Republican Grand Army Men. The Union Veterans' Patriotic League of McKinley Republicans of Marion county, effected permanent organization at a meeting held in the city council chamber Saturday night.

F. B. Southwick was named as first vice-president, J. F. Goode second, and L. D. Henry third. A committee, consisting of F. B. Southwick, G. Stolz and L. D. Henry, was elected to act in conjunction with those of the Republican clubs in the matter of arranging for the McKinley jubilee on the 17th.

Leo Willis and Dr. W. A. Cusick were, by unanimous vote, elected honorary members of the League. About 100 names were enrolled by the labors of a committee the past two weeks.

Resolutions were adopted denying the statement that D. C. Sherman, of Salem, that hundreds of Union soldiers were going to vote for the free coinage candidates. The League is going to turn out in a body to attend Senator Mitchell's speech next Monday.

TO ATTEND CONFERENCE.—Rev. John Parsons, Rev. J. H. Rook, Rev. S. A. Starr, of Dallas, and other ministers of the Methodist denomination, left this morning for Roseburg, to attend conference. Rev. G. W. Granin expects to leave tomorrow for the session of conference.

My method for examining the eyes for all complicated refractions, is the latest known to science, and there are no cases too complicated that I cannot reach. Consultation and examinations, free.

AN OPERATION.—Mr. Colbath had the third finger of his right hand removed at the Salem hospital by Dr. W. H. Byrd Sunday evening. The finger was smashed some time ago, and owing to some injury to the bone it was not healing up, and had to be removed.

John R. McLean, in his paper, the Cincinnati Enquirer, offers to bet $10,000 to $8,000 that Bryan will carry Ohio. He also offers to bet $2,500 to $500 that Bryan will carry McKinley's home town, Canton.

FACTS FOR LABORING MEN.

Will You Vote for the Low Wages of Gold Standard Countries.

This was a bimetallic country until Secretary Foster, under the Harrison administration, ruled that all government obligations were payable in gold on demand. That ruling alone, not a law by congress, has put us on a gold basis. This policy was continued by the Cleveland administration and can not be disputed by the Republicans who have now made that their platform.

While on a bimetallic basis in 1891 the average weekly wages paid in this country run from $8.88 to $21.18. Since going on a gold basis they have been steadily falling until now common laborers can be hired for 50 cents per day and carpenters, who formerly received $3, are working in Salem today for $1.50 or even less. Under a gold standard we can not hope to secure as good wages as are paid in England because more than half the gold of the world is owned in that country and loaned out to other countries, causing a steady stream of interest to pour into Great Britain and making money plenty there.

MRS. B. LEVY, OF PORTLAND, BACKED OVER AN EMBANKMENT.

Two Started Horses Leap Over a Twenty Foot Precipice.

A. M. Humphrey, proprietor of the Water Street Warehouse, has for some time been the proud possessor of a team of lively buckskin driving horses. Before taking another drive, Mr. Humphrey will be obliged to purchase another animal since he lost one of his team Sunday. The team was taken from the barn to Water street and attached to a picket fence just north of the warehouse and Mr. Humphrey began to wash them with a hose. Becoming startled they backed upon the fence breaking the pickets off. This startled the animals more and retreating quite rapidly across the street went over the river bank before Mr. Humphrey could prevent them from so doing.

The deceased leaves four children, her husband having preceded her to the grave about 18 months ago. The children are Messrs. Julius and J. B. Levy, Mrs. J. D. Meyer and Mrs. L. Colchert all of Portland.

BRYAN MEETINGS.—A people's mass meeting at Seio was addressed by Comrade Stephens, (Peo.) Hon. J. S. Smith, (Peo.) W. R. Bilyeu, (Dem.) and E. Hofer, (Am. silver), on Saturday afternoon. Great enthusiasm prevailed and Linn county silver men will give a good report of about 1,500 majority for the Bryan electors. On a show of hands not a voter out of 500 was willing to put up his hand and declare that he believed we could ever gain any bimetallicism via Mark Hanna.

FROM COOS.—J. E. Adcox sends eight subscribers and says: "Things are moving nicely here. Only yesterday an old soldier, and a Grand Army man, tore off his McKinley badge and stamped it beneath his feet. He says that he is not willing that his posterity should be enslaved that he might receive his pension of $12.00 per month in gold."

"The Leader" Has just received direct from Paris a full line of the celebrated "Trefousse" kid gloves. 21-3t
