But Bryan Does Not Concede Defeat

UNTIL IT IS A HARD FACT.

Both Dakotas Claimed for McKinley With a Small Vote.

WYOMING SHOWS FOR SILVER.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 5.—Returns to the Democratic committee show a plurality, for the Bryan electors, of 504 and for Osborne, for congress, 650 votes.

PLOT TO STEAL KANSAS.

WICHITA, Nov. 5.—The following dispatch reached Wichita last night at a late hour: "Place guard over county clerks office to prevent the stealing of the returns.

SENATORIAL PROSPECTS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—As regards the election of United States senators there five doubtful states yesterday were Delaware, Kansas, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Dakota. It is now reasonably certain that Delaware will have a Republican legislature.

KANSAS SAFE.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 5.—Kansas has, without a doubt, elected Bryan electors. This is conceded by the Republican state chairman, Simpson.

INDIANA RETURNS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Seventy-three counties out of 92 in Indiana show a plurality in the state for McKinley of 20,252. Remaining counties may bring it down to 19,000 or 18,000.

IDAHO BOLD.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Senator Dubois wires the Associated Press from Blackfoot, Ida: "About one-third of the state has been heard from indicating with tolerable accuracy that McKinley will get about one vote in every seven in the state and that Borah, Silver Republican, will be elected to congress and will carry the legislature against the combination of Democrats, Populists and Gold Republicans.

WILL TAKE OFFICIAL COUNT.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 5.—With two whole counties (Leslie and Knott) and eighteen precincts missing, Bryan has a plurality of 215 votes in the state, but many returns are unofficial and it seems highly probable the state board will have to decide result.

LATER.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5. 1 p. m.—The Kentucky returns, which are supposed to be nearly correct, 100 out of 119 counties, give Bryan a plurality of 654. Of the nineteen missing counties, seven gave a Democratic majority of 230, and twelve gave a Republican majority of 5,400 in 1895.

MICHIGAN.

DETROIT, Nov. 5.—With nearly the complete returns in, Pingree's plurality is estimated at about 70,000. McKinley's is 15,000 less. The Congressional consists of 12 Republicans and 2 Fusionists.

MINNESOTA.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—Thirty-four counties complete and the remaining 81, estimated closely, give McKinley 48,812 plurality and Clough, for governor, 10,115.

STILL UNDETERMINED.

LINCOLN, Nov. 5.—Bryan's advices from Senator Jones are still to effect that result election several states undetermined. These states are necessary to election either candidate.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Chairman Mark A. Hanna has just issued a statement in which he says McKinley has 265 electoral votes sure, and that he feels confident of 13 more in Kentucky, 2 in Wyoming and 11 in North Carolina, which are in doubt.

A POP SENATOR.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 5.—A special to The Journal from Yankton, S. D., says South Dakota will go for McKinley by somewhat less than 600. The legislature is fusion by about 20 votes on joint ballot, which means a Populist senator to succeed Kyle, Andrew Lee, Populist, is elected governor.

Specials to The Journal from North Dakota points indicate that the legislature will be Republican on joint ballot by a small majority. There seems to be no reason to change the previous estimate of 5,000 majority for McKinley in the state.

OREGON.

ASHLAND, Nov. 4.—Twenty-four out of thirty precincts in Jackson county, give Bryan 2,107; McKinley 1,290. Bryan's net plurality in the county is 1,006 with one precinct to hear from, which will increase it to 1,015.

WEST VIRGINIA.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 5.—Senator Elkins authorizes the following:

"From returns and best estimates of the Republicans will carry West Virginia for the national ticket by about 12,000 majority. All four members of congress and two-thirds of the legislature are Republican.

TREASURY ALL RIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Information received at the treasury department shows that large amounts of gold are being offered at the several sub-treasuries in exchange for currency, the stipulation being made as to legal tenders. The demand for currency, especially small bills, in anticipation of the revival of business is exceptionally heavy. It is expected that several days will elapse before the officials will be in a position to meet all the demands. The treasury officials regard the financial situation as greatly improved.

SENATE IS SILVER.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—Chairman Faulkner, of the Democratic congressional committee, conceded today that the Republicans have a working majority in the house, but he asserted that the silver men controlled the senate. Chairman Babcock, of the Republican committee, claims 200 of the members of the house surely, Republican, twenty-two in doubt.

4 O'CLOCK EDITION.

A State That Will Receive Bryan Emigrants.

SOME STYLE ABOUT COLORADO

Delaware and South Dakota Are in Doubt.

COLORADO, Nov. 5.—2:07p.m. Bryan's majority in this state will be 120,000 to 130,000. Adams, Dem., is elected governor by 12,000 to 15,000. Legislature is strongly silver. Not a single straight Republican chosen.

KENTUCKY SAFE.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 5.—Democratic Chairman Sommers says Bryan has Kentucky by a couple of thousand.

