ROBBER.—On Thursday the home of John and Harry Slough on Howell Prairie, was robbed of $175 in gold coin. John was at home at the time, and thinks the deed was done while he was doing chores about the barn. The brothers are batchelors, and have no clue to the theft. Two watches were in plain sight, near the money, but were undisturbed.

TO BE MARRIED.—On Wednesday, July 22, 1896, in the church of the Epiphany at Chehalis, Wash., Miss Mable Ingersoll will be united in marriage with Mr. Harry J. Miller. Miss Ingersoll graduated from the Willamette university conservatory of music and has numerous friends in Salem.

Hon. F. R. Smith commenced yesterday harvesting oats, and reports that the other grain will be ripe as soon as they can get to it. Mr. Smith reports that they have a fair crop, but estimates that grain in general will not go over a half crop.

A PROTECTION ITEM.—Genuine protection begins at home, and this explains why so many Salemites smoke the popular La Corona cigar, which is made by Aug. Huenkestein, of this city.

DEAF MUTE SCHOOL.—P. S. Knight, the newly-elected superintendent of the deaf-mute school, has looked the ground over and made some recommendations to the board, relative to the management of the school for the ensuing year. One material change recommended by Mr. Knight is the immediate abolition of farming in connection with the school. The superintendent-elect does not consider farming in keeping with the purpose of a deaf-mute school, nor necessary as a matter of economy. In fact, Mr. Knight says with the amount necessary to keep up the 100-acre farm at the school, he can go into the markets and buy everything that the farm can produce. In reference to employees, it is not likely there will be any changes where service has been satisfactory.

A COACHING PARTY.—Last evening Mrs. Frank Hughes gave a coaching party in honor of Miss Bellinger and Miss Coman, of Portland, the guests of Miss Sally Bush. Early in the evening the party boarded Basey's wagonette, drawn by four black steeds, and enjoyed a drive through the Polk county hills. It was a delightful evening for a coaching party and the event was a source of much enjoyment to those participating. Those enjoying Mrs. Hughes' hospitality were: Miss Bellinger and Miss Coman, of Portland, Miss Ethel Hughes, Miss Lella Waters, Miss Lena Breyman, Miss Genevieve Hughes, Miss Ethel Thompson, and Miss Gussie Lowndale; Messrs: F. K. Lovell, F. S. Dearborn, Chester Murphy, C. L. McNary, Ed. C. Giltner, W. McNary, Frank Hughes.

ASCENDED MT. HOOD.—Messrs. A. M. Grifley, C. Woodin, and C. E. Roblin, left Salem last Tuesday morning, with the intention of climbing to the summit of Mt. Hood, but only the first two named gentlemen succeeded in carrying out their intentions. The foot of this historic mountain was reached Wednesday morning, and the ascent was begun. The summit was reached at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. They report the ascent quite difficult, but had a most enjoyable trip. The party returned Thursday evening.

CENTENARIAN DURBIN.—It is contemplated to have a grand jubilee on the next anniversary of the birth of John Durbin at the home of his son Isaac on Howell Prairie. This anniversary will be on the 13th of September, 1896. He will then have attained to the good ripe old age of 102 years. All emigrants of 1845 from all localities are earnestly and respectfully invited to be present. It is hoped that old forty-niners will bear this in mind and attend, and all will have a season of social enjoyment such as was never before had in Marion county. Marion and Polk county papers please copy.

FROM ALASKA.—In this issue is an interesting letter from Hope City, Alaska, written by the Salem party composed of W. F. Darby, J. J. Harkins, Oscar Taylor, Charles Gies and J. A. Mothorn, who left Salem last April. Since the letter written Mr. Taylor has returned to Salem and verifies all the statements made. It is evident that Alaska is not the best country in the world to go to for comfort or wealth.

HALF RATIONS.—No one who enjoys the protection afforded by Kenworthy & George's restaurant, but gets all he can eat, and their prices are at hard-pan.

GOT THE BEAR.—Eugene Simmons came in this morning with a bear scalp, and secured a bounty warrant for $1.50 at the county clerk's office.

SHADOWED.—The mulatto, who escaped from the penitentiary a few days ago, is reported to have been seen at Shedd yesterday. Soap Foam Washing Powder will not make the clothes yellow, nor burn the hands.

