REPUBLICAN BETTERS WANTED

Two McKinley Boosters Fail to Come to Time.

Monday after exhausting all argument, Sid Stolz offered to bet Dr. W. S. Mott $100 that McKinley would be elected. The doctor at once agreed to meet him with the coin next morning at 9 o'clock. The Republican striker in his enthusiasm also wanted to bet another $100 on the results in Oregon. The doctor at once agreed to cover the same with his coin at 9 o'clock Tuesday. At this Tom Kay, the popular woolen mill operator and protection enthusiast, stepped up and said he had $500 to wager upon general results for McKinley, which offer was accepted by the nervy doctor with the other two. This morning the man of medicine and Hon. Geo. S. Downing appeared at the appointed place and hour with the $700 jingling in their jeans, prepared to double their money on their faith, but lo and behold, they were lonesome until some of the Bryan friends gathered around, for the Republican advocates failed to show up, with their proffered wealth. And the Bryan money has been forced back into the coffers of some Salem bank.

THE TILLMAN PARADE.

Form at Postoffice Friday, on Horseback at 2:30 P. M.

On horseback, muleback, bullock, on a pony, cayuse, or jack or Jenny, turn out and take part in the Tillman parade. There will be no brass bands or frills, but the farmers who want to help elect the union candidate and secure financial independence will be out. Come in by ones and twos, by dozens or hundreds, make up a squad or a regiment, saddles, blankets or bareback (your Cleveland badges won't show), and let it be a day to be remembered.

F. W. Steussloff was in Portland today.

E. C. Herren was in Woodburn this morning.

Rev. A. Robinson returned home this morning.

A. W. Giesy returned to Portland this morning.

Attorney John Manning, of Woodburn, was in Salem today.

Mrs. Kittie McMasters left this morning for Monticello, Ill.

Herbert Thorne, of Oregon City, is in the city taking in the fair.

Thos. Kay, of the Salem Woolen mills, went up to Waterloo this morning.

Senator I. L. Patterson and son, Master Lee, went to Portland this morning.

Al. Swegle went to Portland this morning to remain for about two weeks.

Ex-Deputy County Clerk R. D. Allen, of Silverton, was in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Davis and Geo. W. Davis went over to Morrison this morning.

Druggist and Mrs. J. H. Lunn went to Portland this morning to remain a few days.

Uncle Billy Barlow, as the boys call him in Clackamas county, was in town today.

Rev. I. B. Fisher, now of the German Evangelical church at Portland, came up last evening.

Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, passed through the city this afternoon for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feichtinger left this morning for St. Joseph, Mo., where they will reside hereafter.

Mrs. R. H. Hoovey returned to Forest Grove Monday morning, after a pleasant visit with her brother, Dr. W. W. Contris.

Miss Ida Starkwether, a successful school teacher of Oregon City, is visiting with A. N. Muncy of this city. She will remain for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Osborn went to Turner this morning to attend the funeral of Geo. H. Turner which was held there this morning.

Rt. Guiss and Will Ogle returned to Woodburn this morning after a pleasant visit with Salem friends besides taking in the fair.

Mrs. Sarah Flowers and two daughters, left this morning for Elkhart, Ill. They were accompanied to Portland by Mrs. W. H. Odell whose guests they have been for the past year.

Jesse George, who has been ill at his Highland home for the past two weeks with typhoid malarial fever and inflammation of the stomach, was reported no better today.

A. E. Hofer and family returned last evening from McGregor, Ia., where they visited their old home. They were accompanied by Mrs. R. S. Bean, who had also been absent about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mosler and Miss Florence Mosler came down from Albany this morning. Mr. Mosler was formerly engaged in the lunch counter business in this city, which he is now successfully conducting at Albany.

AT MARION'S CAPITAL.

Mrs. Nathalia Grunwald, guardian of the estate of Ferdinand, Andreas, and Arthur Kell today filed annual account with the county clerk.

John S. Vandeleur and John Dancy natives of Great Britain were today granted final citizenship papers by County Judge G. P. Terrell.

A marriage license was today issued to C. H. Bains and Nina Thacker.

SEVERELY LECTURED.—Three Salem boys aged from 14 to 20 years of age respectively, were arraigned before Recorder Edes this morning for cruelty to animals. They were discharged but not until they had been severely reprimanded by Mr. Edes. It seems the boys had a race on Chemeketa street last evening and treated their horses quite cruelly. Owing to their family connections, the names of the boys are withheld.

TO CHEMAWA.—Fifteen young Indians from California passed through Salem on the 2:20 local for Chemawa where they will enter the Indian Training school.

