SOCIETY CHRONICLE.

W. L. Simeral, of Macleay, was in town today.

Miss Angie McCully left today for a little visit at her old farm home near Hillsboro.

Grandma E. N. Cooke left for Ellensburg, Wash., yesterday to be gone a month.

Mrs. G. F. Russell, of Halsey, returned this morning, after a short visit in Salem.

Mrs. J. B. Kelly is visiting relatives near Gervais, expecting to return in about a week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ashby returned from a visit to C. P. Clover at Albany yesterday. They expect to go to California April 15.

Miss Lena Eddy returned to Portland this morning where she is attending school, after a visit with her uncle, Wm. Higley.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Power, of Halsey, returned this morning, after visiting their brother, Frank Power, of the Salem Water company.

Miss Winifred Dayton, left yesterday for an extended visit at Spokane Falls. She was accompanied from Portland by Miss Dehart of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Werner Breyman started out this morning on their six months' tour of the east and Europe. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown.

St. Joseph's hall Monday evening was crowded to its utmost capacity by people wishing to hear the play, "The Great Catastrophe." The young ladies and gentlemen acquitted themselves admirably and all were more than pleased with the entertainment. Mrs. Kirk sang a solo and Miss Maude Miller gave a humorous recitation. Miss Ida Adolph played a zither solo which was also greatly appreciated. The society cleared $35.75 which will be used to improve the cemetery south out of the city.

A COSTUME PARTY.
Friday evening the good people of East Salem will give an interesting entertainment at Central chapel. A good program will be rendered including numbers represented in colonial costumes. Admission 10 cents. All invited.

OFF FOR HEPPIER.
Mr. and Mrs. Major Dennis, of East Salem, left overland Monday morning for Heppner, Eastern Oregon, where they will remain during the wool clipping season. Mr. Dennis is an expert wool clipper and makes an annual trip to Eastern Oregon at this season.

"TINA."
Reed's opera house was well packed, last evening, with an audience that thoroughly appreciated "Tina" placed on the boards by Miss Gracie Plaisted and her musical comedy company. Probably, without any exception, there never was a performance given in this city that gave so universal satisfaction. Miss Plaisted, of course, is the principal attraction, but it is to her credit that her support is excellent throughout. Not only was the acting good, but the singing throughout was far ahead of anything heard here for years. This is said conscientiously, and the company is entitled to a generous patronage by our people. The company appears tonight in the play "The Gutta Percha Girl." Tickets at Dearborn's.

THIRTY DAYS.—Marion Porter, of Aumsville, was cited before Justice Johnson this morning at 7 o'clock, on the charge of stealing a watch of Walter Shaff, of Aumsville, last Wednesday. It was worth about 75 cents to $1 in cash, but valuable as a keepsake. The boy is 17 years old, and pleaded guilty. He is a nephew of John H. Porter, but has made his home with G. W. Loftus, his mother having married about six months ago. He is a good, industrious boy, but has been drifting about and in bad company of late. He will serve 30 days.

FOUR FOR A QUARTER.—At a recent entertainment three children were admitted for a quarter. But Branson & Co. sell four cans of corn or four cans of tomatoes for 25 cents. All other groceries in proportion. Clean goods and the lowest prices.

Elder Barkley ought not go to Portland where Harvey Scott lives.

THE THIRD DISTRICT.

Nominations were closed at 5 p. m., and the first ballot was ordered taken. It was announced amid great applause and cheering on the Hermann side because he led all the rest. It was also applauded because it showed that he lacked seven votes of enough to nominate him.

The first five ballots were as follows:

	1	2	3	4	5
Hermann	55	52	51	49	46
Tongue	28	29	28	30	31
Ford	18	20	21	21	22
Miller	10	10	13	13	15
Truitt	11	11	8	9	8

After this balloting continued to 7 o'clock without perceptible changes, except that Hermann ran down to 40 and then rose to 49 before recess. The chairman declared the adjournment in a very arbitrary manner. The balloting was resumed at 8 o'clock, and none but delegates and tellers admitted to the floor of the convention.

SOME MORE BALLOTS.

BALLOTS.

	Tongue	Hermann	Ford	Miller	Truitt
7	40	34	20	19	9
8	35	42	21	16	8
9	33	47	21	16	8
10	30	49	22	18	8
11	35	43	23	13	8
12	35	40	21	14	8
13	36	37	23	13	8
14	39	33	23	10	9
15	37	35	21	17	8
16	43	31	14	22	8
17	60	32	8	22	8
18	83	31	5	1	5

Vawter and Geer got two and three votes each as feelers. Tongue's nomination was made unanimous and the best of good feeling prevailed to the end. Speeches were made by Tongue, Ford and Miller.

Senator Galbraith of McMinnville and Judge Moore of Klamath were chosen district delegates to the national convention. Both are for McKinley for President. The convention adjourned at midnight.