HANNA CONFIDENT.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Chairman Mark A. Hanna has just issued a statement in which he says McKinley has 265 electoral votes sure, and that he feels confident of 13 more in Kentucky, 2 in Wyoming and 11 in North Carolina, which are in doubt.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 5.—A special to the Journal from Sioux Falls, says the result in South Dakota is close, requiring the official canvass to settle it. At Sioux Falls this morning, it was stated Pettigrew would resign, in order to insure his re-election by the Populists, for the full term, and his successor will be appointed by the governor-elect, Lee, who is a Populist.

DELAWARE IN DOUBT.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 5.—Three electors of Delaware are said to be Republican by about 260. It will require official count to determine the complexion of the legislature.

THE MCKINLEY CLAIM as made by the various state committees is as follows:

Table with columns: STATES, McKinley, Bryan, Doubtful. Lists states from Alabama to Wyoming with corresponding vote counts.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 5.—(To Associated Press, Chicago.)—Kentucky believed to be Democratic by about 2,000. (Signed) P. H. Johnston, chairman Democratic state central committee.

JONES CONFIDENT.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Chairman Jones, a Democratic national committee, and national committeeman Campau and Johnson, held a conference about noon today. Campau said afterward, the situation was not materially changed, and no statement would be given out at present. Secretary Hosford stated this afternoon that the outlook was not so bright.

Bryan's election depended on the result in Indiana and West Virginia, there being no further hope of Michigan. He admitted the situation in West Virginia was not bright, but still felt confident that Bryan would carry Indiana.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—Chairman McLaughlin has semi-official returns from every county in the state and a majority for McKinley of 3,000. Chairman Alford claims the state for Bryan by 4000 as the votes cast in Los Angeles for Populist electors under that party having not been included in Bryan's total vote.

THE MARKETS.

Hops Going Up.

The hop market of '96 is a most peculiar one, and is as much of a surprise to brewers and dealers as growers, says the Oregon City Press. Six weeks ago 50,000 bales could have been secured in Oregon at 5 to 6 cents, but the brewers refused to advance picking money and hops were left-unpicked.

England's crop is estimated at 350,000, which is 150,000 bales short of her requirements and 30,000 short of her average crop.

The continental crop will not be large this year. The Austro-Hungarian yield will be heavy, but in many of the German states only half or two-thirds of a crop is expected.

IN THE PAST YEAR ENGLAND HAS DRAWN her imports from Belgium and Holland principally but will have to come to America this year.

PORTLAND ELECTION.

Polls Closed to Shut Out the Bryan Men.

AND COERCION DID ITS WORK.

Enormous Vote Polled Up There for McKinley.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—[Following telegram from Portland shows how the election was conducted there by which about 18,000 votes are cast, 2,000 more than in June last, and a plurality of nearly 6,000 rolled up for McKinley.]

The election passed off quietly in Portland, but coercion and corporated power were seen at every poll. Employers were on hand to coerce employees, and to watch them cast their ballots. Polls were blocked in some instances both morning, noon and night, and Bryan men were kept from voting, and names were left on ballots, thus making it possible to trace any ballot and ascertain how a person voted, and tickets were polled in such a manner as to show the voter had expressed his preference.

It is said that in some precincts the polls were closed from an hour to an hour and a half at noon, thus keeping out Bryan voters. The A. P. A's supported McKinley, almost to a man, and the major portion of the Catholic vote went with them. Italians went almost solidly for McKinley.

Coercion didn't work, and many who supported the McKinley electors state that they did so in order to hold their jobs, they being told that in case of Bryan's election business would close down.

The police took no hand in politics as in former administrations, but voted as they saw fit. The force being non-partisan by order of Penoyer. McKinley received some of their votes. The most disorderly, disgraceful and contemptible act of the whole day was the Republican demonstration at night around the residence of Mayor Penoyer.

The police kept good order during the day and did not try machine politics, unless some of the Republican members of the force were party to the same.

The River Opened.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—Locks at Cascades were formally opened this afternoon. There were a large number of people from Portland and The Dalles present.

2000 Deer Killed.

J. K. Leabo was here from Elk creek this week with another load of fine venison. D. J. Graham accompanied him. Jim has killed and marketed some 125 fine deer this season. The hunting in that celebrated section has been unusually successful. Of the regular professional hunters, it is estimated that Lewis Martin has killed 200, John Wingham 150, Sam Geary and Geo. Weeks 125 apiece, Cal Wingham 150. Thos. and Joseph Bolen and Geo. Gilland about 100, Mark Wingham 150, and Dave Pence, who does Geary's peddling and packs out, about 30. These are principal hunters come from the valley towns. The finest buck of the season was killed Saturday by Scott Morris. He was a six pointer and weighed 150 lbs dressed. Morris has killed about a dozen this season. It is estimated this season there has been 2000 deer killed by hunters in that district, the meat being either sold or preserved.—Ashland Record.
