HE STOLE CLOTHES.

A Petty Larcenist Brought Back to Salem.

"Doc" Powell of Oregon City, who was employed for some time on the state fair ground race track, skipped the town about April 1st with a coat and vest belonging to one Geo. McDonald, who has some race horses there.

"Doc" was located at Oregon City and arrested Saturday by Chief of Police Burns, and turned over to Chief Dilley of Salem, who arraigned him before Judge Edes this afternoon, as this report goes to press. He will probably be bound over to the grand jury.

SQUIBBEL HILL SCHOOL.—County School Superintendent Graham has granted the prayer of the petitioners from district No. 25, who desire a division of that district, and made an official record of the change. This is the section where the school house burned a few weeks ago and where a disagreement arose between the patrons over the site for a new structure.

FOR LARCENY.—Chief of Police Dilley went to Oregon City Sunday morning to get Doc Powell, an 18 year old boy, under arrest in that city, and wanted here to answer to the charge of the larceny of an overcoat from a man named McDonald residing at the fair grounds.

INCORPORATIONS.—The First Presbyterian church of Portland has today filed supplementary articles, providing for seven trustees and $150,000 capital stock, each member and pew-holder to have one vote in church affairs. Also the J. W. Moore & Co. of Portland has filed articles for buildings and elevators, stock $2500.

NEW WALK.—Archie Mason, who has the contract for the new concrete sidewalk around the Marion county court house, commenced work this morning with a force of men on the north side of the square.

"OVER THE HILL".—To the poorhouse is where Chas. Roberts, the partner of the man, who died on the Croisan place about six weeks since, was today ordered sent to the poorhouse by County Judge Hubbard.

SOCIETY CHRONICLE.

Mrs. D. S. Niely, of The Dalles, returned home today.

C. V. Hellenbrand returned to Albany on the morning train.

Mrs. Cornell, matron of the state insane asylum, spent Sunday at Jefferson.

Mrs. Z. F. Moody went to Portland, taking her little grandson, Frank to his home.

Will James a student at Willamette University, spent Sunday with relatives at Brooks.

Hon. J. M. Brown, of Morrow county, is a guest of Prof. Z. M. Parvin, on Observatory hill.

J. J. Dalrymple and wife are very proud over the arrival of their first grandson at the home of Dr. John Griffith.

Mrs. O. L. Darling, wife of the S. P. baggage master, spent Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hinkle, at Hubbard.

The bloomer has budded but never blown. It don't go. In short, the new woman doesn't take kindly to pants. She is the same old girl.

Mrs. J. R. Davis and Mrs. Frank Porter, who were guests of Geo. W. Davis and family, during the League convention, returned to Shedd's today.

Rev. W. T. Wardle, of Mizpah Presbyterian church, Portland, preached morning and evening at the First Presbyterian church to large audiences.

Mrs. Minto, wife of our present (and next) county treasurer, who had been visiting at the beautiful farm homes of the Stelwer brothers, returned to Salem Wednesday.—Jefferson Review.

Rev. C. C. Poling has been appointed pastor of the United Evangelical church, Portland. Rev. Poling was president of the college at Lafayette, and is a man of great eloquence and learning. He has also a splendid cultivated voice.

Rev. J. P. Farmer, of the First Baptist church of Salem, is one of the "Good Citizenship" speakers at the state Christian Endeavor meeting at Oregon City. He is a practical man in his religion as well as in business and politics.

A. Bradish, of Decorah, Iowa, arrived in the city this morning from California, where he has been spending the winter. Mr. Bradish stopped off at Salem for a short visit with Dr. R. Cartwright before continuing his journey home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yearly and daughter Luella, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in the city this morning to visit their niece, Mrs. E. T. Barnes. They are making a tour of the West visiting relatives and friends in the various cities of the coast states.

This morning, Mrs. Holton, superintendent of the orphans' home, turned over to its mother a little two-year-old tot that had been at the home for twenty months. The little one came there when it was three months old and weighed but five pounds. From this puny existence it has grown into a thrifty child, the life and joy of the household. As the train pulled out, and the matron wanted it a last farewell, it was heart breaking to see the dear little one repulse its own mother and scream to return to the home of its adoption, and the only mother it had ever known.

THE ORIENT.—Rev. C. F. Coffin of Chicago will give an address this Monday evening at 7:30, at the Friends' church, in Highland. The subject of his address will be "The Orient and Foreign Lands." Mr. Coffin has traveled a great deal, has seen much of the world, and is an excellent speaker. All are kindly invited. Seats free.

SURPRISE PARTY.—Last Saturday night another one of those delightful surprise parties occupied the few hours of evening at the home of Miss Estella Churchill in North Salem. A number of her friends had been together and planned this surprise, which was carried out successfully. Among those present were Lucia Cochran, Carrie Campbell, Maud Hunt, Zula Hunt, Mattie Hunt, Linnie Rundlett, Mae Rundlett, Allie

Crossan, Estella Churchill, Ed. R. Carter, J. W. King, Sam Rundlett, Geo. Dunsford, J. H. Campbell, Andrew Campbell, Jerry King, Ralph King, A. G. Crossan, Gates Cochran, R. C. Churchill, W. E. Churchill.

UNITARIAN SOCIAL.

Only happy people were present at Channing hall last Friday evening, judging from the pleasant faces, and good cheer pervading the assembly. After partaking of a substantial supper, for which the ladies of Unity church are particularly noted in serving, the audience were entertained by an interesting program. Without the stiff formality of arranging seats, each one enjoyed the company of his or her particular friends by having the privilege of arranging themselves in social groups, or as best suited their fancy. An instrumental duet by Mrs. E. B. Piper and Miss Carrie Willis announced the commencement of the entertainment, consisting of a cantata, "Grandma's Birthday," rendered by the young people of the church. Mrs. Willis was the dearest of old-time grandmas, in "cap and kerchief." Her grandchildren came with flowers to "crown the grandma queen," and with song and recitations make her 81st birthday a merry one. Vocal duets by the Misses Connie Holland and Carrie Hurst, Carrie Willis and Georgie Davenport. Miss Davenport has a beautiful alto voice, distinctly heard in these choruses of 14 voices. Stella Hurst recited Longfellow's "Children's Hour" in a pleasing voice and manner. The solos by little Katie and Emma Godfrey, the latter the youngest of the group, was true to nature in her "Sleepy Song." Gains Ford sustained his part well as accompanist, also in a piano solo. The last number of the program was well rendered, and exceedingly appreciated by the audience, a guitar quartette, by the Misses Sperry and Haas, Messrs. Thiel and Murphy, who were obliged to respond twice to a hearty encore. The ladies of the Unity church say, nothing preventing the next monthly entertainment will be the finest ever given by a local organization in the city. Be prepared for it.

O. S. I. A. ITEMS.—Some of the former employees of the O. S. I. A. have found positions at the Blackfoot asylum in Idaho.

L. W. Bailey, one of the asylum's most popular employees, left Saturday for a 10 days' vacation east of the mountains.

Miss Powers of Albany, Miss Kate Patterson and Messrs. Lester Hullin and Homer Keeney of Eugene were the guests of Mrs. D. A. Paine Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Martin, the night watchwoman at the asylum, has been made happy the past week by a visit from her daughter, Miss Ida, a former employe at the same institution.

PERSONAL.

Chas. Ford was an Albany visitor today.

John G. Wright went to Portland today.

G. O. Bozorth is a Portland visitor today.

COUNTY CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Called to Meet by Chairman Davis at Salem.

Chairman of the Republican County Central Committee Geo. W. Davis, has sent out notices calling the county central committee to meet at Salem on Saturday April 25th at 2 p. m. in the hall upstairs in the Postoffice block, over Journal office.

The candidates on the county ticket are requested to be present and consider ways and means of making an effective campaign. Chairman Davis will make a vigorous canvass and is the right man in the right place. He has not yet chosen a secretary but will do so after conferring with the committee.

In-door Baseball.

The Salem militia boys played the Albany militia boys a match game of baseball at the latter place Saturday night, in which there was unusual interest, and, of course, the Salem boys came out ahead. The score stood 16 to 14 at the close, but by far the greatest point in favor of the Salem club was the fact that they shut out their opponents on the last five innings. On the fourth inning the score stood 14 to 4 in favor of Albany, and only remarkable playing won the game. On the last half of the ninth the Albany club had two men on bases and no one out. When the Salem battery got in its fine work. A liner was hit to Frank Tichenor who put it to second making a fine double play. The next out was the fourth man up who hit a foul to Will Bachelor, and that ended the game with as big a crowd at the opera house and as much applause and enthusiasm as at the Republican convention. Sympathy was with the home team but the finish won the Salem boys the most generous approbation of all present.

The positions were played as follows: SALEM. ALBANY. Catcher.....Stellmaker. Tichenor.....p.....Fuller. Dickey.....r.....Welch. Taylor.....l.....Westbrook. Towne.....b.....Hubert. Hall.....2 b.....Stewart. Bushnell.....3 b.....Phillips.

