive power over the rights of the masses of people and the peoples' representatives and a dangerous stab at the very vitals of the great doctrine upon which our government and the governments of the several states rest—that of the complete independence of their legislative, executive, and judicial departments.
