120 STATE STREET.

THE BADGER STATE.

Carlisle's Speaking Tour Is Ended in Kentucky.

WHAT CHAIRMAN JONES SAID.

Bryan Does Not Need the State of Illinois.

Bryan in Wisconsin
APPLETON, Wis., Oct. 30.—The towns visited by Bryan in the Badger state this morning were liberally bedecked with yellow. Not since he has left the Ohio river valley has he encountered such crowds so antagonistic to his views.

At Green Bay Bryan addressed several thousand people. There was not much enthusiasm at the start, but before he had concluded his speech his audience was applauding him liberally.

The End of Carlisle's Tour.
LEXINGTON, Oct. 30.—The last of Carlisle's five speeches in Kentucky, was made here this afternoon, to a tremendous and enthusiastic audience. Carlisle said today, his visit to Kentucky only confirmed his previous expressed opinion, that Bryan would be badly beaten.

What Jones Did Say.
CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Chairman Jones, of the Democratic national committee was shown the London dispatch today, in which he is quoted as having admitted the defeat Bryan in Illinois. "I never said Bryan would not carry Illinois," said the Senator, what I did say was that Bryan would win without carrying that state. We have not given up hope of carrying Illinois. On the contrary, we fully expect to carry it."

Prisoners Transported.
HAVANNA, Oct. 30.—Montalvo, an oculist, and a member of the local central autonomist committee; a planter named Juan Onaghton, Antonio Escobar, the editor of La Discusion, and 185 members of a secret association will tomorrow be sent to the island of Fernando, off the west coast of Africa, one of the penal settlements of Spain. La Discusion was recently suppressed by the government for printing a leading editorial, of which Escobar was the author, commenting upon the suggestion of the joint intervention of the United States and Mexico, with the view of settling the Cuban question.

Money Market Quiet.
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—There was a notable absence of excitement in Wall street at the opening today, considering the extreme stringency of the money market yesterday. The higher London quotations, scarcity of stocks offering in local market, and rumors of financial relief measures to be taken by banks, caused confident sentiment. The only loan reported up to 11 o'clock was of $10,000 at 5 per cent.

The Girl Will Live.
MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—A special from Butte, Mont., to the Journal says that James Kelly, a miner, who accused his sweetheart, Jessie Hall, of unfaithfulness, shot her this morning, and then killed himself. The girl will live.

Snow Storm.
OMAHA, Oct. 30.—Western Nebraska is covered with 10 inches of snow. In some sections of the state a high wind accompanied the snow, assuming the proportions of a blizzard. Trains are delayed, and on several branches have been stuck in the snow.

New Orleans Cyclone.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 30.—About 4:30 last night a cyclone struck this city on the river front just above Peniston street and swept over a distance of about a mile and a half, or 30 blocks, from Peniston street to Robin street, the track of the storm being about 100 feet wide from the river to Peniston street.

The first building damaged was the Independence oil mill, situated at the head of Peniston street. It was unroofed and the building and contents damaged to the amount of $600.

The conveyors of the new elevator of the Illinois Central railroad were slightly damaged, and John White-meyer and John J. Buck, employed at the elevator, were lifted from the ground, dashed against the elevator, and the latter was severely hurt.

Hundreds of buildings in the track of the storm were damaged, many being partially unroofed and the chimneys prostrated. Trees were uprooted and fences blown down.

The storm-swept section of the city is in darkness tonight, owing to the prostration of electric-light wires, and details of the damage are difficult to obtain. At first a number of lives were reported lost, but so far these reports have not been verified.

The property loss is estimated at $100,000. Several cotton sheds on Robin street, near the river front, used by the Texas & Pacific railroad for cotton storage, were damaged to the extent of $10,000. A number of the sheds were completely destroyed.

George Bealer, a switchtender, was seriously injured, an arm and hip being broken, and Joseph Hennessy, a laborer, was also injured at the sheds. All the other laborers, about forty in number, had just knocked off work, and fortunately were out of the sheds before they collapsed.

Canneryman Held Up.
MARSHFIELD, Or., Oct. 30.—A. H. Simmons, manager of the Parkers-burg salmon cannery, on the Coquille river, was held up in his office by two masked men, who demanded of Simmons, at the point of a revolver, that he open the safe. Simmons refused, and the robbers began an assault upon him with their revolvers. The robbers "went for" the manager with such fury that he changed his mind, but the desperadoes did not hear him say that he would open the safe. During the scuffle Simmons caught hold of the mask of one of the robbers and tore it from his face, so that he recognized him. This frightened the robbers away.

Mr. Simmons has several flesh-wounds on his head, and is under a doctor's care. Who the robber is that he recognized he will not disclose. No arrests have been made.

