THE ELKS' BANQUET.
Westcott & Irwin, the Capital City Caterers, Score a Great Success.
Manager Westcott, of the famous old "Strong's Restaurant," scored a great success last night on short notice. "Billy" is not in politics this year, but when it comes to banquets he is "strictly in it."
The handsomely decorated tables at the Elks' banquet were arranged in the form of a pentagon, or horseshoe, with an opening toward the entrance of the Reed. Snowy napery, cut glass and glittering silver, and seats for 150 guests made the sight a wonderful one to behold from the stage or gallery. The menu was as follows:
Shoalwater Bay Raw.
Soup.
Consomme.
Relishes.
Spanish Queen Olives, Salt Almonds, Sweet Virginia Pickles.
Salads.
Lobster. Shrimp.
Chicken. Cold Dishes.
Turkey, Cranberry Jelly, Chicken, Tongue, Ham.
New York Ice Cream, Angel Cake, Pound Cake, Lady Fingers, Etc., Swiss Cheese, Oranges, Bananas, Nuts and Candles.
Coffee, Apollinaris.
Zinfandel, Ruinart Vin Brut, Cigars.
It was served in four courses by ten waiters, under the personal supervision of Mr. Westcott, and gave universal satisfaction, as one of the finest spreads ever set before an appreciative assembly.

A BOLD ATTACK.—Last evening as Rev. W. E. Copeland was passing the corner of Commercial and Chemeketa streets, a man roughly accosted him and grabbing him and by the coat demanded that he give him his supper. Mr. Copeland explained that he was unable just then to accommodate the fellow, when in more vehement tones and a tighter hold upon the reverend gentleman he said: "You are a Grand Army man and you have got to give me something to eat." Mr. Copeland plainly told the man he had been drinking and that "he would not give anyone that was intoxicated anything," and loosening himself from the fellow's hold, proceeded home. There were three of the ruffians and Mr. Copeland thought for a moment he might be "in it" for a hard hand to hand encounter.

GOING HOME.—This morning the delegates of Elks from Portland returned in their special car. They were accompanied by some of the Roseburg boys. Many of the latter left for home on the morning train, and only a few remain in the city.

THE SPECTACULAR FAUST

A Salem Vocalist's Romantic Marriage in Wisconsin.

The Salem Elk's lodge is to be nicknamed the "Bullewhahys."
St. Paul's Guild is to have a lecture May 6th by Rev. Hill, of Portland, who did Europe on a bike.
The Roseburg Plaindealer of Monday says: "W. E. Baxter and wife, of Salem, are stopping at the McClallen."
The spectacular presentation of Faust at Reeds Thursday evening will be a little out of the ordinary run of entertainments.
Mrs. Elmer Calkins, of Salem, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stowell, of this city.—Eugene Guard.
Mrs. Louis McClain and daughter had the temerity to ride their wheels in bloomers the other day and they appeared very well.
Salem people at Wilhoit Springs will have the pleasure of a talk with the folks at home over a telephone line that is to be completed by Silveton and Scott's Mills June 1.

The young ladies of the Salem Standard Dramatic club will give an entertainment at Gervais this evening for the benefit of the Catholic church of the latter place. They went to Gervais in carriages.
The Russian lecture on Saturday night for the benefit of the public school fund promises to be instructive to young and old. It is for a good cause and should have a crowded house.
Miss Georgie Gwynne, a delegate to the Christian Endeavor state convention at Oregon City, last week, returned home Monday afternoon. Miss Alberta is still enjoying a visit with Portland friends.
Miss Adda Davenport, who has been very low with typhoid fever, has almost fully recovered. The young lady was able to walk to her father's office yesterday, and will no doubt soon be able to resume her duties there.

The funeral of Mrs. E. A. Watson was largely attended today by her old neighbors and acquaintances as a token of the high esteem in which she was held by them. Her remains were given burial in the Masonic cemetery. So passes away the old pioneer of Douglas county and not many years hence the last one who settled in Douglas and took part in redeeming it from a cheerless wilderness and making it a fit habitation for refined society, will be numbered among those that were and are not.—Roseburg Plaindealer.

