THE CAMPAIGN GOES ON.

Hon. Harry Watkins, People's Party Bryan elector was in town today.

See additional announcements in these columns of Bryan meetings.
The Salem club will prepare a local program for speakers at Salem.

The Salem Bryan club now numbers nearly five hundred and is still growing.

A McKinley meeting at Macleay last night was addressed by General Williams, T. T. Geer and others. Mr.
Bacey's tally-ho took out a crowd of the "workingmen's club."

The Bryan campaign club room headquarters receive many callers, and they are made welcome and supplied with all kinds of silver literature by Secretary Myers and Capt. Fairbanks in charge.

J. W. Bell, a Dallas business man writes: "I am with you in the silver campaign. Like you I have been a Republican all my life. My first vote was for Grant. This fall will be my first vote away from my party. But I am convinced I am right."

Petitions for the Bryan electors are being signed at Marion and Woodburn at THE JOURNAL office 240 have called and signed. Fully one-third of them are Republicans, and many are Grand Army men.

A Promising Player.

A letter was received in Salem a few days since from a Salem boy in attendance at Stanford university, California, in which is discussed the probability of Chester G. Murphy, also of this city, making an excellent football player.

NOTARY.—L. J. McIntyre, of Newton, was successful today in being appointed a notary.

Mrs. Moore's Funeral.

The remains of Mrs. Ellen L. Moores who died so suddenly in St. Louis last Saturday evening, are expected to arrive in Portland Saturday morning.

If connection can be made with the Roseburg mail, the remains will arrive in Salem at 11 a. m. Saturday and be immediately conveyed to the late residence corner Marion and Front streets, where services will be held at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. P. S.
Knight. Burial will take place in the family lot in Rural cemetery.

Should the remains fail to arrive here Saturday the funeral will be conducted Sunday at the same hour and place. Mr. Ross E. Moores, a son, goes to Portland tomorrow and will accompany the remains to Salem.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr.
King's New Discovery." Try this

NOTES FROM DRAIN.

Several of the young people visited the Boswell Springs Sunday.

Improvements are being made on the Drain Hotel and the new restaurant.

A bonfire social was given by the members of the Christian Endeavor last Friday night.

Attorney-General Idleman will address the citizens of Drain and vicinity, Saturday night, September 19, on the political issues.

The patent flouring mills owned by Russell & Son is running day and night.

A McKinley and Hobart Republican club was organized here last Saturday evening.

The price paid for picking hops is 30 cents per box.

The State Normal school at this place opened September 7 with an increase of 58 per cent over last year and also has an increased faculty.

Indicted for Three Charges.

Frank Verhaag, former manager of the Salem Soap and Chemical Works, has fallen into the clutches of the law. Mr. Verhaag left Salem very suddenly and it is said the books of the company gave evidence of poor management. The following clipping is taken from a Portland paper of Tuesday morning:

"Three indictments were returned against Frank Verhaag, Verhaag represented himself as manager of the Salem Soap Works, and said he was authorized to sign and endorse checks, and he succeeded in swindling a number of persons. He passed a check for $22.75 on Phillip Streib, drawn on Ladd & Tilton, and signed Aller & Lewis, and for this he is indicted for forgery. He is indicted for obtaining money under false pretenses, in obtaining goods worth $10.50 from Jake Chrisman, on a check for $15, signed Frank Verhaag, manager Salem Soap Works. Another check scheme worked by Verhaag was to draw a draft, reading: 'Ladd & Bush, pay to the Commercial National bank $25. Frank Verhaag, manager Salem Soap Works.' This Verhaag induced Julius Duerr to indorse, and drew $25 on it from the Commercial National bank, which Duerr has to lose.

Mr. Verhaag will be given trial on the three indictments September 18.

From Clackamas County.

