Careers of the Whistleknockers.

JULIAETTE, Idaho, Sept. 11.—George Whistleknocker, the Indian who robbed Mrs. McLead at Lapwai, has been arrested, and, after a preliminary trial at the agency, was sent to Lewiston jail for safekeeping.

The father of the culprit, J. Whistleknocker, was a renegade and horse-thief, and when his sire died in 1869, leaving property and horses to his sister, John stole the whole legacy. Being arrested, he was brought before an Indian tribunal, with Chief Tuck-a-Pe presiding. The sentence of the court was that he be bound hand and foot and thrown into the swift-flowing Salmon river. This was done, and John was actually nearing shore, when the court, no doubt apprehensive of his vengeance, pushed him back, and the prisoner disappeared. These summary proceedings, however, found no favor, and Tuck-a-Pe fled for his life to the mountains.

The Aurora on August 11, was seized by the United States cutter Rush, Captain Roberts, and ordered to report to H. M. S. Icarus, on a charge of having used firearms in sealing. The four skins complained of had holes made by a gaff in capturing them after spearing, and Captain Brown had kept these skins separate and especially pointed them out to the captain of the Rus. His explanation however, was refused. A prize crew was put aboard and the schooner handed over to H. M. S. Icarus, which ordered the Aurora to Victoria.

ARMENIANS TO BE DEPORTED.

Turkish Villages Cautioned Against Peace Disturbances.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 11.—(Delayed in transmission)—The protests of the British and Italian embassies at the deportation of the Armenians had but little effect. The Turkish government sent a circular to its ministers abroad saying that in view of securing the maintenance of order here it had been decided to send to their native country all unemployed strangers, and provincial officials had been instructed to watch all such persons and prevent their return to Constantinople.

Commissions have been sent to the ports of landing to establish the identity of all the deported persons, and a constant watch will thereafter be kept upon their movements. Measures will also be taken to keep out of the Turkish empire emissaries of the Armenian revolutionary committees who are working in Bulgaria and elsewhere.

CANEA, Sept. 11.—The British warship, Collingwood, has left for Syria. She returns on the 12th to Suda, where other warships will seek shelter in a few days. All are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the sultan's firman. Its delay is giving opportunity for disorderly bands to continue the depredations which the governor cannot prevent until he officially receives his extraordinary powers, nor can he bring culprits to justice.

The Mussulmans are complaining bitterly that their olive are being burned, but there are no means of verifying the exactness of these statements. The insurgents, although peaceful, will not disperse until the promulgation of the firman.

Torpedo-Boats Grounded.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 11.—The torpedo-boats Cushing and Stiletto were both aground near the torpedo station yesterday. They had been down the bay at Bristol, where they had taken a party of naval officers to witness the launching of the new torpedo-boat at the Herreshoff works. In making her slip during the severe northwest gale the Stiletto was forced ashore just north of the government pier, and the Cushing, in trying to assist her, was soon in the same predicament. Efforts by the station launch and a local tug to move the two boats were for the time unavailing, and were abandoned.

Later on the boats came off with the rising tide, the Cushing towing the Stiletto. Neither vessel was injured, as it was soft mud in which they were stuck.

The Trades Unionist.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 11.—In the tradesunion congress there was a lively debate over the resolution of the National Sailors' and Firemen's Association, on the question of political prisoners. It read:

"That this congress calls upon the government to grant complete amnesty to all who were political prisoners, and is of the opinion that the time has arrived for a full and careful inquiry of the home secretary into the case of the three men—Gales, Charles and Battolo—condemned at Stratford, April, 1892, by Justice Hawkins to 10 years' penal servitude for being in possession of explosive substances, with a view to their speedy release."

Objections were raised to this resolution on the ground that the matter is outside the province of the congress, but it was carried by a vote of 88 to 52.
