Stomach, sometimes called waterbrash, and burning pain, distress, nausea, dyspepsia, are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This it accomplishes because of its wonderful power as a blood purifier. Hood's Sarsaparilla gently purifies and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs, invigorates the liver, creates an appetite, gives refreshing sleep, and raises the health tone. In cases of dyspepsia and indigestion it is found to have "a magic touch."

Stomach

Severe pains across my shoulders, and great distress. I had violent nausea which would leave me very weak and faint, difficult to get my breath. These troubles came on often and more severe. I did not receive any lasting benefit from physicians, but found such happy effects from a trial of Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I took several bottles and mean to always keep it in the house. I am now able to do all my own work, which for six years I have been unable to do. My husband and son have also been greatly benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla—for pains in the back, and after the grip. I gladly recommend this grand blood medicine." NOT THREE PARTIES, BUT ONE.

Republican Protectionist: The bimetallicists of all parties must unite on, and give their unwavering and loyal support to a common presidential candidate. Unless this is done, success is out of the question. There must be but one bimetallic candidate for president—not three. There must not be three candidates representing bimetallic principles, and each asking for the suffrages of bimetallicists.

For bimetallic Democrats, for Populists, for Independent Republicans believing bimetallicism to be the paramount issue, for each of these groups of bimetallicists to nominate their own presidential candidate, and thus divide the votes and waste the strength of bimetallicism, is to make the success of bimetallicism at the polls, and the restoration of bimetallicism impossible. Bimetallicism in the Democratic, Populist and Republican parties must not stand apart over a question of minor difference. Because bimetallicism in both Democratic and Republican parties cannot agree on the questions over which they have fought and divided in the past is no reason why, believing as they do, that the restoration of bimetallicism can alone bring renewed prosperity, they should stand apart on the old issues and refuse to support a common candidate standing for the free coinage of silver and financial independence.

Partisanship must be subordinated to patriotism. There is no occasion for bimetallic Democrats, or Republicans, or Populists to sacrifice their principles, but there is every reason why they should not divide their forces in the coming campaign on three distinct candidates, and by so doing defeat the great, and at this time, all-important question of policy on which they are all agreed.

For bimetallicists to array themselves into antagonistic groups is to court defeat. There are great differences, it is true, between bimetallic Democrats, Republicans and Populists over the questions of public policy, but when they are agreed that the appreciating gold standard is undermining our independence, impoverishing our people, and rapidly degrading our wage earning classes to a condition of abject dependence, of virtual slavery, to an aristocracy of wealth built up on the suffering and poverty of our producing classes, when they are agreed that a prompt return to bimetallicism can alone check the disastrous fall in prices that is ruining our farmers and manufacturers and reducing our wage-earning classes to beggary, and when they are agreed that bimetallicism can alone bring renewed prosperity, why place the restoration of bimetallicism in jeopardy because of differences over questions of policy that are admittedly subordinate to the great question of bimetallicism which with the interests of all classes are bound up.

We repeat there is no occasion, there is no necessity, for Democrats and Populists and Republicans believing bimetallicism to be the paramount issue, to sacrifice their principles, but believing bimetallicism to be the most important question before the American people, believing that the welfare of our producing classes is bound up with the restoration of bimetallicism, and knowing that only by a union of the bimetallic forces in all parties can the restoration of bimetallicism be achieved, it is the duty of all patriotic Americans believing in bimetallicism, to subordinate all other questions during the coming campaign to the one great question on which they are all agreed, unite their strength and give their votes to a common candidate standing for bimetallicism, and financial independence as opposed to gold-monometallicism, an appreciating dollar, and the degradation and enslavement of our producing classes to foreign money-lenders.

The restoration of bimetallicism accomplished, then Democrats, Populists and Republicans who have united their forces to bring about bimetallicism, and to free our people from encroachments of the money power and the aggressions of centralized capital, can fight out, by the ballot, their differences over other questions without endangering the future of our people. But for bimetallicists in different parties to divide and pull at cross purposes, at this time, over issues that, though great in themselves, are subordinate to the money question and regarded by the great majority of bimetallicists, is to place in jeopardy the independence of our producing classes.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Vanderburg's History.

W. S. Vanderburg, congressman elect from the first district, represented Coos county in the Oregon senate during the sessions of 1893 and 1896, having been elected as a Populist. He was born in Iowa in 1848, and came to Oregon in 1864, settling a year later in Coos county. For fifteen years he was engaged in the meat and grocery business in Marshfield. He was chairman of the committee on agriculture in the legislature of 1893. He was nominated in the district Populist convention, held at Salem in March last, by Rev. J. S. McCain, now a minister of Coos county and formerly of Salem. Mr. Vanderburg's mother, sister and brothers are residents of Lane and Douglas counties, Oregon, and are well-known by the editor of this paper. They are all staunch Republicans, as well as his brother-in-law, Mr. S. G. Lindsay. —Baker City Republican.

Men are often wiser than they act. They know how to be happy but sometimes they are miserable. They know there is no happiness worth the name without health, yet they neglect their health. They allow dyspepsia and biliousness and constipation to get a hold on them and make life wretched. These three complaints usually come together. Constipation affects the stomach and liver. That brings on bilious attacks and indigestion, headache, nausea, dizziness, queer sensations of weakness and pain. Your nerves are unstrung, your system is sluggish. You lose ambition. The fact is your whole constitution is being slowly undermined. What you need is Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

They cure constipation, dyspepsia and biliousness in the only sure, permanent way. There is nothing violent or irritating about them, they work mildly though quickly. They ease and strengthen the bowels to carry on their functions naturally. They gently stimulate the flow of bile from the liver and the digestive juices of the stomach. You don't become a slave to their use as with other pills. They make you regular and they you can leave them. That is the difference between Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets and the something "just as good." Don't let him do so with you.

If you want to keep your health and strength without consulting the doctor so often, the best thing you can do is to write to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., for a copy of the "People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." Send a one-cent stamp to cover cost of mailing only. It is a large book of 320 pages with over 100 illustrations. It is the same book of which 25,000 copies were sold at $1.00 each. The only difference is in the binding, which is in the free edition which is of strong manilla paper. There is no other such complete family doctor book in the English language. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. Send now before all are given away. They are going off rapidly, therefore, do not delay sending one if in need of one. The above generous offer is limited to 50,000 copies.