To the Editor of the Statesman:

Can you not get some speaker that will be able to convince the people that the issue in this campaign is not an issue of tariff, but an issue of money? The speakers so far have done more to injure the cause of gold than anything, and if something is not done to help it, we will be wiped off the face of the earth. As far as this county is concerned, there is five silver votes to one gold vote. Such men as Hon. Barkley is making hundreds of votes for free silver and Bryan. There are people wearing McKinley badges, that are going to vote for Bryan, for the reason that he is a friend to the workingman.

PARK DEDICATED.

"Asylum Avenue Park," located on Mrs. Ellen Savage's property just east of the asylum, was yesterday dedicated to the public when the Seventeenth and Chemeketa street Evangelical church Sunday school held its annual picnic.

The many basketfuls of "good things" were spread upon one long table and the rapidity with which they disappeared gave evidence of the appetites created by invigorating exercises and the delightful country atmosphere. Following dinner old and young joined hands and played numerous games much to the amusement of the younger ones. All present seemed to enjoy themselves lucely. The Park is very pleasantly located and is a delightful place in which to hold such events. It will undoubtedly be the scene of many merry picnics next season.

BARKLEY AND PENNOYER.

Another Bryan Supplement With Two Great Speeches.

Not all could hear Pennoyer and Barkley at the great Bryan ratification at Salem. So THE JOURNAL has printed in supplement form the great speeches made on that occasion by those two gentlemen. They will be supplied from this office at $1 per 100 or $7 per 1,000 postpaid. We have still supplements with Bryan's speech of acceptance at New York and Mitchell on the impossibility of International Bimetallism.

POPULAR CONTRIBUTIONS

For the Bryan Literature and Campaign Fund.

To raise a campaign fund to defray the expenses of circulating literature and defraying expenses of speakers THE JOURNAL has opened a popular subscription of a fixed amount per week. Following subscriptions have been received and all who feel able are requested to hand in their names and amounts, which will be duly acknowledged in these columns, in sums from ten cents upwards.

In spite of slurs from the gold standard Statesman subscriptions to the Bryan campaign fund increase. No canvass has been made but if every friend of the people's candidate will hand in his name and amount he can give, from 10 cents upward, we will give credit in this column.

The campaign now begun will last six weeks and will result in Oregon casting her vote for Bryan or McKinley. The money will be turned over to the treasurer of the Salem Bryan club:

MARION.

The heavy rains of Monday night and Tuesday has stopped threshing for the present. Only a few short jobs and they will be done for the season.

Mark Ellis and family moved to Salem last Monday where they will make their home for a while at least.

Win. Fresh and family and Mrs.
Fresh goes in a few days to Linn county where they have rented a 400 acre farm for the coming year.

Reports say J. W. Lance goes to Turner where he will engage in the livery business.

Mr. Kent late of Scio has dissolved partnership with his partner in the creamery business at Scio and will occupy Mrs. Fresh's house and start a creamery here at once. Success to Mr. Kent.

Mr. Stevens of Clackamas county addressed the People of Marion Thursday of this week at 7:30 p. m. at the school house on the issues of the day, in behalf of the bimetallic union, come out and hear him one and all.

Our school directors are busy this week repairing our school house, kal-somining inside and giving it a coat of paint outside which will add not a little to the appearance of it.

MARRIED.

MURRAY-HOWARD.—On Wednesday, September 10, 1896, Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, and Capt. D. C.
Howard, by Rev. W. Steele, of the Presbyterian church.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wands, in Hampden Park, east of Salem, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The bride has made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Wands for some time, and their arrangement and entertainment for the occasion, were handsome and much appreciated. Every one in and around Salem is acquainted with the groom, as he has been a resident of this place for many years.

Those present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wands, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cherrington, E. E. Cherrington, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Matthews, Rev. and Mrs. W. Steele, Mrs.
Jennie Webb, S. E. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. T. E.
Mangus.

LIGHT FROST.—We had a light frost last night, Jack Frost being visible in a great many places at an early hour this morning. It is not though the frost was severe enough to cause any damage to fruits.

INCORPORATED.—The Granite Telephone Co. of Grant and Baker county has filed articles.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor, Morrison, of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 3025 Cottage Grove, Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength.
Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle
