BY HOFER BROTHERS.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 18, 1896.

PRESIDENTIAL TICKET.

For Independent American Bimetallism and People's Government.

For President, WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN, of Nebraska.

For Vice-President, THOMAS WATSON, of Georgia.

ELDER BARKLEY'S MEETINGS.

Hon. H. L. Barkley will speak as follows: Oregon City, September 10; Albany, September 11; Eugene, September 12; Corvallis, September 13; Toledo, September 15; Lebanon, September 16; McMinnville, September 17; Jefferson, September 18; Grant's Pass, September 22; Clatskanie, September 24; Kalama, Wash., September 26.

BRYAN NO DODGER

Bryan says: "If you want the gold standard don't vote for me. I will open the mints to free coinage of gold and silver at the present ratio as sure as I am elected and take my oath of office as president on the 4th of March, 1897. I will make an open road from the mines of our precious metals to the mints of our government and take no gold or silver at second hand."

The goldbug who don't know that gold and silver are the precious money metals of the entire world, can't see the merit of a plain man's statement. They want a verdict of our people for the gold standard, which would say: Float $1,600,000,000 to two thousand millions currency on $100,000,000 gold reserve.

A verdict of the American people for the gold standard will mean issue $500,000,000 to one hundred thousand of gold bonds to buy gold to float our silver and paper money. Will that make money plenty, or gold scarce?

Will that enable the farmer to get better prices for his products, with which he has to buy gold? Will he be better able to pay his interest? Will you vote away the legal tender standard dollar as primary money? It now circulates at par if there isn't a dollar of gold in sight, and it always will unless you strike it down. It is a dollar here.

Mr. Bryan is no dodger. No American citizen should be a dodger. You can't dodge this question. If you want the gold standard vote for McKinley. If a majority of the people of Oregon believe that is a good thing the electoral vote of Oregon should go to McKinley. If not, it should go to Bryan and independent American bimetallism.

TWO BRYAN MEN.

Mr. T. J. Gregory, of Goleta, California, sends $1 for THE JOURNAL and says: "Please commence my subscription from before the Bryan ratification. If I had known it in time I would have been there. I must tell you that I am more than pleased to find you on the side of the common people against the money power. It is time all good men come out strong and vote for principle instead of party prejudice."

Mr. S. Sherman, of Talent, Or., writes: "Send me the silver daily." P. S.—"Whoop it up for Bryan and better times."

The Statesman continues to print a fraud "Bryan platform." No Bryan man should contribute a cent to further promulgate that fraud. Let the Statesman be honest and manly for once in its life and print Bryan's platform as it is printed in THE JOURNAL.

Capt. S. B. Ormsby, who last spring was a rampant free silver man, will tell the old soldiers at Salem tonight why he is now something else.

CASTORIA

Castoria is a safe and reliable medicine for all ailments of the bowels.

STILL PULLING WOOL.

We'll tell you when the big woolen mills will run; when McKinley is elected.—Salem Statesman.

This is a threat of the banker's organ, that unless McKinley is elected the woolen mills will never run. It is on a par with the offer of a Salem wool buyer to pay 12c a pound for the 1897 wool clip if McKinley is elected. It is saying: "Stand and deliver—your vote!" On the same principle the woolen mills could hang out a sign: "Your wages will be doubled if McKinley is elected." Of course, they will not do that.

All this is a fraud, not a clear effort to bribe the voter. THE JOURNAL labored hard to raise the $25,000 subsidy for the "big woolen mill," and feels proud of it. But that woolen mill is not idle on account of the tariff. It ran for two years day and night under the Wilson tariff bill, during the hardest panic times this country has ever known. The Albany, Ashland, Oregon City and other woolen mills on the coast are running day and night at present. The threat to not operate the Salem woolen mills until McKinley is elected comes with poor grace, even as a campaign argument. Of course, it is entirely gratuitous on the part of the Statesman. No such talk is authorized by the managers. They have too much sense for that. As we understand the laws the duties on worsted goods and manufactured woollens are as high or higher under the Wilson bill as under the McKinley tariff. The whole proposition as a card in local politics is childish. It is part of the program to FORCE some one to vote as the bankers and McKinley managers want them to vote. It is worthy only of contempt.

"COL." SMITH, ATTENTION!

EDITOR JOURNAL.—In May 1865 I received $18 in greenbacks from the U. S. paymaster. Now, will John Smith (Dr. Smith), please tell me (through the JOURNAL), how much the government honestly owes me on that one payment, and does Comrade Smith think that Major McKinley will see that the old veterans are treated as well as the English bondholders? Should he be elected president next November?

By one who was there three years.

TILMON FORD CHALLENGED.

To a Joint Debate in Marion County on the Issues of the day To Hon. Tilmon Ford.

DEAR SIR:—I hereby challenge you to join me in a joint debate on the issues of the day. Said debate to be held at Jefferson, Stayton, Silverton, Woodburn and Salem. If for any reason you should prefer to debate with some other person I shall be pleased to furnish you a list of names from which you may choose your antagonist. By all means let's have the debate. Please answer Yours truly.

W. T. RIGDON.

If you are a poor working man, with a large family, call on Til Ford for that $700 surplus wealth he says is the per capita share of each man, woman and child. See how quickly you will get it.

Farmers, if you will vote for McKinley and gold only as money of redemption, we'll put a sugar beet factory on every quarter section!

Private noteholders can hope for neither interest nor principal if they allow the gold trust to dictate our financial policy.

The Salem Workingmen's (politician's) club will give the old soldiers a free lunch at the Salem council chamber.

T. T. Geer is being made a kind of tallender to that imported carpet-bagger Spencer.

"Oregon must redeem herself."—Salem Statesman. Oregon is not among the unredeemed and never was.

The big Salem bridge is full of holes as a sound money argument.

Ex-President Harrison has no more time to make speeches for McKinley.

Allison and Beed are not whooping up the gold standard.

A FARMER REPLIES TO FORD.

Chas. Miller, Sr. has been dissecting Hon. Tilmon Ford's campaign argument at Jefferson in the local paper there. Lawyer Ford spoke in the interest of McKinley and the gold standard.

He made the usual speech on the Wilson and McKinley bill. Mr. Miller showed they were so near alike that Cleveland refused to sign and approve the former because he could not distinguish any difference between them. Mr. Ford defended the gold standard platform and claimed all the prestige of the silver coinage under the Bland Act of 1878 and the coinage under the same while the Republicans were in power, and proved by their acts that they were a bimetallic party. Mr. Miller shows that Mr. Ford knew "that every dollar that was coined by his party was compulsory: he knows that the Bland bill that was in force for 12 years, and under which there was coined $387,000,000, and 44 Republicans of the house changed their former votes and sustained the veto."

MR. MILLER'S ARGUMENT. Now, says Mr. Farmer Miller: "they have yielded to the same gold standard power that caused Hayes to veto it, and the same power has forced the Republican party to swallow the single gold standard platform of 1896. This bill was passed over the veto by Democrats and became a law, and every dollar coined under that act by Republicans was compulsory, and Mr. Ford knows it, and he knows further that in 1890, as soon Mr. Harrison got in power, this law was repealed by Republican votes. The substitute for that bill was the infamous John Sherman act that paved the way to the issuing of $262,000,000 of bonds under Cleveland's administration. It authorized the purchase of $4,500,000 of silver and the issuing of coin certificates and the coming of as much of the silver as was necessary to redeem the certificates, and if the law had been enforced would have placed them on a par with the silver certificates issued under the Bland act. But to prove that the intention was to de-grade silver they refused to coin it under the law passed at the time, and here established the policy of redeeming them in gold and robbing the treasury and taxed the people for two years and was preparing to issue bonds for the same purpose that Cleveland was forced to do afterwards, who only carried out the policy of the Republican party, and this redemption in gold by Carlisle, contrary to and in open violation of the law, that Mr. Ford so readily condemned, was established by the Republicans. It is the footprints of John Sherman, who when he saw that a free coinage bill was likely to pass and become a law and a full legal tender, introduced and with the Republican vote had the clause inserted (unless otherwise specified in the contract. This was to de-grade silver in the interest of the money power."

We shall give some more of Mr. Farmer Miller's dissection of Mr. Lawyer Ford.

Solid For Bryan. Eugene Guard Sept. 17.—Already sixteen Bryan Clubs have been organized in Lane county, and it is expected that before the end of next week, at least ten more will be instituted. In no former political campaign has such interest been manifested by the farming and laboring class of people. The people in this section are certainly in favor of the white metal and for Wm. J. Bryan.

The Ideal Panacea. James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles Free. Fred A. Legg's Drug Store.