MORRISON'S "FAUST."
Morrison's company will be at Reed's opera house, Thursday evening, April 23, in Bayle Bernard's version of Goethe's immortal Faust, which with his excellent cast, new and elegant scenery, wonderful electric effects and calcium lights, will be given upon a scale of grandeur never before witnessed here. One of the features of the production will be the Nuremberg cathedral choir rendering appropriate music throughout the piece. The "Broken" scene in the fourth act is a marvel in stage craft with its flashes of genuine lightning and showers of real fire. Tickets on sale at Pattons'.

SALEM AMATEURS
To the front once more with a delightful program, but not public. It is "by the card" only, as following neat invitation declares:
"You are cordially invited to attend a Dramatic Entertainment given by the 'Over the Teacups' Club, for the benefit of the Salem Hospital, at St. Joseph's Hall, corner of Chemeketa and Winter streets, Saturday, April 23, 1896."
Perfect Wisdom
Would give us perfect health, because men and women are not perfectly wise, they must take medicine to keep them perfectly healthy. Pure, rich blood is the basis of good health. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the One True Blood Purifier. It gives good health, because it builds upon the true foundation—pure blood. Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

A TRANSFER OF TAXES.

MISS BEAMER MARRIED.
"A bit of romance is wafted back from Minnesota, which will be of some interest to Salem people. We see by the Rushford (Minnesota) Star that Miss Elta Beamer, who sang in Aamold concert given in this city last year, was quietly married at McGregor, Iowa, the ceremony, however, being performed in Prairie du Chien, Wis., just across the river. Her lover, J. H. Hanson, came to McGregor on his return from the South, to spend Sunday with his fiancée. They visited Pictured Rocks, on Sunday, and returning went to Prairie du Chien, and did not return until Monday morning, offering as their excuse the fact that the pontoon bridge was replaced that day, making it impossible for any one to return to this side Sunday afternoon or night. They kept their secret until the termination of Miss Beamer's contract with Prof. Aamold at Rushford, and when the last entertainment was over (having given two at Rushford) Mr. Hanson being present, claimed his bride and the secret was given to the public. Mr. and Mrs. Aamold left for their home in Oregon and Mr. and Mrs. Hanson for theirs in North Dakota." Miss Beamer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Beamer, Salem business people and prominent members of the Baptist church. Miss Beamer was a graduate of Willamette Conservatory of Music, and one of Salem's most talented young musicians.

THE ELKS' BANQUET.
Westcott & Irwin, the Capital City Caterers, Score a Great Success.
Manager Westcott, of the famous old "Strong's Restaurant," scored a great success last night on short notice. "Billy" is not in politics this year, but when it comes to banquets he is "strictly in it."
The handsomely decorated tables at the Elks' banquet were arranged in the form of a pentagon, or horseshoe, with an opening toward the entrance of the Reed. Snowy napery, cut glass and glittering silver, and seats for 150 guests made the sight a wonderful one to behold from the stage or gallery. The menu was as follows:
Shoalwater Bay Raw.
Soup.
Consomme.
Relishes.
Spanish Queen Olives, Salt Almonds, Sweet Virginia Pickles.
Salads.
Lobster. Shrimp.
Chicken. Cold Dishes.
Turkey, Cranberry Jelly, Chicken, Tongue, Ham.
New York Ice Cream, Angel Cake, Pound Cake, Lady Fingers, Etc., Swiss Cheese, Oranges, Bananas, Nuts and Candles.
Coffee, Apollinaris.
Zinfandel, Ruinart Vin Brut, Cigars.
It was served in four courses by ten waiters, under the personal supervision of Mr. Westcott, and gave universal satisfaction, as one of the finest spreads ever set before an appreciative assembly.
