

That

Extreme tired feeling afflicts nearly everybody at this season. The hustlers cease to dash, the tireless grow weary, the energetic become enervated. You know just what we mean. Some men and women endeavor temporarily to overcome that

Tired

Feeling by great force of will. But this is unsafe, as it pulls powerfully upon the nervous system, which will not long stand such strain. Too many people "work on their nerves," and the result is seen in unfortunate wrecks marked "nervous prostration," in every direction. That tired

Feel-

ing is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, and vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is, therefore, apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember that

LITERARY NEWS.

Notes and Comments on new Books and Periodicals.

The most important literary paper published this year appears in the April Harper, George W. Smalley's "Lowell in England."

Scraper's Magazine for April has noteworthy illustrated articles on Sir Frederick Leighton, Prof. Andrews History of the Last Quarter of a Century, and a Day at Olympia. "The History of Modern Journalism," by a new writer is one of the most philosophic considerations of the subject that has ever appeared.

The Kindergarten Magazine for March is "Chips from the Daily Workshop" number. Important papers are on Meri Toppins, Manual Training in London, Pestalozzi's Celebration in Berlin, Froebel Congress, in Budapest, International Kindergarten Union and Mother-play studies. Chicago, $2 a year.

Macmillan & Co. have just published their first volume of their new edition of Gibbons' Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire. The work, which will be completed in seven volumes, is edited with introduction, notes, appendices and index, by J. B. Bury, M. A., professor of Modern History in Dublin university, and author of the important History of Later Roman Empire.

Macmillan & Co. have in press an exceedingly interesting work, which, under the title Brother and Sister, comprises the letters that passed between Ernest Renan and his sister, Henriette during the crucial period of Renan's life. The correspondence is preceded by an exact reproduction of the Memoir of Henriette Renan, written by her brother for private distribution just after her death. The Memoir and letters are translated by Lady Mary Loyd.

We have read Balzac's work, "The Wild Ass's Skin," and while it does not have all the elasticity of the "Le Pen de Chagrin" itself, we doubt if it is worth the time it takes any man of woman to read it. There are many other and more satisfactory literary productions. Balzac in some respects surpasses Victor Hugo and Dumas, but not in purity of style, elevation of thought, or entertaining quality.

The Overland for April comes out in good season and has a table of contents that will add to the growing popularity of the west coast favorite. The frontispieces are four remarkable specimens of the art reproductive. The "Balboa Sea" is an exquisite thought and wave picture, and the sketches that illustrate the poem "Evada" are delicate and delicately colored. Raschen's painting, "Lily," a charming composition, and J. D. King's head of a Samoan girl is strikingly beautiful. The painter, Henry Raschen, is the subject of the article in the Overland's art series, which is richly illustrated with varied examples of the artist's handiwork.

"Bullet and Shell," by Major George Williams, of the 15th and 16th regiments N. J. Infantry, a famous correspondent and author of the Memorial War Book, is published by Fords, Howard, & Hilbert, and is richly illustrated from sketches of the actual scenes made by Ed. Forbes, also a renowned war correspondent. This volume is warmly recommended by General Sherman and General George B. McClellan.

It contains 554 pages of real life and experience and is as fascinating as Melroy's "Andersonville." For old soldiers, young men or reading for boys we know of no volume that begins to compare with "Bullet and Shell" as a living picture of the greatest struggle in history. Convoys who want a book that will sell all the year around should get agencies.

SURPRISE FOR BOOK LOVERS.
The "Literary Revolution" which accomplished such astonishing results in reducing the cost of high-class literature a few years ago seems to be coming to the front again. Alden, the leader, like most pioneers, met with some reverses, but is up and at it again, recently sending out a flood of announcements that must exceedingly please book lovers. One of his glad surprises is an excellent and handsome edition of Holmes' "Autocrat of the Breakfast Table," reduced in price from $2 to 35 cents, though hardly at all inferior to the high-priced edition in quality. The "Autocrat" is famous as one of the wittiest and wisest of books written by an American author, and every intelligent American wants to read it. You can get particulars free by addressing John B. Alden, Publisher, New York.

McClure's magazine never fails to make good its special claim of timeliness. The April number has for frontispiece an excellent portrait of Professor Rontgen, whom the German emperor has, within these few days, made a baron for his marvelous discovery of the cathode rays; and the leading article is almost the first account yet given of Professor Rontgen, as seen in his own laboratory in the actual conduct of his experiments. It is the record of a visit undertaken by a special representative of the magazine, immediately on the announcement of the discovery, and reports from Professor Rontgen's own lips the way in which he made it, and his opinion of its nature and bearing. The article is illustrated with numerous photographs by the new process, as is also a supplementary article on "The Rontgen Rays in America."

LIVING TOPIC MAGAZINE.
A really unique publication, of rare interest and value to all intelligent readers, as a free sample copy which the publisher offers will quickly convince you. It deals only with such facts in current events and the world's progress in all departments of knowledge as one would expect to find recorded in a first-class cyclopedia were it up-to-date—which no cyclopedia is or possibly can be, because of its magnitude and cost; and yet the average reader inquires more concerning things of the past three years than concerning the preceding three centuries. Topics are treated in alphabetical order, and as often as the alphabet is covered a new series will begin and the same course be resumed. The first series will be completed within the present year—approximately 1000 pages, all for the surprisingly low price of $1. John B. Alden, Publisher, New York.
