CHRISTIAN OR COSSACK? Simon or Anti-Simon to the Death. A HOBO OR AMERICAN? Which Shall Rule in This State? A FIERCE BATTLE IS RAGING In the Multnomah County Republican Convention.

[The public knows that the Oregonian's news about the Portland Republican primaries and county convention is purposely distorted and absolutely unreliable. It is falsified in all details in the interest of the Simon-Scott Reform gang.]

MULTNOMAH COUNTY CONVENTION. PORTLAND, April 4. (Associated Press.)—The same disgraceful fight which characterized the Republican primaries last Thursday, is being continued today at the county convention, which is now in session at the A. O. U. W. hall.

THE DEADLOCK CONTINUES. At 1 o'clock the convention was still deadlocked. An effort was made to compromise by electing George H. Williams temporary chairman, but without avail.

Verdict Against Seduction. PORTLAND, April 4.—The jury in case of F. C. Mossman against Captain Charles Hill, a well known steamboat man, for $25,000 damages for seducing Mossman's wife, brought in a verdict today for $2500 in favor of Mossman.

EASTER GREETINGS. [BY A BYSTANDER] Keyt will fly high in Folk. A state platform: Jo Simon and reform. Representative Hope—anti-Dolph—is re-nominated.

A HERMANN ROORBACK. An alleged "Hermann circular" was sent through the mails today, couched in lofty language of affected patriotism, calling on all citizens to save their country from the shiny folds of the monster British gold python.

CONGRESS CLATTER. Polk County instructs for Warren Truitt. RESULT IN LANE COUNTY. All the News Up to the Hour of Going to Press.

ROSEBURG, April 4, 3:22 p. m.—(Special to The Journal.)—Can only say that so far as known here Hermann is largely ahead in the district. Jackson county got in line today. (Signed.) D. S. K. BRICK.

THE TILLAMOOK HEADLIGHT. The candidate for Joint Representative is not pledged as far as the U. S. Senatorial question is concerned. T. B. Handy makes an excellent chairman, and a speech delivered by him in his opening address was well taken.

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE. Proceedings of the Convention—Sunday's Program. Preparatory to the opening of the annual conference of the United Evangelical church, in this city some five or six junior preachers were examined Friday.

CHEMAWA INDIAN SCHOOL. United States Supervisor Heinemann on the Progress of the Indians. A. Heinemann of Washington, D. C., United States Supervisor of Indian education, was at San Francisco March 20th, having arrived from Oregon, Washington and others of the Northwestern states.

MARRIED. SNYDER—JORY.—At the Girard house, April 3, 1896, at 8 p. m. by Rev. D. B. Gray, of Portland, Josie Snyder to Edwin Jory.