WOODBURN. The McKinley and Hobart adherents met at the armory last night and effected a temporary organization with C. L. Ogle as chairman and F. A. Ford as secretary, about fifty persons were present about one-half of whom were Populists and silver Republicans who had come out to see the enthusiasm? Hon. Chas. B. Moores made his usual speech, although he declared it was not a speech and no one disputed his declaration. Among other things he said that in times of great depression men could be made to believe almost anything. That theory may be all right among Mr. Moores' adherents and co-workers but it will take a substantial argument to move a thinking community like Woodburn. The number of members who signed the club roll was not made public, but the delegates were chosen with the hopeful expectancy that the membership could be made one hundred, and eleven delegates were accordingly elected to attend the county convention to be held at Salem the 18th. The usual resolutions embodying the request to the state central committee to remove Jonathan Bourne Jr. from the position of secretary of the Republican state central committee, was introduced but the meeting failed to act upon it. The meeting adjourned without effecting a permanent organization.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.—Patton Bros. lessees of the opera house, have some first class theatrical troops in view, the appearance of whom may be looked forward to with considerable anticipation. Papers have been signed for the appearance of the Fannie Rice Co. during the theatrical season of 1896-97. Arrangements have not yet been made for the appearance of some company during fair week but some first class troupe will probably be billed for the occasion. Among the numerous attractions for the coming season are: Chicago Festival Orchestra, 45 people; Sousa's band, Corinne Opera Co., Georgia Minstrels, Hoyt's Trip to Chinatown, The Bowers Girl, Flinnigan's Courtship and Chase Comedy Company.

BICYCLE BREAKFAST.—The bicycle breakfast given by Mrs. H. D. Patton, Friday morning, in honor of the Misses Kate Bellinger and Winifred Coman both of Portland and guests of Miss Sally Bush, was a very pleasant event. At 5:45 the party mounted their silent steeds and enjoyed a two hours ride down the river road. At 8 o'clock the party assembled at the residence of Mrs. E. N. Cooke, on Court and Summer streets, where a delicious was served. Those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Patton were, Misses Kate Bellinger and Winifred Coman, of Portland; Mae Boise, Lou Hirsch, Messrs Albert Jessup, Ches. G. Murphy and Basil Jannar.

CHURCH PICNIC.—At 9 o'clock this morning the members of the German Baptist Sunday school, with well filled lunch baskets, boarded a street car for Morningside where they spent the day. Rev. C. E. Kliever and several members of the church also went along with the young folks. Superintendent Emil Roth, and teachers, Mrs. Kiewer, Mrs. Senke, Miss Lydia Rich and Mr. John Roth, each accompanied by his respective class formed the larger part of the picnic. A delightful time is reported, the young folks enjoying great sport on the hillsides. Will Remain. The pastoral committee has utterly failed to get anyone to take charge of the work at Salem, in place of Rev. Elwood Scott. His things were mostly packed and sold and the family ready for their eastern journey. When under the urgent pressure of the committee and church he has consented to remain for a season longer until other arrangements can be made for the work. The disappointed is no little thing either to himself or eastern friends. He may go however, himself for a few weeks visit east, and return to Salem for a time.—Yamhill Independent. Mrs. Jordan an old Pendleton pioneer died on the 14th at the age of 63. G. C. Thurman an old Oregonian, came to Oregon in 1850, died at Orlando, Cal. A MODEL DAIRY. One of Salem's Best Butter, Cheese and Milk Depots. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Pargeter arrived in Salem last February, from Nebraska, and at once leased the dairy plant of B. P. Boise, Sr., and entered into the business. The products of this dairy have advanced into popularity with astonishing rapidity, but in order to place before our readers, who are unacquainted with the superior grade of butter, cheese, etc., produced at this factory, some of the merits of this enterprise are given for their consideration. A JOURNAL reporter visited the dairy this morning, and found Mrs. Pargeter in the midst of her morning work, which she dropped and showed her visitor about the place, explaining the business-like order in which her work was carried on. Mrs. Pargeter is certainly a model housekeeper, as is evidenced by the neat and tidy appearance of the house. The room in which the milk, etc., is kept, is thoroughly cleaned every day, as is also the adjoining room, in which the butter is made. From the pasture to the churn the most commendable rule of cleanliness is observed with the greatest caution. This is one of the most essential features conducive to successful butter and cheese making. The appearance of the stable is strongly in contrast with some kitchens we have seen. The public is invited to call and be shown about the place at any time. Good butter is usually quite rare especially during the warm summer months but the purchaser may entertain no fears as to quality of the product if obtained at this dairy. From 23 to 30 cows are continually kept on the place and 60 gallons of milk is the amount handled each day. The output of the dairy is 25 to 30 gallons of ice cream per week; 25 pounds of butter per week; 70 pounds of cheese per week. Mr. Pargeter has at large number of patrons to whom milk is delivered both morning and evening. Any one wishing choice dairy products would do well to call at the home of Mr. Pargeter, on Liberty street, one door north of Costello's grocery store, where all orders receive prompt attention.

THE SANTIAM DITCH.—All users of water from the Santiam ditch will be glad to know that the food gates will be again opened at Stayton tomorrow. Since shutting it out to clean the ditch, the water that was left in it, has been very dry owing to the work done and the fact that the small flow could not properly carry off the garbage that is thrown into it by persons along the line.

Think It Over. Have you ever heard of a medicine with such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla? Don't you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier, has proved over and over again, that it has power to cure, even after all other remedies fail? If you have impure blood you may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good. Hood's Pills assist digestion. 25 cents.
