THE LEAGUERS ADJOURN.

Briri Report of Their Proceedings Sunday.

The Leaguers held a sunrise prayer meeting at 6:30 Sunday morning and within the First Methodist church.

Rev. Somerville conducted services at 10:30 Sunday morning in which he presented the object of the Leaguers very effectively.

The anthem by the choir under Prof. Heritage was grand and well held in the M. E. church in which Endeavor societies participated. The meeting was led by W. C. Hawley and was a grand success. A delegate from the Eugene chapter spoke along the line of chris-university, was intensely interesting.

His subject was "Christ or Diana."
We hereby endorse the action of our sena-President McDaniels, of the Portland hands and singing "Blest Be the Tie that Binds," the convention was dismissed by prayer,

Most of the delegates left for their various homes today.

Again Salem has been visited by a band of Christian young people who have left a wonderful influence behind them.