UNIVERSITY POLITICAL CLUBS.

Both Bryan and McKinley Clubs Have Been Organized.

Out of a membership roll numbering forty-four, about twenty members of the "Students McKinley-Hobart Club" met in the city council chamber at 3:45 Monday afternoon, when a permanent organization of the club was effected. Officers were elected as follows: President, C. J. Atwood; vice president, I. H. Van Winkle; secretary, Carl Norris; treasurer, Ralph A. Watson. The club intends to participate in the Republican rally at Salem next Saturday. Meetings will be held every Thursday afternoon.

BRYAN STUDENTS ORGANIZE.

An enthusiastic meeting was held at the state house Monday afternoon by the Bryan students. About a dozen advocates of bimetalism were present and what the meeting lacked in numbers, it more than made up in enthusiasm. J. G. Callison was made temporary chairman, who appointed J. W. Cochran temporary secretary.

W. J. Shepard and B. E. Haney, were appointed a committee to draft declaration of principles and a committee on membership was appointed consisting of C. W. Livesay and R. B. Wilkins. The club will probably attend the Tillman speaking Friday in a body. Adjournment was taken at 4:30 o'clock to hold another meeting Wednesday afternoon when a permanent organization will be effected.

It is proposed by some members of the respective clubs that the members of the club whose candidate for the presidency is defeated, each obtain a wheelbarrow from some source and transport one of the members of the victorious club through Salem's principal business streets on some night following the result of the November election. Those occupying the wheelbarrows are to carry torches and transparencies and the occasion promises to be of peculiar enjoyment to one of the clubs, at least.

Missed It Over Seventy.

Marion county's corpulent ex-Sheriff was passing down Court street a few days since when he engaged in a conversation with a business man the substance of which is as follows: Ex-Sheriff:—"I'll bet you there are not six business men in Salem who will support Bryan and free silver." Businessman:—"Why old man, you are dandy cracked. There are more than that number of Bryan men on this street."

A customer arrived at this juncture which brought the conversation to an abrupt conclusion and the ex-county official was soon lost to sight behind the door of a popular Court street refreshment booth. A few moments later the businessman having a little spare time, called the attention of two bystanders to the "unfounded" assertion of the ex-office holder and together the three counted just exactly 76 business men of Salem who were ardent supporters of Bryan.

All that were in the least doubtful but were counted. This is certainly an astonishing but nevertheless pleasing revelation and shows very plainly in which direction the wind is blowing.

The Hop Market.

Geo. W. Hubbard, the well-known hop buyer, went to Jefferson this morning. Mr. Hubbard stated that 7 1/2 cents per pound was being paid for choice hops and it was a question in his mind whether it would be polite for growers to any longer hold their hops in the expectation of a further raise since he did not think the price would advance any more. The superior quality of the Oregon hops this year commands for itself a ready sale with satisfactory profits to both grower and consumer. The price being paid for hops in Salem, 7 1/2 cents, is exactly the same figure for which they are being purchased at New York, notwithstanding the cost of transportation between the two points, amounts to 1 1/2 cents per pound. This is certainly a valuable object lesson to Oregon growers since it demonstrates that a choice product commands a heavy sale in any market.

HORTICULTURISTS.—The Oregon state board of horticulture is today holding its semi-annual meeting at the state house. All the members are present except Mr. Hobbs, of Eastern Oregon, and the chief work of the session is the reading and adopting of reports preparatory for the semi-annual reports to the legislature.

LETTER TO PORTLAND.—Savage, the gardener, made his first shipment of winter lettuce to Portland this morning. Last winter Mr. Savage shipped several thousand cases.

FIGURES ON OREGON.

The Webfoot State Over-whelmingly for Bryan.

So far the McKinleyites have done all the blowing about carrying Oregon. Of late, they have admitted the state was close.

The Oregonian and Chairman Hirsch claim only 500 majority for McKinley, when the party has had ten to twenty thousand majorities and pluralities.

The JOURNAL has information that the McKinleyites can't carry a county in the state unless it is Multnomah, and that will be close. If a full vote of the Democrats and Peoples party can be got out Marion county will give Bryan one thousand majority, and the state will go for Bryan by ten to fifteen thousand majority.

A CAREFUL ESTIMATE.