London Market.
LONDON, Oct. 30.—At Baltic today California wheat, which was very sparingly offered, was sold for 6d advance. Other kinds were firm at yesterday's prices. On mark Lana holders asked higher prices, but there were no buyers to test the values.

A PORTLAND RALLY.

An Interest in Free Silver in That City.

CROWD IN SPITE OF RAIN

Awful Efforts of the Oregonian to Belittle Them.

PORTLAND, Oct. 30.—(Special)—Three thousand people packed the exposition Wednesday night.

It was the occasion of a great free silver rally, entirely under the auspices of the free silver Republicans. E. Hofer, Bryan elector and national committeeman of the American silver party, presided and delivered a half hour speech that created the greatest enthusiasm and surprised Portlanders and Salem people who were present.

The Wisconsin man who followed was not in good voice and could not hold the crowded house as closely as he would have if all could have heard what he said. Singing by the Bryan Campaign Glee club was a pleasing feature. Judge Del Stuart, of Portland, also an Iowa Republican, closed the evening with a fifteen minute speech that aroused the audience to the highest pitch of good feeling for the silver cause and candidate. The chairman proposed three cheers at the close for American labor, American homes and the American flag, and they were given in such a hearty manner as to cause even the tall tower of the Oregonian to tremble.

THE BRYAN CAUSE
at Portland is steadily gaining ground. If McKinley and the gold standard get out of this city with 2000 majority they will do well. Bets are now taken even on Oregon and general results. All odds on McKinley have been withdrawn. Esberg, Gunst & Co., the cigar men who have been advertising they would bet two to one on McKinley, will not come to the scratch.

Feeling is very strong among the business men that this campaign will teach the Republicans a lesson and administer a rebuke even if they win.

WHAT HOFER SAID.
"The McKinleyites can't run along in the Cleveland rut. They've got to get out of it. The American people will make them do it. To add to the wealth of the capitalist will not produce prosperity. To manufacture more goods and borrow more money will not make the people more prosperous when they have no money to buy goods or pay interest on what they now owe unless the farmer can have the prices of farm products restored to the point where he can employ labor at cash wages and buy goods freely, neither the factories nor the laboring man have any future. Until we stop dumping our cheap silver bullion in the markets of the world to enable the English trader to buy cheap farm products we cannot destroy that competition."

Murder in Germany.
BERLIN, Oct. 29.—Bruno Werner, a clerk, has been arrested in the Hartz mountains charged with being the instigator of the murder of Herr Major Levy, president of the Berlin bar, Sunday morning, October 18. Levy was attacked by two men in the bedroom at his residence at Meierentrasse and clubbed to death. His wife was seriously wounded at the same time. The assassins escaped.

A Shooting Affray.
BAKERSFIELD, Cal., Oct. 30.—The sheriff's office has received information from Randsburg, the desert mining camp, that a shooting affray took place there in which one man was killed and two men wounded.

Mushrooms are ripe, and halloween is close at hand.

McKinley's Denunciation of Cleveland

For Discrediting Silver and Enhancing the Price of Gold.

The following is a verbatim extract from the address of William McKinley at the Lincoln Day banquet, in Memorial hall, Toledo, Ohio, February 12, 1891:

"During all of Grover Cleveland's years at the head of the government he was dishonoring one of the precious metals, one of our own great products, discrediting silver and enhancing the price of gold. He endeavored even before his inauguration to office, to stop the coinage of silver dollars, and afterward and to the end of his administration persistently used his power to that end. He was determined to contract the circulating medium and to demoralize one of the coins of commerce, limit the volume of money among the people, make money scarce, and, therefore, dear. He would have increased the value of money and diminished the value of everything else—money, the master—everything else the servant. He was not thinking of the poor then. He had left their side. He was not standing forth in their defense. Cheap coats, cheap labor and dear money. The sponsor and promoter of these professing to stand guard over the welfare of the poor and lowly! Was there ever more inconsistency or reckless assumption?"

What has CHANGED McKinley's VIEWS ON SILVER?

The Kaiser Tragedy.
NORRISTOWN, Pa., Oct. 30.—Coroner Kurtz visited the scene of the Kaiser tragedy, where early last night Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Kayser, Jr., were according to the husband's story, held up by two highwaymen, and Mrs. Kayser murdered and her husband shot through the left arm. The coroner found Mrs. Kayser's gold watch hidden under a stone and a revolver alongside near by a fence. Her purse, containing $40, was found in the carriage in which the couple were riding when the alleged holdup occurred.

Eight-Hour Law.
SALT LAKE, Oct. 30.—The state supreme court handed down an opinion in the Holden case, unanimously affirming the constitutionality of the eight-hour law concerning which there was so much contention, before the adjournment of the legislature that passed it last spring. The law effects all mines in the state, and there was a strong fight made against it by mine-owners, at the time it went into effect.
