Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recomending Dr. King's new discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was passor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeding La Grippe, Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interuption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend reco if she could not survive them. A friend reco-mended Dr. King's New discovery; it was FINE LAWNS. - The mammoth lawns at the S. P. passenger depot are now receiving their spring dressing. Foreman Prunty has his Celestials mow the grass after which he goes over them with a fine tooth comb. He is bound to make them a thing of beauty, and proposes to demonstrate the value of elbow greas to that end.

The Salem lawyer who wants to retain about $1,500 as his fee for collecting $9,000 delinquent taxes for this county from the Oregon Pacific says this has been the custom for twenty years. It has made a few men who practice this custom wealthy. Such men live in magnificent residences become bankers as it were, but even that does not make it right. Such customs, if they exist, should be wiped out root and branch.