Albert Tozier, of the Pacific Farmer, Portland, has been attending the fair since it opened—when approached by a JOURNAL reporter yesterday in regard to the political situation in Oregon, he said: "I have the names and addresses of 41,000 voters in Oregon, outside of Multnomah county. Of the 41,000, I have the political faith of 37,000, and comparing the June vote with the vote for president in 1892, and the state vote of 1894, I estimate that Bryan will carry the following counties by majorities as follows: Baker, 500; Benton, 200; Clackamas, 400; Coos, 400; Curry, 10; Crook, 50; Douglas, 400; Jackson, 1,000; Josephine, 100; Lane, 250; Linn, 1,000; Lake, 100; Lincoln, 25; Gilliam, 25; Marion, 400; Grant, 100; Morrow, 100; Polk, 25; Klamath, 50. Harnet, 250, Malheur, 250, Union, 1,000, Yamhill, 250, Wallowa, 350, Washington, 25, Wasco, 100, Sherman, 25, Tillamook, 25, Columbia, 200, Yamhill, 250. I concede McKinley Clatsop county by 350 and Multnomah by 3,500. I claim that I have made the most successful poll of Oregon that has ever been made when it comes to securing names, addresses and politics. I was offered $300 for the list, but it is not for sale. There is only one thing to fear and that is the vote of repeaters from Washington. The Republicans have given up Washington, and will therefore ship their repeaters to Oregon."

STAYTON.

Mrs. Robertson left for Lyons last week where she will visit her brother, W. Potter.

B. P. Taylor made a business trip to Salem Friday returning the same day.

Mr. Fred, of Marion was a Stayton visitor Friday and Saturday.

Miss Pugh, the Salem elocutionist, left for her home Thursday morning. She will return next Monday to take charge of a large class which she succeeded organizing while in our little town.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugus, of Sublimity, were guests at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Richardson last Friday.

Fred Jones, of Roseburg is visiting his father, Mr. Jones, of this place.

David Wyatt and wife, of Lyons, were visiting at the home of Mrs. Wyatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Balsley over Sunday.

A social hop was given at the Daisy hall last Friday evening, and was well attended, a pleasant time is reported by at present.

Misses Dora Benson and Lacey, of Sublimity, were Stayton visitors last week.

Mrs. Dr. Derbyshire and Mrs. Osborn drove over to McMinnville last Sunday, where they visited with Mrs. Henderson.

H. Cooper made a business trip to Salem last week.

The postponed meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary will be held at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Myers, on Friday at 2:30 p. m.; not on Wednesday as was announced, by mistake.

A BRYAN RALLY.—It will be held at Salem, Oregon in Armory Hall at 7:30 p. m., Oct. 15th, 1896. Hon. M. A. Hurley, of Wis., will address the People on the silver question the paramount issue in this campaign. A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to be present. 10-10-96

The dealer who says, "I have no Hoe Cake soap," practically admit that he does not sell first quality goods. If he says he has something "Just as good" you will know at once that he is trying to sell you an inferior article. There is more clothing destroyed by poor soap than by actual wear, as the free alkali rots the cloth. Hoe Cake contains neither free alkali nor worthless filling.

Wanted—All girls to know that "Hoe Cake" will not make their hands red like common soap. Save the wrappers. They are worth a cent apiece. (7-1) 97

Held in Slavery.

Tonight closes the engagement of the Bacon company and all those wishing a treat should not fail to see it, "Held in Slavery" which has been produced successfully on both continents. The play is full of interest and vivid with dramatic situations. The scenic effects will be realistic, a storm on the Gulf of Mexico, showing a vessel at the mercy of the elements. The third act of "Held in Slavery" witnesses a thrilling fire scene. The whole production is artistically dressed for the occasion with all the scenic paraphernalia specially painted for this production of which plot the following is a brief condensation.

The story "Held in Slavery" laid in Louisiana and hinges on romance with a thread of true devotional love between a young Southern belle, (Miss May Nannary,) and Julian Harry Sedley) a young sailor, and the interruption of their courtship by Vincent, (Howard Scott,) a chief of a band of wreckers, who is a wealthy planter, and is enamoured with the heiress. His pathetic appeals for a return of love neglected, he accuses her of being a slave. To prove this falsehood Julian crosses the Gulf of Mexico to Santa Rosa and gets proofs of her being a free girl. Vincent through trickery gets possession of the proofs and changes them for forged ones. Jennie's estate is sold and Vincent buys Jennie as a slave; she escapes assisted by Julian and Skinner, (Harry Sedley) a curiosity seeker. Vincent sets fire to Julian's house and abducts Jennie. Other parts are taken by M. J. Hooley, as Teddy, the Irish smuggler; Clara, a gleam of sunshine, Helen, Henry and Corks, a dark cloud; Jennie Weinman.