Smith, substitute for Salem. After the game the Albany militia boys took the winning club to the Russ house and gave them a banquet, and entertained them to a late hour and also treated them handsomely until they left town.

Horticultural Session.—The state board of horticulture is today holding its regular semi-annual meeting in the horticultural room at the state house. The board is composed of the following members, all of whom are present: J. R. Cardwell, Portland, president; Geo. A. Hobbs, Milton; J. R. Casey, Ashland; Chas. L. Dalley, Salem; Emile Shanno, The Dalles; H. E. Dosch, Hillsboro; John Minto, secretary, Salem. There is no special business before the meeting, and the session is rather informal. The board will probably visit the large Wallace orchard and other points of interest, and discuss matters of a practical character.

Chris. Franks Dead.—Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock occurred the funeral services of the late Christopher Franks. Deceased was a native of Germany, and had lived in Salem eleven years. He died a single man, having no relatives except two brothers and two sisters still living in Europe. During the nine years previous to his death deceased had been engaged in the concrete and cement business, as a partner of John Heidecker. He was considered a superior mechanic, and had a warm circle of friends among the German-American citizens of Salem, among whom he was known as a true friend.

A MODEL ROAD.—Work was begun today on a new road to be built by the state between the state reform school and asylum cottage farms, out of a $5,000 appropriation by the last legislature. The road is to be built with convict labor and will be the first piece of state road built in Oregon. Jesse Macy and Archie Mason will be in charge of the work. With unlimited laborers and plenty of money to oversee the construction there is no reason why the state should not build a model piece of good road. There is a rock crusher and plenty of good material, including drain tile, to make a piece of road that should prove an object lesson for road building to all the people of Oregon. It is hard to see why the state should not first build a road to the reform school. That would be far more useful.

Perfect Wisdom.—Would give us perfect health. Because men and women are not perfectly wise, they must take medicine to keep them perfectly healthy. Pure, rich blood is the basis of good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. It gives good health, because it builds upon the true foundation—pure blood. Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

A LARGE CAT.—The largest lot of clothing ever brought to Salem is the spring stock just imported from the manufacturers by G. W. Johnson & Son.

HOLYERSON.—Has shirt waist sets from 15 cents up.

THE ENDEAVORERS.

Program of the Sixth Annual Convention at Oregon City.

The sixth annual convention of the Oregon Christian Endeavor Union will be held at Oregon City next week—beginning on the evening of the 14th and to continue to and through the 16th. This annual meeting will, without doubt, be one of the most enthusiastic in the history of the organization as reports to the president, H. S. Gile, of Salem, indicate there will be an exceedingly large attendance. Oregon City Endeavorers are alive and equal to the occasion of entertaining their brothers and sisters of this order and, at present, are vigorously engaged in preparing for the big occasion.

The Congregational church in Oregon City is the place that has been appointed for the convention to meet. It will be beautifully decorated with the convention colors—white and gold—and emblems of the order.

DIED.

THOMPSON.—Saturday night, April 11, 1896, at 8:35 o'clock, in Salem, Mary E. beloved wife of T. M. Thompson, aged 64 years.

Deceased was a native of Vermont, the year of her birth being 1832, and she was married to Mr. Thompson at Dallas, Polk county, in 1862, and they remained there until 1878 when they came to Salem where they have ever since resided.

One child, a daughter—Mrs. Mary Ferguson of Portland—was born to them. She arrived in this city on the 11 o'clock train Sunday.

The funeral took place at the First M. E. church this morning at 10 a. m. and burial in Lee Mission, Rev. Geo. W. Grannis conducted the services.

The bereaved husband is a harness maker and saddler and for several worked in the Dearborn shop in Salem. He holds the position of harness maker at the Chemawa Indian school.

EPLEY.—Anna Hamilton, wife of Henry Epley, died Sunday, April 12, at 12:35 p. m.

Mrs. Epley was born in Lewisburg, Mifflin county, Penn., November 18, 1835. She came to Oregon in 1865, and resided in Salem the past eight years. She is the mother of Dr. H. C. Epley of Monmouth, and Mrs. Alice Doid, who with her husband mourn their loss. Mrs. Epley has been for many years a faithful and consistent member of the M. E. Church. Her prolonged illness was borne in christian fortitude and patience.

"She being dead yet speaketh." The funeral services will take place from the M. E. Church at 10 a. m. Tuesday, April 14.

Friends who wish to view the remains may do so at the residence before the funeral service.

To WED.—A marriage license was issued today to Henry Bartholomy and Cora Feglas, A. A. Miller, witness. The groom is a brother-in-law of Mr. Miller, the job printer.
